§101.1. Authority.

(a) Introduction. Pursuant to the authority granted by the Texas Securities Act and the Administrative Procedure Act, Texas Government Code, Chapter 2001, the State Securities Board prescribes the following sections regarding the administration and implementation of the Texas Securities Act, and the procedure and practice before the Texas Securities Commissioner.

(b) Objective. The intent of the board is to supplant unwritten policies and guidelines with written rules, and to revise existing sections to better reflect the realities of current financial, commercial, and regulatory principles and practices.

(c) Responsibilities of the Board. The Board is the governing body of the Agency. The Board formulates policy objectives, oversees implementation of these objectives, and is responsible for the proposal, adoption, amendment and repeal of Board rules. The Board appoints the Securities Commissioner, who serves at the pleasure of the Board, to implement the policies of the Board, administer the provisions of the Texas Securities Act, and to manage the day-to-day operations of the Agency.

(d) Responsibilities of the Securities Commissioner. The Securities Commissioner implements the policies of the Board, administers the provisions of the Texas Securities Act, and manages the day-to-day operations of the Agency. It is the duty of the Securities Commissioner to see that the provisions of the Texas Securities Act are at all times obeyed and to take such measures and to make such investigations as will prevent or detect the violation of any provision thereof. The Commissioner appoints other persons as necessary to carry out the powers and duties of the Commissioner under the Texas Securities Act and other laws granting jurisdiction or applicable to the Board or the Commissioner. The Commissioner may delegate to the other persons appointed such powers and duties of the Commissioner as the Commissioner considers necessary.

(e) Delegated authority. The Board hereby delegates to the Commissioner the authority to waive requirements contained in the Board's rules, as the Commissioner may, from time to time, deem appropriate.

(f) Severability. If any provision of these sections be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions that can be given effect without the invalid provision, and to this end the provisions of these sections are declared to be severable.

Source Note: The provisions of this §101.1 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective March 14, 1999, 24 TexReg 1768; amended to be effective June 12, 2002, 27 TexReg 4933; amended to be effective August 10, 2003, 28 TexReg 5991.

§101.2. Classification of Regulatory Standards.

(a) Rules. Rules are regulatory standards adopted and promulgated as herein required and shall be considered the highest level of policy applied by the Board.

(b) Written administrative guidelines. Written administrative guidelines are of the same level of policy as rules and will be adopted in the same manner and have the same effect as rules.

(c) Forms. Forms are regulatory standards adopted for the purpose of implementing the Texas Securities Act by prescribing initial basic requirements for completing various applications and reports filed with the Commissioner. The forms required by the Commissioner are set forth in Chapter 133 of this title (relating to Forms) and have the same force and effect as rules.

(d) Preliminary administrative suggestions. The commissioner may also adopt preliminary administrative suggestions which will represent those standards which are newly developed, only recently reduced to writing, in the process of being modified, or otherwise considered by the commissioner to be not yet suitable for general application and promulgation and publication as rules or written administrative guidelines. Such preliminary administrative suggestions may be implemented at any time without publication or other notice and may be immediately applied by the commissioner in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(e) Opinions. Statements made and opinions expressed orally or in writing by personnel of the State Securities Board in response to inquiries or otherwise, and not specifically identified and promulgated as rules, shall not be considered regulatory standards of the Board and shall not be considered binding upon the Commissioner in connection with specific adjudications undertaken by the Commissioner thereafter. The Commissioner may refuse to answer any question based upon a hypothetical fact situation.

(f) Interpretations by General Counsel.

(1) The Board's General Counsel may respond to inquiries concerning interpretations of the Texas Securities Act or these sections, provided sufficient relevant facts are given and the situation is not hypothetical. The General Counsel may refuse to respond to any inquiry. Responses to inquiries may take the following forms:

(A) an opinion that no exemption appears available in the specific fact situation;

(B) an opinion that the availability of specific exemption(s) is questionable or doubtful in the specific fact situation;

(C) an opinion that, under the facts as stated by the inquiring party, a specific exemption appears to be available; this opinion must be followed by a caveat that:

(i) the agency does not grant nor confer the exemption in question;

(ii) the exemption's availability depends entirely upon the full compliance with the language of the exemption;

(iii) the Texas Securities Act, §4006.153, places the burden of proof on the party claiming the exemption; and

(iv) opinions expressed are not binding upon civil litigants in future proceedings;

(D) an explanation of relevant provisions of the Texas Securities Act or Board rules;

(E) a statement that no interpretation will be expressed with regard to a given fact situation; or

(F) a statement that the staff of the State Securities Board will recommend no action to require registration in the specific fact situation.

(2) A nonrefundable fee in the amount set forth in the Texas Securities Act, §4006.058, must accompany each inquiry.

Source Note: The provisions of this §101.2 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective October 30, 1985, 10 TexReg 4080; amended to be effective March 14, 1999, 24 TexReg 1768; amended to be effective July 6, 0023, 48 TexReg 3497.

§101.3. Application.

(a) Generally. All rules shall be applied collectively, to the extent relevant, in connection with specific adjudications made by the Commissioner in the course of his or her regulatory functions. The Commissioner will make his or her determination on the basis of specific characteristics and circumstances of the individual adjudications under consideration and in light of the basic statutory purposes for regulation in the particular area. The Commissioner may, in his or her discretion, waive any requirement of any rule in situations where, in his or her opinion, such requirement is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors. The captions of the various rules are for convenience only. Should there be a conflict between the caption of a rule and the text of the rule, the text will be controlling. Material denoted by a cross reference caption is not a rule or part of a rule.

(b) Investor protection standard. Within the confines of statutory authority, conflicts between the industry and the best interest of the investing public will be resolved in favor of the investing public. Likewise, conflicts between existing securities holders and the best interest of the prospective investor will be resolved in favor of the prospective investor.

(c) Precedent. Because rules cannot adequately anticipate all potential application requirements, the failure to satisfy all regulatory standards of the Board will not necessarily foreclose the possibility of a favorable disposition of the matter pending before the Commissioner, and, similarly, the satisfaction of all such regulatory standards will not necessarily preclude an unfavorable disposition if the specific characteristics and circumstances so warrant. For this reason, the nature of the disposition of any particular matter pending before the Commissioner is not necessarily of meaningful precedential value, and the Commissioner shall not be bound by the precedent of any previous adjudication in the subsequent disposition of any pending matter.

Source Note: The provisions of this §101.3 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective May 17, 1976, 1 TexReg 1179; amended to be effective November 7, 1999, 24 TexReg 9607.

§101.4. Open Records Requests. Requests for agency records will be handled pursuant to the open records provisions of the Public Information Act, Texas Government Code, Title 5, Chapter 552. The requesting party shall indicate in writing the specific nature of the documents requested for examination or duplication.

Source Note: The provisions of this §101.6 adopted to be effective August 12, 2001, 26 TexReg 5786; amended to be effective August 10, 2003, 28 TexReg 5991; amended to be effective June 21, 2011, 36 TexReg 3713; amended to be effective August 25, 2019, 44 TexReg 4309.

§101.7. References to the Texas Securities Act in Board Rules.

(a) Transition. The Securities Act, Tex. Rev. Civ. Stat. Ann. art. 581-1 through 581-45, effective through December 31, 2021, will be replaced by the nonsubstantive codification of that Act, effective January 1, 2022. The codification is located in Title 12 of the Texas Government Code, Chapters 4001 through 4008. Because of the extensive reorganization of the Securities Act, a reader may find it helpful to compare the source law (Civil Statutes) with the revised law (Government Code) and refer to a disposition table that is available on the Agency's website.

(b) References and citations to the Act (Civil Statutes). A Board Rule that references or cites the Texas Securities Act, as set out in the Civil Statutes, is also a reference or citation to the equivalent provision in the codified Securities Act.

(c) Preservation of existing requirements, obligations, or duties. When an existing Board Rule is changed to update a reference or citation from the Civil Statutes to the codified Securities Act, that change does not invalidate or remove the requirement, obligation, or duty in the Board Rule arising prior to the effective date of the reference or citation change. A requirement, obligation, or duty accruing under a Board Rule is governed by the Board Rule as it existed on the date the action, inaction, or omission occurs.

§101.8. Employee Leave Pools.

(a) Family leave pool. A family leave pool is established to provide eligible employees more flexibility in bonding and caring for children during a child's first year following birth, adoption, or foster placement, and caring for a seriously ill family member or the employee, including pandemic-related illnesses or complications caused by a pandemic.

(1) The Securities Commissioner is designated as the pool administrator.

(2) The pool administrator will establish operating procedures consistent with the requirements of this subsection and relevant law governing operation of the pool.

(3) Donations to the pool are strictly voluntary.

(b) Sick leave pool. A sick leave pool is established to provide for the alleviation of the hardship caused to an employee and the employee's family if a catastrophic illness or injury forces the employee to exhaust all leave time earned by that employee and to lose compensation from the state.

(1) The Securities Commissioner is designated as the pool administrator.

(2) The pool administrator will establish operating procedures consistent with the requirements of this subsection and relevant law governing operation of the pool.

(3) Donations to the pool are strictly voluntary.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the State Securities Board adopts by reference the rules of the Comptroller of Public Accounts relating to Protests and Appeals, contained in Title 34, Part 1, Chapter 20, Subchapter F, Division 3 of the Texas Administrative Code (the "CPA Protest Rules").

(b) Bid Protests by Vendors Related to a Solicitation or Contract Award. A protest vendor may file a protest with the Director of Staff Services.

(c) Filing requirements.

(1) To be considered, a protest must be submitted in writing, signed by an authorized representative of the protesting vendor, and delivered to the Director of Staff Services in the time period specified §20.535 of the CPA Protest Rules.

(2) In addition to the filing requirements of §20.535 of the CPA Protest Rules, the protest must contain a statement that copies of the protest have been delivered to all other identifiable interested parties. The protesting vendor is required to and is responsible for mailing or delivering copies of the protest to all other identifiable interested parties. Upon request, the Director of Staff Services will provide the protesting vendor with a list of interested parties as reflected by the records of the Agency.

(d) Appeal.

(1) If a protest is based on a solicitation or contract award, the protesting party may appeal the determination of the Director of Staff Services to the Deputy Securities Commissioner.

(2) The Deputy Securities Commissioner may refer the matter to the Securities Commissioner for consideration or may issue a written decision that resolves the protest.

(3) An appeal that is not filed timely shall not be considered unless good cause for delay is shown or the Deputy Securities Commissioner determines that an appeal raises issues that are significant to the Agency's procurement practices or procedures in general.

(4) A written decision issued by the Deputy Securities Commissioner or the Securities Commissioner shall be the final administrative action of the Agency regarding the protest and appeal.

(e) Consultation. In performing their duties under this section, the Director of Staff Services, the Deputy Securities Commissioner, and the Securities Commissioner may consult with the Comptroller of Public Accounts, as well as Agency employees, including the General Counsel, concerning the dispute.

(f) Standards for Maintaining Documentation. All documentation on the purchasing process that is the subject of a protest or appeal shall be maintained in accordance with the Agency's records retention schedule.

(3) the applicant requests delay; or

(4) other conditions exist that give the Agency good cause for exceeding the established time periods.

(b) If it appears to the applicant that for reasons other than those set forth in subsection (a)(2) of this section, the Agency exceeded the time periods, the applicant may appeal by filing a complaint in writing with the Deputy Commissioner who shall provide the staff with a copy of the complaint immediately.

(c) If the Agency's staff believes that the time periods were not exceeded for the reasons alleged in the complaint, the staff may file with the deputy commissioner a written response to the complaint within five days of receipt by the Agency of the complaint.

(d) The deputy commissioner shall render a decision and communicate it to the applicant within 10 days of receipt of the applicant's complaint, whether or not a response is filed by the staff.

(e) If the complaint is decided in favor of the applicant, the applicant shall receive full reimbursement of all filing fees paid by the applicant.

(f) If the complaint is decided in favor of the staff, the applicant may appeal the decision by requesting a hearing before the Commissioner pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, §4007.107(a).

§104.7. Preliminary Evaluation of License Eligibility.

(a) Request for criminal history evaluation letter.

(1) A person may request the Agency issue a criminal history evaluation letter regarding the person's eligibility for a license issued by the Agency if the person:

(A) is enrolled or planning to enroll in an educational program that prepares a person for an initial license or is planning to take an examination for an initial license; and

(B) has reason to believe that the person is ineligible for the license due to a conviction or deferred adjudication for a felony or misdemeanor offense.

(2) The request must state the basis for the person's potential ineligibility, provide the information set out in subsection (b) of this section, include all pertinent court documentation including certified copies of all court indictments and/or judgments, and orders, and an explanation of the circumstances and events of the criminal action that led to the conviction or sentence.

(3) The fee for a preliminary evaluation of license eligibility shall be $100.

(4) To be considered complete, the request must include the appropriate fee and state the circumstances establishing the requestor's eligibility under paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(5) The Agency may require additional documentation including fingerprint cards before issuing a criminal history evaluation letter.

(6) If a requestor does not provide all required and requested documentation within one year of submitting the original request, the requestor must submit a new request along with the appropriate fee.

(b) Factors considered. After determining a conviction directly relates to a license issued by the Agency, the Agency considers the following evidence in determining whether the person is eligible for a license issued by the Agency. Accordingly, the requestor should provide information on the following:

(1) The extent and nature of the person's past criminal activity.

(2) The age of the requestor at the time of the commission of the crime.

(3) The amount of time that has elapsed since the requestor's last criminal activity.

(4) The conduct and work activity of the requestor prior to and following the criminal activity.

(5) Evidence of the requestor's rehabilitation or rehabilitative effort while incarcerated or following release.

(6) Evidence of the person's compliance with any conditions of community supervision, parole, or mandatory supervision.

(7) Other evidence of the requestor's present fitness, including letters of recommendation may also be provided and considered, including letters from prosecution, law enforcement, and correctional officers who prosecuted, arrested, or had custodial responsibility for the requestor; the sheriff and chief of police in the community where the requestor resides; and any other persons in contact with the requestor.

(8) It shall be the responsibility of the requestor to the extent possible to secure and provide to the Agency the letters of recommendation described by paragraph (7) of this subsection.

(c) Investigation of request. The Agency has the same authority to investigate a request submitted under this section as it has to investigate a person applying for a license.

(d) Determination of eligibility; letter.

(1) If the Agency determines that a ground for ineligibility does not exist, the Agency shall notify the requestor in writing of the Agency's determination on each ground of potential ineligibility.

(2) If the Agency determines that the requestor is ineligible for a license, the Agency shall issue a letter which complies with the requirements of Texas Occupations Code, Section 53.026(b) and Section 53.104(b), setting out each basis for potential ineligibility and the Agency's determination as to eligibility.

(3) In the absence of new evidence known to but not disclosed by the requestor or not reasonably available to the Agency at the time the letter is issued, the Agency's ruling on the request determines the requestor's eligibility with respect to the grounds for potential ineligibility set out in the letter.

(4) The notice under paragraph (1) of this subsection or the letter under paragraph (2) of this subsection shall be issued by the Agency within 90 days of the requestor satisfying all of the Agency's requests for information to complete the criminal history evaluation letter request.

§105.10. Default.

(a) The Securities Commissioner may make an informal disposition of the contested case by default by issuing an order in which the relief requested in the notice of hearing is granted and the matters set forth in the notice are deemed admitted as true upon proof to the Commissioner that the notice was mailed to or personally served on a respondent in accordance with §105.6 of this title (relating to Service) and that such respondent has failed to:

(1) file a written response as provided in §105.7 of this title (relating to Written Response to Notice of Hearing); or

Source Note: The provisions of this §105.11 adopted to be effective April 3, 2012, 37 TexReg 2165.

§105.12. Subpoenas and Depositions.

(a) In general. Except when in conflict with the provisions of the Act, including Section 28, and Board rules, such as §127.1 of this title (relating to Enforcement), subpoenas and depositions shall be administered in the manner prescribed by the APA and the SOAH Rules of Procedure.

(b) Pre-contested case. When the Staff anticipates the commencement of a contested case and determines that it is necessary to perpetuate testimony to prevent a failure or delay of justice due to the risk of unavailability of the testimony after the action is commenced, such as with the acute illness of a potential witness or receipt of information that the potential witness intends to leave the subpoena jurisdiction of the Commissioner, the Staff may file a request with the Commissioner for a commission to take a deposition as set forth in the APA, §2001.094.

(1) The request shall show:

(A) the Staff anticipates the commencement of a contested case;

(B) the subject matter of the anticipated action and the jurisdiction therein;

(C) the names and addresses, if known, of the persons expected to be interested adversely to the Staff; and

(D) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined, the substance of the testimony which the Staff expects to elicit from each, and the reasons why the testimony is necessary to prevent a failure or delay of justice.

(2) Upon filing a request with the Commissioner, a notice and copy of the request shall be served upon the witness, or witnesses, and upon each person named in the request as an expected adverse party. Each person served with a copy of the request shall have the right to respond to the request within 10 days of service of notice by filing a response with the Staff and the Commissioner.

(3) In any case where justice or necessity so requires, the Commissioner may permit the taking of such depositions upon shorter notice than required by paragraph (2) of this subsection, or may extend such time in order to permit service on any adverse party.

(4) If satisfied that the perpetuation of testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, the Commissioner may issue a commission authorizing the taking of such deposition. At such deposition the parties identified by the Staff as adverse persons or other parties identified shall have the right to attend and pose questions to the deponent.

Source Note: The provisions of this §105.12 adopted to be effective April 3, 2012, 37 TexReg 2165.

§105.13. Assessment of Hearing Costs. The State Securities Board may pay the costs charged by a court reporting service in transcribing a hearing in a contested case or the Securities Commissioner may assess the cost to one or more parties.

Source Note: The provisions of this §105.13 adopted to be effective April 3, 2012, 37 TexReg 2165.

§105.14. Proposal for Decision.

(a) At the conclusion of a hearing in a contested case, the Administrative Law Judge assigned to hear the case at SOAH will issue orders:

(1) setting appropriate deadlines for the filing of the parties' Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in the case, if any, and the responses thereto, if any; and

(2) setting appropriate deadlines for the filing of exceptions, if any, to the Administrative Law Judge's Proposal for Decision, and replies thereto, if any.

(b) In the event exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Proposal for Decision are not filed, SOAH loses jurisdiction over the case upon the expiration of the deadline for the filing of such exceptions.

(c) In the event exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Proposal for Decision are filed, SOAH loses jurisdiction over the case upon the issuance of the Administrative Law Judge's ruling on the said exceptions.

Source Note: The provisions of this §105.14 adopted to be effective April 3, 2012, 37 TexReg 2165.

§105.15. Orders Issued by Securities Commissioner.

(a) When SOAH loses jurisdiction over the case as prescribed in §105.14 of this title (relating to Proposal for Decision), the complete transcript and record of the case, and the Proposal for Decision shall be sent directly to the Securities Commissioner.

(b) The Commissioner may change a finding of fact or conclusion of law made by the Administrative Law Judge, or may vacate or modify an order issued by the Administrative Law Judge only on grounds set forth in the APA. The Commissioner shall state in writing the reason or basis for such a change.

Source Note: The provisions of this §105.15 adopted to be effective April 3, 2012, 37 TexReg 2165.

§105.16. Decisions; When Final.

- (a) A decision is final:
- (1) if a motion for rehearing is not filed on time, on the expiration of the period for filing a motion for rehearing;
 - (2) if a motion for rehearing is filed on time, on the date:
 - (A) the order overruling the motion for rehearing is rendered; or
 - (B) the motion is overruled by operation of law;
 - (3) if the Commissioner finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare requires immediate effect of a decision or order, on the date the decision or order is rendered; or
 - (4) if the decision or order is rendered pursuant to the Act, Section 23-2.E, on the date it is rendered.

(b) If a decision or order is final under subsection (a)(3) of this section, the Commissioner must recite in the decision or order the finding made under subsection (a)(3) of this section and the fact that the decision or order is final and effective on the date rendered.

(c) A person who is aggrieved by a final decision of the Commissioner in a contested case may seek judicial review of the decision. Judicial review of such a decision is under the substantial evidence rule.

Source Note: The provisions of this §105.16 adopted to be effective April 3, 2012, 37 TexReg 2165.

§105.17. Motion for Rehearing.

(a) In general. A timely motion for rehearing is a prerequisite to an appeal in a contested case except that a motion for rehearing of a decision or order that is final under the Act, Section 23-2.E, is not a prerequisite for appeal. Rather, a decision or order affirming or modifying an emergency order under the Act, Section 23-2.E, is immediately final and appealable.

(b) A party's motion for rehearing must be filed with the Securities Commissioner not later than the 20th day after the date on which the party or the party's attorney of record is notified of the Commissioner's decision or order on the Administrative Law Judge's Proposal for Decision in the manner prescribed by the

APA. A motion for rehearing must set forth the particular finding(s) of fact, conclusion(s) of law, ruling(s), or other action(s) which the complaining party asserts were in error, such as violation of a constitutional or statutory provision(s), lack of authority, unlawful procedure(s), lack of substantive evidence, abuse of discretion or other error(s) of law, or other good cause specifically described in the motion. In the absence of specific grounds in the motion, the Commissioner shall presume that the motion should be overruled.

(c) A reply to a motion for rehearing must be filed not later than the 30th day after the date on which the party or the party's attorney of record is notified of the Commissioner's decision or order on the Administrative Law Judge's Proposal for Decision in the manner prescribed by the APA.

(d) The Commissioner shall act on a motion for rehearing not later than the 45th day after the date on which the party or the party's attorney of record is notified of the Commissioner's decision or order on the Administrative Law Judge's Proposal for Decision in the manner prescribed by the APA or the motion for rehearing is overruled by operation of law.

(e) The Commissioner may by written order extend the time for filing a motion for rehearing, for filing a reply thereto, or for taking action in relation thereto under this section, except that an extension may not extend the period for action beyond the 90th day after the date on which the party or the party's attorney of record is notified of the Commissioner's decision or order on the Administrative Law Judge's Proposal for Decision in the manner prescribed by the APA.

(f) In the event of an extension, a motion for rehearing is overruled by operation of law on the date fixed by the order or, in the absence of a fixed date, 90 days after the date on which the party or the party's attorney of record is notified of the Commissioner's decision or order on the Administrative Law Judge's Proposal for Decision in the manner prescribed by the APA.

§105.18. Board Action on Motion for Rehearing.

(a) The Board may determine to act in place of the Securities Commissioner in ruling on a Motion for Rehearing filed by a party in a contested case. The decision to take such action is within the sound discretion of the Board and is not mandated by any request or motion.

(b) Upon receipt of a timely filed Motion for Rehearing in a contested case, the Commissioner shall provide a copy of the Motion to each member of the Board. Thereafter, the Commissioner shall provide to each member of the Board any response filed by a party to the proceeding in support of, or opposition to, the Motion for Rehearing.

(c) If requested by a member of the Board, a meeting of the Board shall be held for the purpose of determining whether the Board should act in place of the Commissioner in ruling on the Motion for Rehearing and, if so, whether the order of the Commissioner should be vacated or modified or a new hearing should be held. The meeting and all deliberations by the Board on the Motion for Rehearing shall be conducted in accordance with the Texas Open Meetings Act.

(d) The Board may change a finding of fact or conclusion of law, or vacate or modify an order only as permitted by the APA.

Source Note: The provisions of this §105.18 adopted to be effective April 3, 2012, 37 TexReg 2165.

§105.19. Record.

(a) The record in a contested case includes the following:

- (1) all pleadings, motions, and intermediate rulings;
- (2) evidence received or considered;
- (3) a statement of matters officially noticed;
- (4) questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings on them;
- (5) proposed findings and exceptions;
- (6) any decision, opinion, or report by the Administrative Law Judge at the hearing;

and

(7) all briefs, memoranda, or data submitted to or considered by the Administrative Law Judge or by members of the agency who are involved in making the decision.

(b) In the event a final decision or order is appealed and the agency is required to transmit to the reviewing court a copy of the record of the administrative proceeding, or any part thereof, the appealing party shall pay all of the costs of the preparation of any original or certified copy of the record of the administrative proceeding that is required to be transmitted to the reviewing court. The charges imposed by this subsection will be the same as those charged by the agency for requests for photographic reproductions and certified copies of public records made pursuant to the provisions of the Public Information Act, Texas Government Code, Chapter 552. These charges are considered to be a court cost and may be assessed, all or in part, by the reviewing court in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

§105.20. Ex Parte Communications.

(a) Upon the issuance of a Notice of Hearing in a contested case and continuing until the Securities Commissioner's decision or order becomes final as described in §105.16 of this title (relating to Decisions; When Final), the Commissioner (or other person assigned to render a decision in a contested case) and members of the Board may not communicate directly or indirectly with any party or a representative of a party in a contested case in connection with any issue of fact or law in the proceeding except on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. Prohibited ex parte communications shall not include any written communication if the communicator contemporaneously serves copies of the communication on all parties to the proceeding.

(b) The Commissioner (or other person assigned to render a decision in a contested case) and members of the Board, individually, may communicate ex parte with employees of the Agency who have not participated in a hearing in the case in order to utilize special skills or knowledge of the Agency's employees in evaluating the evidence in the case.

§109.1. Transactions Involving Existing Security Holders.

(a) Section 5.E of the Act includes any offer and any transaction pursuant to any offer by the issuer of its “securities” to any one or more of its “existing security holders” even though such offer or transaction does not relate to all existing holders of such securities or to all existing holders of a class or series thereof.

(b) “Existing security holder” within the context of section 5.E does not include the following:

(1) the holder of an option, whether transferable or nontransferable, issued by an entity other than the issuer of the security underlying the option;

(2) the holder of an account which is devoid of securities.

(c) An employee’s activities such as mailing reports, dividend notices, and revised prospectuses do not constitute “soliciting” within the context of Section 5.E. Furthermore, if an employee’s job is fully justifiable even without soliciting existing security holders, occasional solicitations of existing security holders in this state will not affect the availability of Section 5.E. However, if an employee’s primary job is to solicit existing security holders in this state either on a full-time or part-time basis, Section 5.E is not available.

(d) Where an open-end investment company adopts a plan pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 12b-1 (17 Code of Federal Regulations §270.12b-1) and funds are used to pay commissions or other remuneration for soliciting existing security holders in this state, Section 5.E is not available.

(e) Where an offering provides for a minimum investment and only a portion of such minimum is paid initially, Section 5.E is not available for payments made subsequently to meet the required minimum investment.

§109.2. Parent Subsidiary Transactions. Securities issued by a parent corporation for outstanding securities of a corporation in connection with a merger of such corporation into a wholly-owned or materially-owned (80%) subsidiary are exempt within the meaning of Section 5.G of the Act. The exemption also applies to the issuance of securities by the parent corporation in connection with a consolidation where the resulting new corporation is wholly-owned or materially-owned (80%) by the parent. Similarly, securities issued by a parent corporation for the purchase of assets for a wholly-owned or materially-owned (80%) subsidiary are exempt under Section 5.G.

Source Note: The provisions of this §109.2 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective August 3, 1976, 1 TexReg 1999.

§109.3. Financial Institutions under the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.H. The term “savings institution,” as used in the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.H, includes any federally chartered credit union, savings and loan association, or federal savings bank, and any credit union or savings and loan association chartered under the laws of any state of the United States.

Source Note: The provisions of this §109.3 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective May 17, 1976, 1 TexReg 1181; amended to be effective November 6, 1980, 5 TexReg 4223; amended to be effective June 20, 1985, 10 TexReg 1863; amended to be effective February 19, 1991, 16 TexReg 669; amended to be effective August 23, 1991, 16 TexReg 4349; amended to be effective December 1, 1992, 17 TexReg 8163; amended to be effective May 24, 1993, 18 TexReg 3045; amended to be effective April 5, 1998, 23 TexReg 3431; amended to be effective July 14, 2005, 30 TexReg 3987.

§109.4. Securities Registration Exemption for Sales to Financial Institutions and Certain Institutional Investors.

(a) Availability. The exemption from securities registration provided by the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.H, or this section is not available if the financial institution or other institutional investor named therein is in fact acting only as agent for another purchaser that is not a financial institution or other institutional investor listed in Section 5.H or this section. These exemptions are available only if the financial institution or other institutional investor named therein is acting for its own account or as a bona fide trustee of a trust organized and existing other than for the purpose of acquiring the specific securities for which the seller is claiming the exemption.

(b) Sales to certain institutional investors. The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the securities registration requirements of the Act, Section 7, the offer and sale of any securities to any of the following persons:

(1) an “institutional accredited investor,” as that term is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions), excluding, however, any self-directed employee benefit plan with investment decisions made solely by persons that are “individual accredited investors” as defined in §107.2 of this title;

(2) any “qualified institutional buyer” (as that term is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions)); and

(3) a corporation, partnership, trust, estate, or other entity (excluding individuals) having net worth of not less than $5 million, or a wholly-owned subsidiary of such entity, as long as the entity was not formed for the purpose of acquiring the specific securities.

(c) Financial statements. For purposes of determining a purchaser’s total assets or net worth under this section, the issuer and the seller may rely upon the entity’s most recent annual balance sheet or other financial statement which shall have been audited by an independent accountant or which shall have been verified by a principal of the purchaser.

Source Note: The provisions of this §109.4 adopted to be effective July 14, 2005, 30 TexReg 3987; amended to be effective June 21, 2011, 36 TexReg 3714; amended to be effective March 21, 2021, 46 TexReg 1733.

§109.5. Dealer Registration Exemption for Sales to Financial Institutions and Certain Institutional Investors.

(a) Availability. The exemption from dealer and agent registration provided by the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.H, or this section is not available if the financial institution or other institutional investor named therein is in fact acting only as agent for another purchaser that is not a financial institution or other institutional investor listed in Section 5.H or this section. These exemptions are available only if the financial institution or other institutional investor named therein is acting for its own account or as a bona fide trustee of a trust organized and existing other than for the purpose of acquiring the specific securities for which the dealer or agent is claiming the exemption.

(b) Sales to certain institutional investors. The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T and Section 12.C, exempts a person from the dealer and agent registration requirements of the Act, when the person sells or offers for sale any securities to any of the following persons:

(1) an “institutional accredited investor,” as that term is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions), excluding, however, any self-directed employee benefit plan with investment decisions made solely by persons that are “individual accredited investors” as defined in §107.2 of this title;

(2) any “qualified institutional buyer” (as that term is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions)); and

(3) a corporation, partnership, trust, estate, or other entity (excluding individuals) having net worth of not less than $5 million, or a wholly-owned subsidiary of such entity, as long as the entity was not formed for the purpose of acquiring the specific securities.

(c) Financial statements. For purposes of determining a purchaser's total assets or net worth under this section, the issuer and the seller may rely upon the entity's most recent annual balance sheet or other financial statement which shall have been audited by an independent accountant or which shall have been verified by a principal of the purchaser.

Source Note: The provisions of this §109.5 adopted to be effective July 14, 2005, 30 TexReg 3987; amended to be effective June 21, 2011, 36 TexReg 3714; amended to be effective March 21, 2021, 46 TexReg 1733.

§109.6. Investment Adviser Registration Exemption for Investment Advice to Financial Institutions and Certain Institutional Investors.

(a) Availability. The exemption from investment adviser and investment adviser representative registration provided by the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.H, or this section is not available if the financial institution or other institutional investor named therein is in fact acting only as agent for another purchaser that is not a financial institution or other institutional investor listed in Section 5.H or this section. These exemptions are available only if the financial institution or other institutional investor named therein is acting for its own account or as a bona fide trustee of a trust organized and existing other than for the purpose of acquiring the investment advisory services for which the investment adviser or investment adviser representative is claiming the exemption. For purposes of this section, an investment adviser or investment adviser representative that is providing investment advisory services to a corporation, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, trust or other legal entity, other than a private fund (as that term is defined in §139.23 of this title (relating to Registration Exemption for Investment Advisers to Private Funds)), is not providing investment advisory services to a shareholder, general partner, member, other security holder, beneficiary or other beneficial owner of the legal entity unless the investment adviser provides investment advisory services to such owner separate and apart from the investment advisory services provided to the legal entity.

(b) Investment advice rendered to certain institutional investors. The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T and Section 12.C, exempts from the investment adviser and investment adviser representative registration requirements of the Act, persons who render investment advisory services to any of the following:

(1) an "institutional accredited investor," as that term is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions);

(2) any "qualified institutional buyer," as that term is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions); and

(3) a corporation, partnership, trust, estate, or other entity (excluding individuals) having net worth of not less than $5 million, or a wholly-owned subsidiary of such entity.

(c) Exclusions from exemption. There is no exemption under this section for an investment adviser providing investment advisory services to a natural person. A private fund adviser, as that term is defined in §139.23 of this title (relating to Registration Exemption for Investment Advisers to Private Funds), may not rely on this exemption except as provided in subsection (e) of this section.

(d) Financial statements. For purposes of determining an institutional investor's total assets or net worth under this section, an investment adviser or investment adviser representative may rely upon the entity's most recent annual balance sheet or other financial statement which shall have been audited by an independent accountant or which shall have been verified by a principal of the institutional investor.

(e) Grandfathering. An investment adviser to a private fund, as that term is defined in §139.23 of this title (relating to Registration Exemption for Investment Advisers to Private Funds), may nonetheless qualify for the exemption described in subsection (b) of this section if:

- (1) the private fund existed prior to March 31, 2014;
- (2) the investment adviser qualified for the exemption in subsection (b) of this section as modified by subsection (c) of this section as both subsections existed prior to March 31, 2014; and
- (3) as of March 31, 2014, the private fund ceases to accept new beneficial owners.

Source Note: The provisions of this §109.6 adopted to be effective July 14, 2005, 30 TexReg 3987; amended to be effective March 31, 2014, 39 TexReg 491; amended to be effective March 21, 2021; 46 TexReg 1733.

§109.7. Secondary Trading Exemption under the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.O.

(a) When a withdrawal of an application for registration of securities is allowed and thereafter the applicant files for a secondary trading exemption under the Act, Section 5.O, the Commissioner may, without a hearing, revoke or suspend the Section 5.O exemption. The applicant may either accept such action of the Commissioner or request a hearing under the Act, Section 24.

(b) The language, “. . . at prices reasonably related to the current market price of such securities at the time of such sale,” means that the market price of the security in the existing secondary market must have a basis supported by a substantial volume of bona fide sales transactions within or without this state. In the absence of a going market or where there have been only casual transactions, it shall be incumbent on the person filing the Section 5.O exemption notice to prove to the Commissioner that the securities will have a market price which has been fairly determined and justified at inception with reasonable assurance of continuity of the market into the future, pursuant to which the following criteria will be considered:

- (1) the nature and extent of the business operations of the issuer and its predecessor, if any, and the period of time during which the issuer and its predecessor, if any, has been continuously engaged in business;
- (2) the net asset value of the stock per share;

(3) if there is a record of earnings for the issuer, the value per share of the stock based upon a reasonable times-earnings factor (setting out the factor used) related to the industry represented by the issuer;

(4) if the value per share of the stock on any other basis has been fully justified;

(5) if the issuer undertakes to furnish to its shareholders and dealers deemed likely to trade the securities of the issuer, financial statements for the three most recent fiscal years ending as of the balance sheet date (or for the period of existence if less than three years) and annual financial statements thereafter for so long as the exemption is maintained by filing statements with the Commissioner;

(6) whether a registered Texas securities dealer who is financially able has made a written undertaking setting out:

(A) his willingness to make a market in the issue of securities;

(B) the price at which he will begin the market; and

(C) the procedures which he intends to follow for the purpose of assuring an orderly market; and

(7) supplementary data to assist in determining the character of the share distribution and the number of publicly-held shares shall be as follows:

(A) identification of 10 largest holders of record, including beneficial owners (if known) of holdings of record by nominees;

(B) list of holdings of 1,000 shares or more in the names of registered dealers and unregistered out-of-state dealers;

(C) number of transfers and shares transferred during the last two years (or period of existence of the issuer, if shorter);

(D) summary, by principal groups, of stock owned or controlled by:

(i) officers or directors and their immediate families; or

(ii) other concentrated holdings of 10% or more;

(E) estimates of number of nonofficer employees owning stock and the total shares held;

(F) company shares held in profit-sharing, savings, pension, or other similar funds or trusts established for the benefit of officers or employees; and

(G) number of round-lot and number of odd-lot holders of record and aggregate numbers of shares so held.

(c) Sales of securities pursuant to the Securities Act, Section 5.O, may be made by or through securities dealers acting either as principal or agent in the transaction for which the exemption is claimed.

(d) Financial information required pursuant to the Act, Section 5.O(9)(b) and (c) must be prepared as certified financial statements (consolidated, if applicable) and shall include a balance sheet as of a date within 18 months of the date of such sale and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and changes in financial position for the three most recent fiscal years ending as of the balance sheet date, or for the period of the issuer's existence, if less than three years. Such financial statements should disclose dividends paid or declared by each class of stock, for each period for which an income statement is presented.

(e) The term "recognized securities manual" as used in the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.O(9)(c), is limited to Best Insurance Reports Life-Health, any Mergent's Manual, and the OTC Markets Group Inc. website (www.otcmarkets.com) for a company that is currently or has recently been quoted on the OTCQX or OTCQB markets. This designation encompasses both print and electronic data and includes periodic supplements to these publications. The information provided in the recognized securities manual must contain the information specified in subsection (d) of this section. All information provided must be current. The time for determining whether the entries are current is at the date of the particular sale, not the date the manual listings are published. If a listing is not continually updated, the exemption would not be available once the published balance sheet becomes more than 18 months old.

(f) The secondary trading exemption under the Act, Section 5.O, is not available for the securities of an issuer formed in a manner that constitutes part of a scheme to violate or evade the securities registration provisions of the Act. Depending upon all the facts and circumstances, such a scheme may include the merger of a private corporation with a corporation which has no substantive operations or assets ("shell corporation") when as a result of the merger trading in the secondary market of the shares of the post-merger corporation may be at prices which bear no relationship to the underlying financial condition or operations of the post-merger corporation, and such trading may occur within two years of the date of such merger.

§109.11. Guarantee of Options.

(a) The broker-dealer guaranteeing the performance of the terms of the option must, on the date of the transaction, either be a member of the New York Stock Exchange or have stockholders' equity or partners' capital, according to generally accepted accounting principles, in excess of $1 million.

(b) A broker-dealer shall not:

(1) write call options for its account to its customers unless performance of the call option is guaranteed by the ownership by such broker-dealer of shares of the underlying security free of encumbrances sufficient to fully perform the terms of the option; or

(2) write put options for its account to its customers unless performance of the put option is guaranteed by sufficient unencumbered liquid net assets of the broker-dealer to fully perform the terms of the option.

(c) The guarantee must be full and unconditional and must be maintained throughout the term of the option.

(d) In lieu of the three requirements in subsections (a)-(c) of this section, the section 5.S(1) guarantee requirements will be satisfied if the option is issued by a clearing corporation recognized by the State Securities Board as satisfying all the following standards.

(1) Performance of the option issued by the clearing corporation is guaranteed by the clearing corporation and by broker-dealers which are members of the issuing clearing corporation.

(2) Every broker-dealer which is a member of the clearing corporation must be registered under the Federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

(3) The clearing corporation must be registered as a national clearing agency under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and must file with the commissioner a copy of the prospectus respecting such option currently being delivered pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and further must agree to promptly file with the commissioner a copy of any amendments of such prospectus.

(4) The option must either be "covered" and the underlying security on deposit with the clearing corporation or the clearing corporation must maintain adequate reserve funds and guarantee system to reasonably assure performance of the option.

(5) Any other conditions the State Securities Board deems necessary to adequately protect the investing public.

(e) Application for recognition by the State Securities Board may be made by any organized options clearing corporation. Clearing corporations recognized by the State Securities Board are: Options Clearing Corporation; Chicago, Illinois.

§109.13. Limited Offering Exemptions.

(a) Public solicitation, well-informed, and sophisticated investor. The offer for sale or sale of the securities of the issuer would not involve the use of public solicitation under the Act, Section 5.1, if the issuer, after having made a reasonable factual inquiry has reasonable cause to believe, and does believe, that the purchasers of the securities are sophisticated, well-informed investors or well-informed investors who have a relationship with the issuer or its principals, executive officers, or directors evincing trust between the parties (namely close business association, close friendship, or close family ties), and such purchasers acquire the securities as ultimate purchasers and not as underwriters or conduits to other beneficial owners or subsequent purchasers. The use of a registered dealer in a sale otherwise meeting the requirements of Section 5.1 does not necessarily mean that the transaction involves the use of public solicitation. The offer without advertising to a person who did not come within the class of persons described in this subsection does not alone result in public solicitation if the issuer had a reasonable cause to believe and did believe that such person fell within the class of persons described, and that such offer was not made indiscriminately.

(1) The term “well-informed” could be satisfied through the dissemination of printed material to each purchaser prior to his or her purchase, which by a fair and factual presentation discloses the plan of business, the history, and the financial statements of the issuer, including material facts necessary in order that the statements made, in the light of circumstances under which they are made, not be misleading.

(2) In determining who is a sophisticated investor at least the following factors should be considered.

(A) The financial capacity of the investor, to be of such proportion that the total cost of that investor’s commitment in the proposed investment would not be material when compared with his total financial capacity. It may be presumed that if the investment does not exceed 20% of the investor’s net worth (or joint net worth with the investor’s spouse) at the time of sale that the amount invested is not material.

(B) Knowledge of finance, securities, and investments, generally. This criteria may be met by the investor’s purchaser representative if such purchaser representative has such knowledge, so long as such purchaser representative:

- (i) has no business relationship with the issuer;
- (ii) represents only the investor and not the issuer; and

(iii) is compensated only by the investor.

(C) Experience and skill in investments based on actual participation. This criteria may be met by the investor's purchaser representative if such purchaser representative has such experience and skill, so long as such purchaser representative:

(i) has no business relationship with the issuer;

(ii) represents only the investor and not the issuer; and

(iii) is compensated only by the investor.

(b) Advertisements. The term "advertisements" does not include the use of the type of printed material as set out in subsection (a) of this section under the discussion of the term "well-informed." Further, the main concept to be considered in a definitional analysis of the term "advertisements," as it is used in Section 5.1, is the method of use of the printed material. The following circumstances, though not intended to be exclusive, will be considered in determining whether the method of use of any printed material is within the limits of Section 5.1:

(1) limited printing of the material;

(2) limited distribution of the material only to persons who the issuer, after having made a reasonable factual inquiry has reasonable cause to believe and does believe are sophisticated investors, or to persons who have a relationship with the issuer as set forth in subsection (a) of this section, or to their purchaser representatives;

(3) control of the printing and distribution of the printed material;

(4) recognition of the necessity of compliance with the requirements set forth in this subsection on the part of the issuer and the investor. Such recognition might consist of a printed prohibition on the front in large type that the circular is for that individual's confidential use only, and may not be reproduced; and, the use of a statement warning that any action contrary to these restrictions may place such individual and the issuer in violation of the Texas Securities Act.

(c) Number of security holders or purchasers of securities. In computing the number of purchasers or security holders for Section 5.1, the following criteria shall be used.

(1) There shall be counted as one purchaser or security holder any purchaser or security holder together with:

(A) any relative or spouse of such purchaser or security holder who has the same home as such purchaser or security holder; any relative of such spouse who has the same home as such purchaser or security holder; any relative or spouse or relative of such spouse who is a dependent of such security holder;

(B) any trust or estate in which such purchaser or security holder or any of the persons related to him as specified in subparagraph (A) or (C) of this paragraph collectively have more than 50% of the beneficial interest (excluding contingent interests); and

(C) any corporation or other organization of which such purchaser or security holder or any of the persons related to him as specified in subparagraph (A) or subparagraph (B) of this paragraph collectively are the beneficial owners of more than 50% of the equity securities (excluding directors' qualified shares) or equity interest.

(2) There shall be counted as one purchaser or security holder any corporation, partnership, association, joint stock company, trust, or unincorporated association, organized and existing other than for the purpose of acquiring securities of the issuer for which the exemption is claimed under Section 5.1.

(3) Any general partner of a limited partnership who is subject to general liability for the obligations of the limited partnership and actively engages in the control and management of the business and affairs of the limited partnership or of the managing general partner of the partnership shall not be counted as a purchaser or security holder for purposes of Section 5.1.

(4) The exemptions contained in the Act, Section 5.1(a) and (c), as interpreted in subsections (a) - (j) of this section may not be combined with the exemptions promulgated pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T, contained in subsections (k) and (l) of this section to exceed sales to 35 unaccredited investors in a 12-month period.

(5) "Security holders" or "purchasers of securities," as those terms are used in the Act, Section 5.1(a) and 5.1(c), do not include holders of any options granted pursuant to a plan that falls within the exemption for compensatory or benefit plans provided by the Act, Section 5.1(b).

(d) Total number of security holders. The phrase "the total number of security holders of the issuer" in Section 5.1(a) includes all security holders of the issuer without regard to their places of residence (within or without the State of Texas) and without regard to where they acquired the securities. In determining the number of persons for purposes of Section 5.1(c), prior sales to persons residing outside the State of Texas and prior sales to Texas residents consummated outside the State of Texas shall be included unless such sales were made in compliance with §139.7 of this title (relating to Sale of Securities to Nonresidents).

(e) Other exemptions. The phrase "exempt under other provisions of this Section 5" in Section 5.1(c) means exempt under any provisions of the Act, other than Section 5.1(a), and subsections (k) and (l) of this section.

(f) Compensatory or benefit plans.

(1) No public solicitation or advertisement under Section 5.1 occurs by the distribution to eligible persons of a prospectus filed under the Securities Act of 1933 with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the plan or any other material required or permitted to be distributed by the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with such plan when the securities under the plan are sold or distributed in a transaction otherwise meeting the requirements of Section 5.1(b).

(2) Insurance agents who are exclusive agents of the issuer or its subsidiary or derive more than 50% of their annual income from the issuer or its subsidiary are deemed “employees” as that term is used in Section 5.1(b).

(g) Compensatory or benefit plan sales. Only the employer and its participating subsidiaries, parents, or subsidiaries of such parents, if any, may offer or sell securities in connection with the employee plan without registration as dealers. For purposes of the Act, Section 5.1(b), the term “issuer” includes a general partner of a limited partnership with respect to a security sold or distributed by such limited partnership in a transaction otherwise meeting the requirements of Section 5.1(b). An employee of the issuer or its participating subsidiary who aids in offering or selling such securities in connection with the plan is not required to be registered as an agent provided the employee meets all of the following conditions:

- (1) the employee was not hired for the purpose of offering or selling such securities;
- (2) the employee’s activity involving the offer and sale of such securities is strictly incidental to his or her bona fide primary nonsecurities-related work duties; and
- (3) the employee’s compensation is based solely on the performance of such other duties, i.e., the employee does not receive any compensation for offering for sale, selling, or otherwise aiding the sale of securities.

(h) Compensatory or benefit plans for counting purposes. A noncontributory stock ownership plan or stock ownership trust that holds securities of the issuer for the benefit of the participants in that issuer’s plan shall be counted as one security holder under Section 5.1(a). Plan participants in such a stock ownership plan or trust will not be deemed security holders of the issuer for purposes of counting security holders under Section 5.1(a) solely because of their participation in the plan or trust. However, participants receiving distributions of securities from the plan or trust will be deemed security holders of the issuer on receipt of securities of the issuer from the plan or trust.

(i) Notices. There is no notice filing requirement for sales made under the Act, Section 5.1(a), (b), or (c).

(j) Limitations on disposition. The issuer and any person acting on its behalf shall exercise reasonable care to assure that the purchasers are acquiring the securities as an investment. Such reasonable care should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (1) making reasonable inquiry to determine if the purchaser is acquiring the securities for his or her own account or on behalf of other persons;
- (2) placing a legend on the certificate or other document evidencing the securities to the effect that the securities have not been registered under any securities law and setting forth or referring to the restrictions on transferability and sale of the securities;
- (3) issuing stop transfer instructions to the issuer’s transfer agent, if any, with respect to the securities, or, if the issuer transfers its own securities, making a notation in the appropriate records of the issuer;

(4) obtaining from the purchaser a signed written agreement to the effect that the securities will not be sold without registration under applicable securities laws or exemptions therefrom; and

(5) prior to sale, written disclosure to each purchaser, to the effect that a purchaser of the securities must bear the economic risk of the investment for an indefinite period of time because the securities have not been registered under applicable securities laws and therefore cannot be sold unless they are subsequently registered under such securities laws or an exemption from such registration is available; and that the securities are subject to the limitations set forth in paragraphs (2) - (4) of this subsection.

(k) Limited offering exemption coordinating with SEC Regulation D, Rule 506. In addition to sales made under the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.I, the State Securities Board, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the registration requirements of the Act, Section 7, any offer or sale of securities offered or sold in compliance with the Securities Act of 1933, Regulation D (17 C.F.R. §§230.500-230.508, as amended), Rule 506, including any offer or sale made exempt by application of Rule 508(a), and which satisfies the following further conditions and limitations.

(1) In addition to the other requirements of this subsection, to claim this exemption, the issuer must comply with notice filing provisions set out in §114.4(b)(1) of this title (relating to Filings and Fees).

(2) Transactions which are exempt under this subsection may not be combined with offers and sales exempt under any other rule or section of the Act; however, nothing in this limitation shall act as an election. Should for any reason, the offer and sale fail to comply with all of the conditions for this exemption, the issuer may claim the availability of any other applicable exemption.

(3) In view of the objective of this subsection and the purposes and policies underlying the Texas Securities Act, the exemption is not available to any issuer with respect to any transaction which, although in technical compliance with this subsection, is part of a plan or scheme to evade registration or the conditions or limitations explicitly stated in this subsection.

(4) Nothing in this subsection is intended to relieve registered dealers, or agents from the due diligence, suitability, or know your customer standards or any other requirements of law otherwise applicable to such registered persons.

(5) The staff of the State Securities Board will review all notice filings made under this subsection to determine if the correct filing fee was submitted. If the staff determines that the fee paid was deficient, the staff will notify the filer through the EFD system or by email if the filing was not made through EFD. A filer who receives such a notice may correct the deficiency within 30 days of the date that the notice is sent by the staff. If a timely correction is made, the filing shall be deemed to be complete and in compliance with the filing requirements as of the date the original filing was received.

(6) When an offering is made in compliance with Regulation D of the SEC and the offering will be made by or through a registered securities dealer, the issuer and its directors, officers, agents, and employees may make themselves available to answer questions from offerees, as required by Rule 502(b)(2)(v) of Regulation D, without being required to register as securities dealers or agents under the Act, Section 12.

(I) Intrastate limited offering exemption. In addition to sales made under the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.I, the State Securities Board, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the registration requirements of the Act, Section 7, any offer or sale of any securities by the issuer itself, or by a registered dealer acting as agent for the issuer provided all offers and sales are made pursuant to an offering made and completed solely within this state and all the conditions in paragraphs (1) - (11) of this subsection are satisfied.

(1) The sale is made, without the use of any public solicitation or advertisements, as set forth in subsection (a) and subsection (b) of this section to:

(A) not more than 35 new security holders of the issuer who meet the criteria stated in subsection (a) of this section and who became security holders during the period of 12 months ending with the date of the sale in question (subject to paragraph (7) of this subsection); and

(B) other well-informed investors who are “accredited investors” as defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions). (For purposes of this subsection, the term “well informed” shall have the same meaning as set out in subsection (a)(1) of this section, and the term “5.I” in such subsection shall include sales made pursuant to this subsection.)

(2) Neither the issuer nor the registered dealer (as such terms are defined in paragraph (4) of this subsection):

(A) is currently subject to any administrative order issued by state or federal authorities within five years of the expected offer and sale of securities in reliance upon this exemption, which order:

(i) is based upon a finding that such person has engaged in fraudulent conduct; or

(ii) has the effect of enjoining such person from activities subject to federal or state statutes designed to protect investors or consumers against unlawful or deceptive practices involving securities, insurance, commodities or commodity futures, real estate, franchises, business opportunities, consumer goods, or other goods and services;

(B) has been convicted within five years prior to commencement of the offering of any felony or misdemeanor of which fraud is an essential element, or which is a violation of the securities laws or regulations of this state, or of any other state of the United States, or of the United States, or any foreign jurisdiction; or which is a crime involving moral turpitude; or which is a criminal violation of statutes designed to protect consumers against unlawful practices involving insurance, securities, commodities or commodity futures, real estate, franchises, business opportunities, consumer goods, or other goods and services;

(C) is subject to any order, judgment, or decree entered within five years prior to commencement of the offering by any court of competent jurisdiction which temporarily or permanently restrains or enjoins such person from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security or involving any false filing with any state; or which restrains or enjoins such person from activities subject to federal or state statutes designed to protect consumers against unlawful or deceptive practices involving insurance, commodities or commodity futures, real estate, franchises, business opportunities, consumer goods, or other goods and services.

(3) The prohibitions of subparagraphs (A) - (C) of paragraph (2) shall not apply if the party subject to the disqualifying order is duly licensed to conduct securities-related business in the state in which the administrative order or judgment was entered against such party or, if the order or judgment was entered by federal authorities, the prohibitions of subparagraphs (A) - (C) of paragraph (2) shall not apply if the party subject to the disqualifying order is duly licensed to conduct securities-related business by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Any disqualification caused by paragraph (2) is automatically waived if the state or federal authorities which created the basis for disqualification determine upon a showing of good cause that it is not necessary under the circumstances that the exemption be denied.

(4) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) only, "issuer" includes any directors, executive officers, general partners, or beneficial owners of 10% or more of any class of its equity securities (beneficial ownership meaning the power to vote or direct the vote and/or the power to dispose or direct the disposition of such securities), and "registered dealer" shall include any partners, directors, executive officers, or beneficial owner of 10% or more of any class of the equity securities of the registered dealer (beneficial ownership meaning the power to vote or direct the vote and/or the power to dispose or direct the disposition of such securities).

(5) Upon application, and for good cause shown, the Commissioner may waive a disqualification contained in paragraph (2).

(6) The offering complies with subsections (a) - (d) and (j) of this section. However, persons who are "accredited investors" as defined in §107.2 of this title are deemed to be "sophisticated" as defined in subsection (a)(2) of this section.

(7) This subsection may not be combined with the Securities Act, Section 5.1(a) or Section 5.1(c), or subsection (k) of this section to make sales to more than 35 unaccredited security holders during a 12-month period. Except for accredited investors who became security holders pursuant to this subsection, security holders who purchase in sales made in compliance with this subsection are included in the count of security holders under Section 5.1(a) or purchasers under Section 5.1(c), but this subsection may be used to exceed the numbers of security holders or purchasers allowed by such sections over an extended period of time.

(8) Issuers who offer and sell securities under this subsection only through a securities dealer registered in Texas may do so without filing any notice with the State Securities Board.

(9) Notice filing requirements.

(A) An issuer who is not a registered securities dealer and who does not sell securities by or through a registered securities dealer shall file a notice on Form 133.29 not less than 10 business days before any sale claimed to be exempt under this subsection may be consummated for sales under paragraph (1)(B) of this subsection, in whole or in part to individual accredited investors, as defined in §107.2 of this title.

(B) For the purpose of filing Form 133.29, “business days” means ordinary business days and does not include Saturdays, Sundays, or state holidays.

(C) No notice is required for sales made under paragraph (1)(A) of this subsection or under paragraph (1)(B) of this subsection where the sales are made exclusively to institutional accredited investors as defined in §107.2 of this title.

(D) The issuer may be required by the Securities Commissioner to give details concerning any information requested in Form 133.29 and may be required to furnish any additional information deemed necessary by the Securities Commissioner to determine the issuer’s business repute and qualifications.

(E) Every issuer filing a notice on Form 133.29 shall pay a filing fee of 1/10 of 1.0% of the aggregate amount of securities described as being offered for sale, but in no case more than $500.

(10) Accredited investor security holders who purchase in sales made under this exemption are not counted as security holders under Section 5.1(a) or purchasers under Section 5.1(c) in determining whether any other sales to other security holders or purchasers are exempt under Section 5.1. That is to say, this exemption for sales to accredited investors is cumulative with and in addition to the exemptions contained in Section 5.1, and sales made under paragraph (1)(B) of this subsection are not considered in determining whether sales made in reliance on the exemptions contained in Section 5.1 would be within the numerical limits on the number of security holders or purchasers contained in Section 5.1.

(11) “Accredited investor” is defined in §107.2 of this title and for purposes of this subsection, includes any person who the issuer reasonably believes comes within that definition at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

§109.14. Oil, Gas, and Other Mineral Interests.

(a) It is the intent of the State Securities Board that §109.13(a)-(c) and (j) of this title (relating to Limited Offering Exemptions) apply to transactions made pursuant to the Securities Act, Section 5.Q, and that the terms defined in §109.13(a)-(c) and (j) of this title (relating to Limited Offering Exemptions) have the same meanings for purposes of Section 5.Q as they do for the Securities Act, Section 5.1.

(b) For the purposes of Section 5.Q, an employee of the owner of an oil, gas, or mineral lease, fee, or title may aid such owner/employer in selling interests in such lease, fee, or title and will not be considered an agent required to be licensed under the Act provided all the following conditions are satisfied:

- (1) the employee was not hired for the purpose of offering or selling such securities;
- (2) the employee's activity involving the offer and sale of such securities is strictly incidental to his bona fide primary nonsecurities-related work duties; and
- (3) the employee's compensation is based solely on the performance of such other duties, i.e., the employee does not receive any compensation for offering for sale, selling, or otherwise aiding in the sale of securities.

(c) In addition to sales made under the Securities Act, Section 5.Q, the State Securities Board, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the registration requirements of the Act, Section 7, the sale of interests in and under oil, gas, and mining leases, fees, or titles, or contracts relating thereto (hereinafter called securities), by the owner itself, or by a registered dealer acting as agent for the owner, provided all of the conditions of §109.13(k) or (l) of this title (relating to Limited Offering Exemptions) are met. The purpose of this subsection is to provide a mechanism which will allow for sales of the securities listed herein to accredited investors where the conditions of §109.13(k) or (l) of this title (relating to Limited Offering Exemptions) are met.

(d) Exemption for transactions among persons in the oil and gas industry.

(1) In addition to offers and sales made pursuant to the Act, Section 5.Q, the State Securities Board, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the securities registration requirements of the Act, Section 7, and the dealer and agent registration requirements of the Act, Section 12 and Section 18, the offer and sale of any interest in or under an oil, gas, or mining lease, fee, or title, or payments out of production in or under such leases, fees, or titles or contracts relating thereto by the owner or an agent for the owner when such offer or sale is made to persons and/or companies each of whom the owner or owner's agent shall have reasonable cause to believe and does believe meets the following criteria:

(A) is engaged in the business of exploring for or producing oil, gas, or other minerals as an ongoing business or is engaged in the practice of a profession, or discipline, which is directly related to the exploration for, production of, refining of, or marketing of oil, gas, or other minerals such as the interest being sold; or

(B) is a landman, drilling company, well service company, production company, refining company, geologist, geophysicist, petroleum engineer, earth scientist; or

(C) is an executive officer of a company whose primary plan of business involves either subparagraphs (A) or (B) of this paragraph.

(2) The offer to a person who did not meet the criteria set forth in paragraph (1)(A)-(C) of this subsection will not cause the exemption to be lost if such offer was not made indiscriminately.

(3) For purposes of this rule, an "agent for the owner" includes the following:

(A) officers, directors, and employees who are actively engaged in the day-to-day activities of the owner;

(B) independent landmen, engineers, geologists, and consultants who have a contractual working relationship with the owner;

(C) persons who meet the dealer registration requirements of the Securities Act, Section 12; and

(D) persons who represent the owner in transactions exclusively with persons described in paragraph (1)(A)-(C) of this subsection.

(4) This exemption includes sales at auction.

(e) Any person who acts as an agent of an owner or a purchaser in connection with a sale of an interest described in subsection (d) of this section to a person who does not meet the criteria set forth in subsection (d)(1)(A)-(C) of this section will not be exempt from the dealer registration requirements of the Act, Section 12, unless another exemption is available.

- §111.2. Listed and Designated Securities.

(a) Fully listed. As used in the Texas Securities Act, Section 6.F, "fully listed" includes any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on an exchange specified in the Act, Section 6.F, or on an exchange listed in subsection (b) of this section.

(c) Warrants for listed securities. In addition to sales made under the Texas Securities Act, Section 6.F, the Board, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the registration requirements of the Act, Section 7, the offer and sale by the issuer itself, or by a registered dealer, of warrants to purchase securities of the issuer which at the time of sale of the warrants are exempt pursuant to the Act, Section 6.F.

(d) Recognized and responsible stock exchange. In order to implement the general purposes of the Texas Securities Act declared in Section 10-1.A to maximize coordination with federal and other states law and administration, particularly with respect to exemptions, the Board hereby defines the term "recognized and responsible stock exchange," as used in the Act, Section 6.F, not to include any organization which is not registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission as a national securities exchange pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Section 6.

- §113.13. Multijurisdictional Disclosure System--MJDS Offerings.
- §113.14. Statements of Policy.

§113.1. Qualification of Securities. A Regulation "A" filing with the SEC is a form of exemption and cannot be the basis for a filing for registration by coordination with the State Securities Board under the Texas Securities Act, Section 7.C. Such a registration should meet the requirements as outlined in the Act, Section 7.A or, if federal covered securities, the requirements in §114.4 of this title (relating to Filings and Fees).

Source Note: The provisions of this §113.1 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective December 6, 1998, 23 TexReg 12293; amended to be effective February 24, 2016, 41 TexReg 1223; amended to be effective November 12, 2019, 44 TexReg 6858.

§113.2. Registration by Coordination.

(a) Time to file. Applications for registration under the Texas Securities Act, Section 7.C, should be filed contemporaneously with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") registration application. Delayed filings will jeopardize coordination effectiveness. Applications filed after effectiveness with the SEC are not eligible to use Section 7.C.

(b) Who should file. Applications to register securities of open-end investment companies and unit investment trusts subject to the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Securities Act of 1933, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, will be considered and treated as applications to register securities by coordination, if the securities are not federal covered securities as that term is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions). Filings and fees relating to federal covered securities are addressed in Chapter 114 of this title (relating to Federal Covered Securities).

Source Note: The provisions of this §113.2 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective July 17, 1978, 3 TexReg 2314; amended to be effective September 22, 1995, 20 TexReg 7187; amended to be effective April 8, 1997, 22 TexReg 3219; amended to be effective November 7, 1999, 24 TexReg 9607.

§113.3. Fair, Just, and Equitable Standards. The following factors, among others, will usually be considered in determining whether or not a securities issue is fair, just, and equitable.

(1) General meaning. "Fair, just, and equitable" as used in the Texas Securities Act, Section 7.C and Section 10.A, means fair, just, and equitable to the new investors. It does not relate to customers or competitors of the business as such and does not apply to other business relationships of the issuer, promoter, or business. The words "fair, just, and equitable" are accorded their generally recognized meanings and are not used in any narrow, technical sense.

(2) Limitation on liability. Issues of securities that expose public investors to unlimited liability normally are not fair, just, or equitable; however, the Securities Commissioner may consider disclosure, sophistication of investors, potential probability of liability, amount of potential liability exposure, and amount of insurance against such exposure as possible mitigating factors.

Source Note: The provisions of this §113.3 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective May 11, 1979, 4 TexReg 1543; amended to be effective July 22, 1981, 6 TexReg 2383; amended to be effective June 16, 1983, 8 TexReg 1857; amended to be effective March 19, 1984, 9 TexReg 1437; amended to be effective December 6, 1998, 23 TexReg 12293.

§113.4. Application for Registration.

(a) Misleading name. The improper use by an applicant of an assumed name containing "incorporated," "corporation," "associates," "limited," or an abbreviation of one of those words, may be grounds for denying registration if such designation is thereby misleading.

(b) No recommendations by Board. The State Securities Board will not recommend any specific dealer, underwriter, lawyer, or accountant to an applicant in any matter concerning the preparation and presentation for approval of a securities registration application.

(c) Consents to service of process.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, all applications to register securities issued by an issuer which is organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or government, or domiciled in any state other than Texas, must include with the application a written consent to service of process duly executed by an authorized agent of the issuer appointing the Securities Commissioner irrevocably its true and lawful attorney upon whom process in any action or proceeding against such issuer arising out of any transaction subject to the Texas Securities Act may be served with the same effect as if such issuer were organized or created under the laws of Texas and had been lawfully served with process herein.

(2) The consent to service of process required under paragraph (1) of this subsection is not required when the application for registration is filed by a registered dealer acting as a principal in a firm commitment underwriting.

(d) Abandonment of application.

(1) An application for registration of securities may be declared abandoned if the applicant fails to substantively respond within 30 days to a letter indicating that failure to respond will result in abandonment, which letter will be sent no sooner than 30 days after the last substantive request letter regarding the application to which there has been no reply.

(2) Except for good cause shown, the application for registration of securities that fails to meet registration requirements within one year of the filing date of the application will expire and become null and void. A copy of this rule will be mailed to an applicant at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the application.

(e) Sales in excess of amount registered. An offeror who sells securities in this state in excess of the amount of securities registered may do the following.

(1) If the registration is still in effect an offeror may:

(A) apply to register the excess securities by paying three times the difference between the initial fee paid and the fee required under the Texas Securities Act (Act), Section 35, for the securities sold to persons in this state; and

(B) pay the amendment fee prescribed by the Act, Section 35.A(1).

(2) If the registration is no longer in effect an offeror may:

(A) apply to register the excess in accordance with paragraph (1)(A) of this subsection, plus interest on the amount of fees owed computed at the rate of 6.0% from the date the registration was no longer in effect until the date the subsequent application is filed; and

(B) pay the amendment fee prescribed by the Act, Section 35.A(1).

(3) Registration of the excess securities, if granted, shall be effective retroactively to the effective date of the initial registration for the offering.

(4) As an alternative to paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection, the offeror may issue letters of rescission to persons who bought excess securities and include a statement in the prospectus admitting the error, or show sales of unregistered securities as a contingent liability.

§113.5. Financial Statements.

(a) Audited financial statements. Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, all financial statements submitted to the Securities Commissioner pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 7.A(1)(f) (including all financial statements of the issuer and any entity that is being taken over by an issuer which has not been operating) must be audited, and an opinion must be expressed by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant. Such opinion shall be one acceptable to the Commissioner.

(b) Reviewed financial statements. Financial statements, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, submitted by a small business issuer in connection with a small business offering may be reviewed by an independent certified public accountant in accordance with the standards for reviewed financial statements promulgated by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

(c) Small business issuer. For purposes of subsection (b) of this section, the term "small business issuer" shall mean any corporation:

(1) that has not previously sold securities by means of an offering involving public solicitation or advertising unless such offering was made in compliance with:

- (A) §139.25 of this title (relating to Intrastate Crowdfunding Exemption);
- (B) §139.26 of this title (relating to Intrastate Crowdfunding Exemption for SEC Rule 147A Offerings);
- (C) §139.16 of this title (relating to Sales to Individual Accredited Investors);
- (D) §139.19 of this title (relating to Accredited Investor Exemption);
- (E) §109.4 of this title (relating to Securities Registration Exemption for Sales to Financial Institutions and Certain Institutional Investors); or
- (F) the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.H;

(2) that has not been previously required under federal or state securities law to provide audited financial statements in connection with any sale of its securities;

(3) that is not an investment company (including any mutual fund);

(4) that does not engage or propose to engage in petroleum exploration or production or other extractive industries;

(5) that is not subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Section 13 or Section 15(d);

(6) that has its principal place of business in Texas and employs at least 50% of its full-time employees in Texas; and

(7) whose previous sales of securities (exclusive of debt financing with banks and similar commercial lenders) does not exceed $1 million.

(d) Parent corporations. If a corporation otherwise meeting the criteria specified in subsection (c) of this section is a majority-owned subsidiary of another corporation, the subsidiary shall not be considered a “small business issuer” for purposes of subsection (b) of this section unless its parent corporation also meets the criteria specified in subsection (c) of this section.

(e) Small business offering. For purposes of subsection (b) of this section, the term “small business offering” shall mean that the amount of the offering must not exceed $5 million.

§113.6. Renewal Update. It is the responsibility of the applicant for renewal to see that all exhibits and information required to be filed with the Securities Commissioner for an original registration pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 7, are maintained current with the Commissioner for the issuer whose registration is renewed under the Act, Section 10.B, so long as the permit is outstanding. Whenever there are material changes, the prospectus must be amended and filed with the Commissioner.

Source Note: The provisions of this §113.6 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective December 6, 1998, 23 TexReg 12293.

§113.7. Reporting Changes in Filed Materials. While an application to register securities is pending with the Securities Commissioner, any change in information material to the application (including documents on file such as financials) must be promptly reported to the commissioner by the applicant, and any new developments which are material must likewise be promptly reported by the applicant.

Source Note: The provisions of this §113.7 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976.

§113.8. Notification of Status in Other States. Any issuer with an application pending under the Texas Securities Act, Section 7.C, in addition to filing with the Securities Commissioner the original list of other states where filing has been made or is expected to be made as required by the Act, Section 7.C(1)(c), must make a timely report of the names of any states where such an application is subsequently made, withdrawn, or denied (together with the reasons for any withdrawal or denial).

Source Note: The provisions of this §113.8 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective December 6, 1998, 23 TexReg 12293.

§113.9. Securities Underlying Transferable Warrants and Employee Stock Options. When equity securities underlying transferable warrants or employee stock options are registered under the Texas Securities Act, Section 7, those equity securities shall thereafter be deemed to be properly registered in Texas regardless of the time at which the warrants are exercised by warrant or option holders. Continuous registration (or annual renewal of registration) of the underlying equity securities during the life of the warrants or options shall not be required solely because of the existence of outstanding warrants or options. Once the distribution process is completed pursuant to the registration, the issuer or dealer who sold such registered securities is not required to remain continuously registered pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 12 solely because of the existence of outstanding warrants or options. However, if the issuer or dealer solicits the holders to exercise their warrants or options, the issuer or dealer must be registered as a securities dealer if the transaction does not fall within an exemption other than this section. This section is adopted pursuant to the authority granted by the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.T.

§113.10. Sales Reports. All registrants must prepare and forward to the securities commissioner annual reports showing the amount of securities which have been sold in Texas, the consideration received therefor, and the amount of unsold securities authorized to be sold in Texas. Upon completion of all offerings of securities registered in Texas, a final sales report must be filed with the securities commissioner showing the total aggregate amount of securities sold by a registrant and the total consideration received therefor.

§113.11. Shelf Registration of Securities.

(a) Applicability.

(1) This section shall apply to the registration by coordination in Texas of securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for offer and sale on a delayed or continuous basis under SEC Rule 415 (17 Code of Federal Regulations §230.415).

(2) Each series or takedown requires separate registration in Texas, except in the following cases:

(A) where there is disclosure in the prospectus that neither the security to be offered nor the selling method to be used may be varied from one series or takedown to the next; or

(B) as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(3) Where appropriate, the statements of policy in §113.14(b) of this title (relating to Statements of Policy) and other provisions of this chapter will be applied.

(2) Separate registration of each series or takedown of debt securities of such an issuer is not required if the applicant (and the issuer if the applicant is other than the issuer) undertakes that all of the following conditions will be met:

(A) only the type of debt security that is specifically denominated and described in the prospectus supplement or prospectus amendment filed with the application to register securities in Texas will be sold in each takedown or series for which the registration is sought;

(B) all of the debt securities will be subject to and issued under the same indenture;

(C) the maturity of the securities will not be less than a specified length of time nor more than a specified length of time from the date of issue, and the interest rate will be within a specified range unless the Texas permit is first amended to permit interest rates differing from such maximum and minimum.

(3) The permit issued upon registration of debt securities pursuant to paragraph (2)(A)-(C) of this subsection shall incorporate the relevant terms of the required undertaking.

(a) This section shall apply to the registration by coordination in Texas of securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in accordance with the multijurisdictional disclosure system (MJDS) adopted in SEC Release Number 33-6902.

(b) For purposes of the Texas Securities Act, Section 7.C, MJDS offerings filed on SEC Form F-7, Form F-8, Form F-9 or Form F-10, shall become effective the later of three days after filing, or the effective date with the SEC, as long as the application for registration is filed contemporaneously with the SEC registration application in accordance with §113.2 of this title (relating to Registration by Coordination).

(c) Financial statements and financial information for offerings filed under subsection (b) of this section shall comply with instructions provided with SEC Form F-7, Form F-8, Form F-9, or Form F-10.

(d) In a rights offering, SEC Form F-7 will be accepted in lieu of any state form required to claim an exemption for any transaction pursuant to an offer to existing securities holders.

(e) After the SEC has declared effective an issuer's Form F-8, Form F-9 or Form F-10 registration statement, a non-issuer transaction in any class of the issuer's securities is exempt from registration, whether or not the transaction is effected through a broker dealer.

(a) Unless otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, a consent to service of process is required from an issuer of federal covered securities that is organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or government, or domiciled in any state other than Texas. The written consent to service of process must be duly executed by an authorized agent of the issuer and irrevocably appoint the Securities Commissioner as the issuer's true and lawful attorney upon whom all process may be served in any action or proceeding against such issuer arising out of any transaction subject to the Texas Securities Act with the same effect as if such issuer were organized or created under the laws of Texas and had been lawfully served with process therein.

(b) The consent to service of process is not required when the notice filing is made by a registered dealer acting as a principal in a firm commitment underwriting.

(C) the fee provided for in the Act, Section 35.A(1), plus one-tenth of 1.0% of the aggregate amount of federal covered securities proposed to be sold to persons located within this state based on the price at which such securities are to be offered to the public, as provided in the Act, Section 35.B(2).

(c) Supplemental reports.

(1) Unless otherwise provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, each applicant required to pay a fee in connection with federal covered securities offered in this state shall submit to the Securities Commissioner annual reports showing the amount of federal covered securities authorized to be sold in Texas, the actual amount sold in Texas, the consideration received therefor, and the amount of unsold securities authorized to be sold in Texas. Upon completion of all offerings of federal covered securities authorized for sale in Texas, a final sales report must be filed with the Securities Commissioner showing the total aggregate amount of federal covered securities authorized and sold in Texas and the total consideration received therefor.

(2) This subsection does not apply to an applicant proceeding pursuant to subsection (b)(1) or (b)(4) of this section.

(d) Excess sales.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, an offeror who sells securities in this state in excess of the amount of federal covered securities authorized may do the following.

(A) If the authorization is still in effect an offeror may:

(i) request authorization for the excess securities by paying three times the difference between the initial fee paid and one-tenth of 1.0% of the aggregate amount of the securities sold to persons in this state, as provided in the Texas Securities Act, Sections 35.B(2) and 35-1.A; and

Section 35.A(1). (ii) pay the amendment fee provided for in the Texas Securities Act,

Section 35.A(1).

(C) The authorization for the excess securities shall be effective retroactively to the effective date of the initial authorization for the offering.

(2) An offeror in an SEC Regulation D, Rule 506 offering, who paid less than the maximum fee prescribed in subsection (b)(1) of this section and offered a greater amount of federal covered securities than authorized may do the following:

(A) file an amended Form D disclosing the amount of federal covered securities offered; and

(B) pay three times the difference between the initial fee paid and the fee which should have been paid, plus interest on the fee owed computed at the rate of 6.0% from the date the original Form D was received by the Securities Commissioner until the date the amended notice is received by the Securities Commissioner, as provided in the Texas Securities Act, Section 35-1.B.

(C) The filing of Form D and the payment of the filing fee shall be made electronically through the EFD System.

(3) After compliance with paragraph (2) of this subsection, the amended Form D shall be effective retroactively to the date of the initial filing.

(e) Requests for additional documents. The Securities Commissioner may, upon written request, require a copy of any document required to be filed with the SEC in connection with the offering or sale of the federal covered securities.

(f) Period of effectiveness.

(1) The initial authorization for federal covered securities of an open-end investment company, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, shall be effective until two months after the end of the issuer's fiscal year. After the initial authorization, the issuer or its agent may renew the authorization by submitting, within two months after the end of the issuer's fiscal year:

(A) a notice filing, consisting of Form NF, Uniform Investment Company Notice Filing; and

(B) payment of the appropriate fees.

(2) The authorization for federal covered securities of a unit investment trust, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, shall be effective until one year from the date of effectiveness granted by the SEC.

(3) Any other authorization of federal covered securities shall be effective for one year from the date the authorization is accepted by the Securities Commissioner.

(4) The renewal of an authorization for federal covered securities under this chapter may be renewed for additional periods of one year if the notice filing and renewal fees are received prior to the expiration date of the existing authorization. Failure to tender the renewal fee prior to the expiration date may subject the issuer to higher fees, pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Sections 35-1 or 35-2.

(5) For SEC Regulation D, Rule 506 offerings issued under special circumstances in subsection (b)(1) of this section, the period of effectiveness extends from the date of the notice filing until the offering is completed or terminated.

(g) Applicability of dealer and agent registration requirements. In conducting sales in this chapter, dealer and agent registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act and Board rules must be complied with.

(h) Preservation of fees. The fees provided in this section correspond to the filing or registration fees that would be collected pursuant to the Texas Securities Act in effect on the day before the effectiveness of the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996, Public Law Number 104-290.

(i) Applicability of antifraud provisions. With regard to this chapter, the Texas Securities Act prohibits fraud or fraudulent practice in connection with the sale or offer for sale of federal covered securities.

A person can be a dealer in more than one state at the same time.

(B) Likewise, a person is an "agent" who engages "within this state" in one or more of the activities set out in the Texas Securities Act, Section 4.D, whether by direct act or through subagents except as otherwise provided, if either the person or the person's agent is present in this state or

(10) Texas crowdfunding portal--Any person registered as a Texas dealer pursuant to §115.19 of this title (relating to Texas Crowdfunding Portal Registration and Activities) or §115.20 of this title (relating to Texas Crowdfunding Portal Registration and Activities of Small Business Development Entities).

(b) Registration requirements of dealers, issuers, and agents, and notice filings for branch offices.

(1) Requirements of registration or notice filing.

(A) No dealer, issuer, or agent of a dealer or issuer shall sell or offer for sale any securities within this state without first being registered as a dealer or agent, or exempt from registration.

(B) Each branch office in Texas must make a notice filing to become designated as a branch office of a dealer. A registered officer, partner, or agent must be named as supervisor.

(2) Persons not required to register as an agent.

(A) Registration as an agent is not required for a person, associated with a dealer registered in Texas, who effects a transaction pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Section 15(i)(3), (15 U.S.C. Sec. 78o(i)(3)), provided such person is:

(i) not ineligible to register with this state for any reason other than such a transaction; and

(ii) registered with a registered securities association and at least one other state.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, a person is "ineligible to register with this state," if the person:

(i) has been convicted of a securities-related felony; or

(ii) has been convicted of a theft-related felony.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, a “registered securities association” is one currently recognized as such by the SEC pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Section 15A.

(D) Persons not required to register with the Securities Commissioner pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, are reminded that the Texas Securities Act prohibits fraud or fraudulent practices in dealing in any manner in any securities whether or not the person engaging in fraud or fraudulent practices is required to be registered. The Agency has jurisdiction to investigate and bring enforcement actions to the full extent authorized in the Texas Securities Act with respect to fraud or deceit, or unlawful conduct by a dealer or agent in connection with transactions involving securities in Texas.

(c) Types of registrations.

(1) General registration. A general registration is a registration to deal in all categories of securities, without limitation.

(2) Restricted registration. The restricted registrations are as follows:

(A) The Securities Commissioner recognizes the specialized knowledge examinations administered by FINRA as restricted registration categories. The registration of an applicant passing a specialized knowledge examination in lieu of the general securities examination pursuant to §115.3(b) of this title (relating to Examinations) is restricted to and effective only for conducting the business and securities activities and effecting transactions associated with the specialized examination.

(B) Additional restricted registration categories include:

(i) registration to deal exclusively in the sale of interests (other than interests in limited partnerships) in oil, gas, and mining leases, fees, or titles or contracts relating thereto;

(ii) registration to deal exclusively in real estate syndication interests and/or condominium securities, including interests in real estate limited partnerships;

(iii) registration to deal exclusively in sales of securities to the dealer’s own employees;

(iv) registration for an issuer to deal exclusively in its own securities;

(v) registration to act exclusively as a finder;

(vi) registration to act exclusively as a Texas crowdfunding portal;
and

(vii) registration with other restrictions which the Securities Commissioner may impose based upon the facts.

(3) In restricted registrations, the evidence of registration shall indicate that the holder thereof is entitled to act as a dealer only in the specified issue or category of securities.

(d) Prohibition on fraud and availability of an exemption from registration. The Texas Securities Act prohibits fraud or fraudulent practices in dealing in any manner in any securities whether or not the person engaging in fraud or fraudulent practices is required to be registered. The Agency has jurisdiction to investigate and bring enforcement actions to the full extent authorized in the Texas Securities Act with respect to fraud or deceit, or unlawful conduct by a dealer or agent in connection with transactions involving securities in Texas. However, the registration requirements detailed in this chapter do not apply to dealers and agents that are exempt from registration as such pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 5, or by Board rule pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.T or Section 12.C, contained in Chapter 109 or 139 of this title.

§115.2. Application Requirements.

(a) Securities dealer application requirements. A complete application consists of the following and must be filed in paper form with the Securities Commissioner:

- (1) Form BD;
- (2) Form U-4 for the designated officer and a Form U-4 for each agent to be registered (officers of a corporation or partners of a partnership shall not be deemed agents solely because of their status as officers or partners);
- (3) a copy of articles of incorporation, partnership agreement, articles of association, trust agreement, or other documents which indicate the form of organization, certified by the appropriate jurisdiction or by an officer or partner of the applicant;
- (4) a balance sheet prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles reflecting the financial condition of the dealer as of a date not more than 90 days prior to the date of such filing. The balance sheet should be compiled, reviewed, or audited by independent certified public accountants or independent public accountants, or must instead be certified by the applicant's principal financial officer. If certified by the principal financial officer of the applicant, such officer shall make the certification on Form 133.18, Certification of Balance Sheet by Principal Financial Officer.
- (5) any other information deemed necessary by the Securities Commissioner to determine a dealer's financial responsibility or a dealer's or agent's business repute or qualifications; and
- (6) the appropriate registration fee(s).

(b) Designated officer registration. Dealers, including an individual filing as a sole proprietor, must file a Form U-4 application for a designated officer to register in connection with the registration of the dealer. The dealer's designated officer must be an officer, partner, or the sole proprietor of the dealer and have completed the necessary registration and examination requirements. If the designated officer of a dealer, other than a sole proprietor, resigns or is otherwise removed from his or her position, the dealer shall make an application to register another officer or partner within 30 days.

(c) Branch office designation and inspection.

(1) A dealer may designate a branch office upon initial application of the dealer or by amendment to a current Form BR. No sales-related activity may occur in any branch office location until such time as the dealer has notified the Securities Commissioner that such location will function as a branch office by submitting Form BR on CRD for FINRA member firms. For non-FINRA member firms, the request is made by submitting Form BR in paper form to the Securities Commissioner.

(2) Simultaneous with the designation of a branch office, a supervisor must be designated for that branch office. A supervisor is not required to be registered as a FINRA principal, but must be registered in Texas as an agent and is responsible for supervision of the activities of the branch office. A supervisor may not supervise sales activities encompassing a broader range of products than those covered by the supervisor's qualification examination(s). Within 10 business days after a supervisor ceases to be employed or registered in such capacity by the dealer, the dealer must designate a new supervisor, qualified by passage of the appropriate examinations, for the branch office.

(3) Each branch office of a dealer who is registered with the Securities Commissioner is subject to unannounced inspections at any time during normal business hours.

(d) Automatic withdrawal of a dealer or agent application for registration that has been pending for at least 90 days. If an application for dealer or agent registration has been pending for at least 90 days and the applicant has failed to substantively respond to a written request for information sent by certified mail to the applicant's address as set forth in the application, an automatic withdrawal will occur. The written request must have advised the applicant that if a substantive response is not received within 30 days from the date of the certified request, the application will be withdrawn automatically. Regardless of how long an application has been pending, it may not be withdrawn automatically without sending certified notice of this subsection to the address set forth in the application and allowing the applicant 30 calendar days from the date of the notice to provide a substantive written response. A copy of this subsection and the most recent written request for information will be included with the certified letter.

(e) Central Registration Depository System (CRD).

(1) Whenever the Texas Securities Act or Board rules require the filing of an application with the Securities Commissioner for dealer or agent registration, members of FINRA or applicants for membership in FINRA shall make such filing electronically through the CRD which is jointly operated by FINRA and the North American Securities Administrators Association, Inc. (NASAA). Applicants shall use the applicable uniform form for the submission of the filing in question and shall supplement their electronic filing by filing, in paper form, the items listed in paragraphs (3) - (6) of subsection (a) of this section, directly with the Commissioner.

(2) Uniform forms submitted through the CRD that designate Texas as a jurisdiction in which the filing is to be made are deemed to be filed with the Securities Commissioner and constitute official records of the Board.

Source Note: The provisions of this §115.2 adopted to be effective August 12, 2001, 26 TexReg 5794; amended to be effective November 26, 2001, 26 TexReg 9581; amended to be effective March 6, 2002, 27 TexReg 1475; amended to be effective June 12, 2002, 27 TexReg 4935; amended to be effective August 22, 2004, 29 TexReg 7968; amended to be effective January 8, 2006, 30 TexReg 8866; amended to be effective April 2, 2006, 31 TexReg 2845; amended to be effective February 21, 2008, 33 TexReg 1319; amended to be effective August 18, 2011, 36 TexReg 5094; amended to be effective October 6, 2015, 40 TexReg 6888; amended to be effective November 12, 2019, 44 TexReg 6859.

(a) Requirement.

(1) To determine the applicant's qualifications and competency to engage in the business of dealing in and selling securities, the State Securities Board requires a written examination on general securities principles and on state securities law. Applicants must make a passing score, as determined by the North American Securities Administrators Association, FINRA, or the Securities Commissioner, as appropriate, on any required examination.

(2) if, at the time the applicant completes the examinations required in subsection (b) of this section, the Securities Industry Essentials (SIE) examination is coupled with the FINRA general or specialized knowledge examination for the registration category sought, the applicant must obtain a passing score on the SIE examination.

(b) Examinations accepted.

(1) Each applicant must pass an examination on general securities principles. This requirement is satisfied by passing the examination on general securities principles administered by FINRA. As set forth in paragraph (3) of this subsection, applicants for restricted registrations may substitute a specialized knowledge examination dealing with a particular type of security for an examination on general securities principles.

(2) The Securities Commissioner recognizes the general examinations administered by FINRA as an examination on general securities principles sufficient to meet that requirement in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(3) In lieu of an examination on general securities principles, an applicant may substitute one or more specialized knowledge examination(s) administered by FINRA. The Securities Commissioner also recognizes the specialized knowledge examinations administered by FINRA as restricted registration categories. The registration of an applicant passing a specialized knowledge examination is restricted and effective only for conducting the business and securities activities and effecting transactions associated with the specialized examination.

(4) Each applicant must pass an examination on state securities law. This requirement may be satisfied by passing an examination on the Texas Securities Act administered by this Agency or by passing the Uniform Securities Agent State Law Examination (Series 63) or the Uniform Combined State Law Examination (Series 66).

(c) Waivers of examination requirements.

(1) All persons who were registered in Texas on August 23, 1963, are not required to take any examinations.

(2) A full waiver of the examination requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 13.D, is granted by the Board to the following classes of persons:

(A) issuers offering securities in rights offerings to their own securities holders;

(B) issuers offering their own securities in exchange for outstanding securities of another corporation, provided consummation of the offer is dependent upon tender of at least 80% of such outstanding securities;

(C) issuers restricting distribution of securities to security holders of an affiliate company, a subsidiary, or a parent of the issuer, provided the registration certificate is issued on a temporary basis and terminated immediately after the offering;

(D) officers and employees whose firms restrict their officers' and employees' securities activities to acting as brokers between and among principals for the sale of a majority of the stock or equity securities of a privately held business pursuant to a privately negotiated purchase agreement, where the managerial control of the business will devolve upon the purchaser(s) and where compensation received by the firm will be payable for the brokerage activities only;

(E) a finder;

(F) a person who completed the required examinations, but whose registration has lapsed for more than two years and who has been continually employed in a securities-related position with an entity which was not required to be registered;

(G) a person who completed the required examinations and whose registration with FINRA and with another state securities regulator has not lapsed for more than two years; and

(H) a Texas crowdfunding portal and its agents.

(3) A partial waiver of the examination requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 13.D, is granted by the Board to the following classes of persons:

(A) applicants who have been continuously registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, FINRA, or any other exchange listed in the Act, Section 6.F, or recognized by the Board pursuant to §111.2 of this title (relating to Listed and Designated Securities) for 10 years immediately preceding the application for registration in Texas. These applicants are required to pass an examination on state securities law as required by subsection (b)(4) of this section;

(B) applicants who passed the “state securities examination” promulgated and formerly administered by the Psychological Corporation, New York, New York, and later by the Psychological Corporation, San Antonio, Texas, which was an examination on general securities principles. These applicants are required to pass an examination on state securities law as required by subsection (b)(4) of this section;

(C) applicants seeking registration for the purpose of dealing exclusively in real estate syndication interests or condominium securities, provided such persons are licensed, at the time of application, under The Real Estate License Act (Texas Occupations Code, Chapter 1101). Such persons are not required to take a general securities examination, but are required to pass an examination on state securities law as required by subsection (b)(4) of this section;

(D) applicants seeking registration for the purpose of dealing exclusively in oil and gas interests (other than interests in limited partnerships). Such persons are not required to take the general securities examination, but are required to pass an examination on state securities law as required by subsection (b)(4) of this section. Provided, however, any persons registered prior to January 1, 1976, for the purpose of dealing exclusively in oil and gas interests, are not required to pass an examination; and

(E) applicants who are officers, partners, or employees of an issuer (other than an open-end investment company) if the issuer’s securities will be registered for sale in Texas. Such officers, partners, and employees are not required to take the general securities examination, but are required to pass an examination on state securities law as required by subsection (b)(4) of this section. Evidences of registration granted pursuant to this subparagraph are restricted to sales of the currently registered securities of the issuer.

(4) The Securities Commissioner in his or her discretion is authorized by the Board to grant full or partial waivers of the examination requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 13.D.

(d) Texas securities law examination.

(1) The fee for each filing of a request to take the Texas securities law examination is $35. An admission letter issued by the Board is required for all entrants. The examination is given at 9:00 a.m. on each Tuesday at the office of the State Securities Board in Austin. The examination may be taken at other locations near principal population centers across the state. Testing centers require reservations and may charge an additional (monitor) fee for administering the examination. A list of examination centers with additional details may be obtained from the State Securities Board.

(2) While taking the examination on the Texas Securities Act, each applicant may use an unmarked copy of the Texas Securities Act as it is printed and distributed by the State Securities Board. No other reference materials are allowed to be used by applicants during the examination.

(3) Reexamination. An applicant who fails the examination on the Texas Securities Act may request reexamination. The applicant must bring his or her application up to date before retaking an examination.

(4) Disability accommodations. The Texas securities law examination shall be administered to applicants with disabilities in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended ("ADA").

(A) Any applicant with a disability who wishes to request disability accommodations must submit to the Securities Commissioner a Form 133.3, ADA Accommodations Request Form, that has been completed and signed by the applicant and includes supporting documentation from a licensed or certified health professional appropriate for diagnosing and treating the disability, at least 60 days prior to the examination. A prior history of receiving disability accommodations, without demonstration of a current need, will not necessarily warrant approval of disability accommodations.

(B) The Securities Commissioner may request additional documentation to substantiate a request for disability accommodations.

(C) Documentation shall not be older than three years from the date of submission.

(D) All medical records provided to the Securities Commissioner are confidential under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ("HIPAA").

(E) The Securities Commissioner is not required to approve every request for disability accommodations or to provide every accommodation or service requested. The Securities Commissioner is not required to grant a request for disability accommodations if doing so would fundamentally alter the measurement of knowledge or the measurement of skill intended to be tested by the Texas securities law examination, would affect the security of the examination, or would create an undue financial or administrative burden.

(F) Once disability accommodations have been granted, they may not be altered during the examination unless prior approval of the Securities Commissioner is obtained.

§115.4. Evidences of Registration.

(a) Issuance. An evidence of registration or certificate of registration shall be issued for each registered securities dealer reflecting the registered officer or partner.

(b) Amendments. Any changes in the information reflected on the evidence of registration must be submitted to the Securities Commissioner within 30 days of such change. An amendment fee, in the amount set forth in the Texas Securities Act, Section 35, is required to amend the evidence of registration.

(c) Successions.

(1) Succession by application.

(A) If a succession results in a surviving entity that is not currently registered as a securities dealer, the successor entity must file a new application, including the fees, as required in §115.2 of this title (relating to Application Requirements). Such a succession may include, but is not limited to, any of the following that results in either a change in control of the beneficial owners, or a change in management:

- (i) a merger;
- (ii) a consolidation;
- (iii) an acquisition; or
- (iv) a reorganization.

(B) A complete application for the successor entity should be filed far enough in advance, but no later than 30 days after succession, so the application can be reviewed and approved prior to the successor entity taking over the business of the predecessor securities dealer. If a successor entity has taken over the business of a predecessor securities dealer before the application of the successor entity has been reviewed and approved, the registration of the successor entity will be automatically granted a temporary registration for 60 days from the date of succession to complete the registration for the new entity. If the successor entity fails to complete the registration requirements within the 60-day temporary registration period, it may submit a written request to the Securities Commissioner to grant an extension of the temporary registration for up to 30 additional days. If the Commissioner, in the exercise of his or her discretion, declines to grant the extension request, the registration will terminate for the dealer and all its agents on the expiration of the 60-day temporary registration. Any sales by the dealer and/or its agents after termination of the temporary registration are subject to the sanctions provided by the Texas Securities Act for selling securities while unregistered.

(C) Upon registration of the successor entity, the registration of the predecessor securities dealer will be terminated.

(2) Succession by amendment.

(A) When a succession does not result in a change in control of the beneficial owners or management, or does not result in any acquisition or assumption of substantially all of the assets and liabilities of the predecessor securities dealer, the successor entity may file an amendment in lieu of filing a new application. Such a succession may include, but is not limited to, any of the following:

- (i) an internal corporate reorganization or restructuring;
- (ii) a conversion;
- (iii) a change in the form of business; or

(iv) a change in the composition of a partnership that does not result in change of control of the partnership.

(B) The provisions in subsection (b) of this section apply to a succession by amendment.

(d) Termination. A securities dealer is required to notify the Securities Commissioner upon termination of any registered agent from its employ. Upon receipt of such notification, the Commissioner may terminate the registration. Dealers who are members of FINRA must file a Form U-5, Uniform Termination Notice for Securities Industry Registration, through the CRD to comply with this subsection.

(e) Renewal.

(1) Procedures for renewing expired and unexpired registrations are set forth in the Texas Securities Act, Section 19.C.

(2) A notice of impending expiration of registration (renewal application) will be sent to a currently registered dealer. Members of FINRA shall file the renewal application electronically through the CRD. For non-FINRA member firms, the renewal application should be returned to the State Securities Board for processing, along with the appropriate fee.

(3) If a person's registration is not renewed in a timely manner because such person is a military service member, as defined in §115.18(a) of this chapter (relating to Special Provisions Relating to Military Applicants), such person may renew the registration pursuant to the provisions of §115.18(e).

§115.5. Minimum Records.

(a) Dealer records. Compliance with the record-keeping requirements of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, found in 17 Code of Federal Regulations §240.17a-3 and §240.17a-4, will satisfy the requirements of this section.

(b) Records to be made by certain dealers. A person or company registered in Texas as a securities dealer shall make and keep current the following minimum records or the equivalent thereof.

(1) Blotters (or other records of original entry) containing an itemized daily record of all purchases and sales of securities, all receipts and deliveries of securities (including certificate numbers), all receipts and disbursements of cash, and other debits and credits. Such records shall show the account for which each such transaction was effected, the name and amount of securities, the unit and aggregate purchase or sale price (if any), the trade date, and the name or other designation of the person from whom purchased or received or to whom sold or delivered.

(2) Ledgers (or other records) that reflect all assets and liabilities, income and expense, and capital accounts.

(3) Ledger accounts (or other records) itemizing separately as to each cash and margin account of every customer and of such dealer and its partners, all purchases, sales, receipts, and deliveries of securities and commodities for such account and all other debits and credits to such account.

(4) Ledgers (or other records) that reflect the following:

(B) dividends and interest received;

(C) securities borrowed and securities loaned;

(D) monies borrowed and monies loaned (together with a record of the collateral therefor and any substitutions in such collateral); and

(E) securities failed to receive and failed to deliver.

(5) A securities record or ledger that reflects separately for each security as of the clearance dates all "long" or "short" positions (including securities in safekeeping) carried by such dealer for his or her account or for the account of his or her customers or partners and showing the location of all securities long and the offsetting position of all securities short, including long security count differences and short security count differences classified by the date of the physical count and verification in which they were discovered, and in all cases the name or designation of the account in which each position is carried.

(6) Order memoranda:

(A) A memorandum of each brokerage order and of any other instruction given or received for the purchase or sale of securities, whether executed or unexecuted. Such memorandum shall show the terms and conditions of the order or instructions and of any modifications or cancellation thereof, the account for which entered, the time the order was received, the time of entry, the price at which executed, the identity of each employee, if any, responsible for the account, the identity of any other person who entered or accepted the order on behalf of the customer or, if a customer entered the order on an electronic system, a notation of that entry, and, to the extent feasible, the time of execution or cancellation. The memorandum need not show the identity of any person, other than the employee responsible for the account, who may have entered or accepted the order if the order is entered into an electronic system that generates the memorandum and if that system is not capable of receiving an entry of the identity of any person other than the responsible employee; in that circumstance, the dealer shall maintain a separate record that identifies each other person. Orders entered pursuant to the exercise of discretionary power by such dealer or any of its employees shall be so designated. The term "instruction" shall be deemed to include instructions between partners and employees of a dealer. The term "time of entry" shall be deemed to mean the time when such dealer transmits the order or instruction for execution.

(B) This memorandum need not be made as to a purchase, sale or redemption of a security on a subscription way basis directly from or to the issuer, if the dealer maintains a copy of the customer's subscription agreement regarding a purchase, or a copy of any other document required by the issuer regarding a sale or redemption.

(7) A memorandum of each purchase and sale for the account of such dealer showing the price, and, to the extent feasible, the time of execution; and, in addition, where such purchase or sale is with a customer other than a dealer, a memorandum of each order received, showing the time of receipt, the terms and conditions of the order and of any modification thereof, the account in which it was entered, the identity of each employee, if any, responsible for the account, the identity of any other person who entered or accepted the order on behalf of the customer or, if a customer entered the order on an electronic system, a notation of that entry. The memorandum need not show the identity of any person other than the employee responsible for the account who may have entered the order if the order is entered into an electronic system that generates the memorandum and if that system is not capable of receiving an entry of the identity of any person other than the responsible employee; in that circumstance, the dealer shall maintain a separate record that identifies each other person. An order with a customer other than a dealer entered pursuant to the exercise of discretionary authority by the dealer, or agent thereof, shall be so designated.

(8) Copies of confirmations of all purchases and sales of securities and copies of notices of all other debits and credits for securities, cash, and other items for the account of customers and partners of such dealer.

(9) A record in respect of each cash and margin account with such dealer containing the name and address of the beneficial owner of such account and, in the case of a margin account, the signature of such owner; provided that, in the case of a joint account or an account of a corporation, such records are required only in respect of the person or persons authorized to transact business for such account.

(10) A record of all puts, calls, spreads, straddles, standby commitments, and other options in which such dealer has any direct or indirect interest or which such dealer has granted or guaranteed, containing at least an identification of the security and the number of units involved.

(11) A questionnaire or application for employment executed by each partner, officer, director, agent, trader, manager, and each employee who handles funds or securities or who solicits transactions or accounts for such dealer, which questionnaire or application shall be approved in writing by an authorized representative of such dealer and shall contain at least the following information with respect to such person (in the case of persons registered with the State Securities Board, a copy of their application for registration as an agent, officer, or partner will satisfy this requirement):

(A) name, address, social security number, and the starting date of employment or other association with the dealer;

(B) date of birth;

(C) the educational institutions attended and whether he or she graduated therefrom;

(D) a complete, consecutive statement of all business connections for at least the preceding 10 years, including the reason for leaving each prior employment, and whether the employment was part-time or full-time;

(E) a record of any denial, suspension, expulsion, or revocation of membership or registration of any dealer he or she was associated with in any capacity when such action was taken;

(F) a record of any denial of membership or registration, and of any disciplinary action taken, or sanction imposed, on the person by any federal or state agency, or by any national securities exchange or national securities association, including any finding that he or she was a cause of any disciplinary action or had violated any law;

(G) a record of any permanent or temporary injunction entered against the person or any dealer he or she was associated with in any capacity at the time such injunction was entered;

(H) a record of any arrest or indictment for any felony or misdemeanor, and the disposition of any such arrest or indictment or further explanation thereof, and a record of any conviction for any felony or any misdemeanor, except minor traffic offenses, of which he or she has been the subject; and

(13) For each account with a natural person as a customer or owner:

(A) An account record including the customer's or owner's name, tax identification number, address, telephone number, date of birth, employment status (including occupation and whether the customer is an agent of a dealer), annual income, net worth (excluding value of primary residence), and the account's investment objectives. In the case of a joint account, the account record must include personal information for each joint owner who is a natural person; however, financial information for the individual joint owners may be combined. The account record shall indicate whether it has been signed by the agent responsible for the account, if any, and approved or accepted by a supervisor of the dealer. For accounts in existence on the effective date of this section, the dealer must obtain this information within three years of May 2, 2003.

(B) A record indicating that:

(i) The dealer has furnished to each customer or owner within three years of May 2, 2003, and to each customer or owner who opened an account after May 2, 2003 within 30 days of the opening of the account, and thereafter at intervals no greater than 36 months, a copy of the account record or an alternate document with all information required by subparagraph (A) of this paragraph. The dealer may elect to send this notification with the next statement mailed to the customer or owner after the opening of the account. The dealer may choose to exclude any tax identification number and date of birth from the account record or alternate document furnished to the customer or owner. The dealer shall include with the account record or alternate document provided to each customer or owner an explanation of any terms regarding investment objectives. The account record or alternate document furnished to the customer or owner shall include or be accompanied by prominent statements that the customer or owner should mark any corrections and return the account record or alternate document to the dealer, and that the customer or owner should notify the dealer of any future changes to information contained in the account record.

(ii) For each account record updated to reflect a change in the name or address of the customer or owner, the dealer furnished a notification of that change to the customer's old address, or to each joint owner, and the agent, if any, responsible for that account, on or before the thirtieth day after the date the dealer received notice of the change.

(iii) For each change in the account's investment objectives the dealer has furnished to each customer or owner, and the agent, if any, responsible for that account a copy of the updated customer account record or alternative document with all information required to be furnished by subparagraph (A) of this paragraph on or before the thirtieth day after the date the dealer received notice of any change, or, if the account was updated for some reason other than the dealer receiving notice of a change, after the date the account record was updated. The dealer may elect to send this notification with the next statement scheduled to be mailed to the customer or owner.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the neglect, refusal, or inability of a customer or owner to provide or update any account record information required under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall excuse the dealer from obtaining that required information.

(D) the account record requirements in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall only apply to accounts for which the dealer is, or has within the past 36 months been, required to make a suitability determination. Additionally, the furnishing requirement in subparagraph (B)(i) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to an account for which, within the last 36 months, the dealer has not been required to make a suitability determination. Subparagraph (C) of this paragraph does not relieve a dealer from any regulatory obligation regarding the collection of information from a customer or owner.

(E) If an account is a discretionary account, a record containing the dated signature of each customer or owner granting the authority and the dated signature of each natural person to whom discretionary authority was granted.

(F) A record for each account indicating that each customer or owner was furnished with a copy of each written agreement entered into on or after May 2, 2003 pertaining to that account and that, if requested by the customer or owner, the customer or owner was furnished with a fully executed copy of each agreement.

The record shall include the complainant's name, address, and account number; the date the complaint was received; the name of any other agents identified in the complaint; a description of the nature of the complaint; and the disposition of the complaint. Instead of the record, a dealer may maintain a copy of each original complaint in a separate file by the agent named in the complaint along with a record of the disposition of the complaint.

(B) Indicating that each customer of the dealer has been provided with a notice containing the address and telephone number of the department of the dealer to which any complaints as to the account may be directed.

(15) A record:

(c) Exemptions from the requirements of subsection (b) of this section.

(1) A dealer is not required to make or keep such records of transactions cleared for such dealer by a member of FINRA, the American Stock Exchange, the Boston Stock Exchange, the Chicago Stock Exchange, the Pacific Stock Exchange, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, or any other recognized and responsible stock exchange approved by the Securities Commissioner pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 6.F, where such records are customarily made and kept by the clearing member.

(2) A dealer is not required to make or keep such records that reflect the sale of United States Tax Savings Notes, United States Defense Savings Stamps, or United States Defense Savings Bonds, Series E, F, and G.

(3) A dealer is not required to make or keep such records with respect to any cash transaction of $100 or less involving only subscription rights or warrants which by their terms expire within 90 days after the issuance thereof.

(4) For purposes of transactions in municipal securities by municipal securities dealers, compliance with Rule G-8 of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board will be deemed to be in compliance with subsection (b) of this section.

(d) Maintenance of office records.

(1) Every dealer shall make and keep current, as to each office, the books and records described in paragraphs (1), (6), (7), (11), (13), (14)(A), (15), (16), (17), and (18) of subsection (b) of this section.

(2) When used in this section, the term "office" means any location where one or more agents regularly conduct the business of handling funds or securities or effecting any transactions in, or inducing or attempting to induce the purchase or sale of, any security. The term "office" as used in this section is not related to the term "branch office" defined in 115.1 of this chapter (relating to General Provisions).

(e) Records to be preserved by dealers.

(1) Persons subject to subsection (b) of this section shall preserve:

(A) all records required to be made pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (5), (17), and (18) of subsection (b) of this section for a period of not less than six years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on such record, the first two years in an easily accessible place; and

(B) all records required to be made pursuant to paragraphs (4), (6)-(10), and (14)-(16) of subsection (b) of this section for a period of not less than three years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on such record, the first two years in an easily accessible place.

(2) Persons subject to subsection (b) of this section shall maintain and preserve in an easily accessible place:

(A) all records required to be made pursuant to paragraph (11) of subsection (b) of this section until at least three years following termination of the employment or other relationship between the dealer and the person to whom the records relate;

(B) All account record information required pursuant to subsection (b)(13) of this section until at least six years after the earlier of the date the account was closed or the date on which the information was replaced or updated;

(C) Each report which a securities regulatory authority has requested or required the dealer to make and furnish to it pursuant to an order or settlement, and each securities regulatory authority examination report until three years after the date of the report;

(D) Each compliance, supervisory, and procedures manual, including any updates, modifications, and revisions to the manual, describing the policies and practices of the dealer with respect to compliance with applicable laws and rules, and supervision of the activities of each natural person associated with the dealer until three years after the termination of the use of the manual; and

(E) All reports produced to review for unusual activity in customer accounts until 18 months after the date the report was generated. In lieu of maintaining the reports, a dealer may produce promptly the reports upon request by a representative of the Securities Commissioner. If a report was generated in a computer system that has been changed in the most recent 18 month period in a manner such that the report cannot be reproduced using historical data in the same format as it was originally generated, the report may be produced by using the historical data in the current system, but must be accompanied by a record explaining each system change which affected the reports. If a report is generated in a computer system that has been changed in the most recent 18 month period in a manner such that the report cannot be reproduced in any format using historical data, the dealer shall promptly produce upon request a record of the parameters that were used to generate the report at the time specified by a representative of the Securities Commissioner, including a record of the frequency with which the reports were generated.

(3) Persons registered as dealers in Texas shall preserve for a period of not less than three years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on such record, the first two years in an easily accessible place:

(D) all trial balances, financial statements, branch office reconciliations, and internal audit working papers relating to the business of the dealer;

(E) all guarantees of accounts and all powers of attorneys and other evidence of the granting of any discretionary authority given in respect of any account, and copies of resolutions empowering an agent to act on behalf of a corporation;

(F) all written agreements (or copies thereof) entered into by the dealer relating to the business of the dealer, including agreements with respect to any account;

(G) all customer complaints received by the dealer relating to the business of the dealer, and all documents relating to such complaints; and

(H) all information including but not limited to offering materials and subscription agreements on any private placements offered by the dealer.

(4) Persons registered as dealers in Texas shall preserve for a period of not less than six years from when a customer's account was closed, any account cards or records which relate to the terms and conditions with respect to the opening and maintenance of such account.

(5) Persons registered as dealers in Texas shall preserve for at least three years after the termination of the enterprise partnership articles and any amendments thereto, articles of incorporation, charters, minute books, and stock certificate books of the dealer and of any predecessor, all Forms BD, all Forms BDW, all amendments to these forms, all licenses or other documentation showing the registration of the dealer with any securities regulatory authority.

(6) The records required to be maintained and preserved pursuant to this section may be immediately produced or reproduced on microfilm or other photograph and may be maintained and preserved for the required time in that form provided that such microfilms or other photographs are arranged and indexed in such a manner as to permit the immediate location of any particular document, and that such microfilms or other photographs are at all times available for inspection by representatives of the Securities Commissioner together with facilities for immediate, easily readable projection of the microfilm or other photograph and for the production of easily readable facsimile enlargements.

(7) If a person ceases to be registered as a dealer in Texas, such person shall for the remainder of the periods of time specified in this section continue to preserve the records required herein.

(8) For purposes of transactions in municipal securities by municipal securities dealers, compliance with Rule G-9 of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board will be deemed to be compliance with this subsection.

(9) The records required to be maintained pursuant to this section may be maintained by any electronic storage media available so long as such records are available for immediate and complete access by representatives of the Securities Commissioner. Any electronic storage media must preserve the records exclusively in a non-rewriteable, non-erasable format; verify automatically the quality and accuracy of the storage media recording process; serialize the original and, if applicable, duplicate units of storage media, and time-date for the required period of retention the information placed on such electronic storage media; and have the capacity to download indexes and records preserved on electronic storage media to an acceptable medium. In the event that a records retention system commingles records required to be kept under this section with records not required to be kept, representatives of the Securities Commissioner may review all commingled records.

(f) The Securities Commissioner has a right to review all records maintained by registered dealers regardless of whether such records are required to be maintained under any specific applicable rule provision.

(g) Records for the most recent two year period required to be made and maintained pursuant to subsections (d), (e)(2)(D), and (e)(3)(C) of this section, which relate to an office shall be maintained at the office to which they relate. If an office is a private residence where only one agent (or multiple agents who reside at that location and are members of the same immediate family) regularly conducts business, and it is not held out to the public as an office nor are funds or securities of any customer of the dealer handled there, the dealer need not maintain records at that office, but the records must be maintained at another location within Texas as the dealer may select. Rather than maintain the records at each office, the dealer may choose to produce the records promptly at the request of a representative of the Securities Commissioner at the office to which they relate or at another location agreed to by the representative.

§115.6. Registration of Persons with Criminal Backgrounds.

(a) An application for registration may be denied, or a registration may be revoked or suspended, if the Securities Commissioner finds that the person has been convicted of any felony, or of a misdemeanor offense that directly relates to its duties and responsibilities. In determining whether a misdemeanor directly relates to such duties and responsibilities, the Securities Commissioner shall consider each of the following factors:

- (1) the nature and seriousness of the crime;
- (2) the relationship of the crime to the purposes for requiring registration of dealers and agents;
- (3) the extent to which the registration applied for might offer an opportunity to engage in further criminal activity of the same type as that in which the applicant previously had been involved;
- (4) the relationship of the crime to the ability or capacity required to perform the duties and discharge the responsibilities of a registered dealer or agent; and
- (5) any correlation between the elements of the crime and its duties and responsibilities.

(b) After the Securities Commissioner has determined the criminal conviction directly relates to the duties and responsibilities of the license, the Securities Commissioner shall consider the following evidence in determining whether the person is eligible for a license issued by the Agency:

- (1) The extent and nature of the person's past criminal activity.
- (2) The age of the applicant at the time of the commission of the crime.
- (3) The amount of time that has elapsed since the applicant's last criminal activity.
- (4) The conduct and work activity of the applicant prior to and following the criminal activity.
- (5) Evidence of the applicant's rehabilitation or rehabilitative effort while incarcerated or following release.
- (6) Evidence of the person's compliance with any conditions of community supervision, parole, or mandatory supervision.
- (7) Other evidence of the applicant's present fitness, including letters of recommendation, may be provided and considered, including letters from prosecution, law enforcement, and correctional officers who prosecuted, arrested, or had custodial responsibility for the applicant; the sheriff and chief of police in the community where the applicant resides; and any other persons in contact with the applicant.

(8) It shall be the responsibility of the applicant to the extent possible to secure and provide to the Securities Commissioner the letters of recommendation described by paragraph (7) of this subsection.

(c) The State Securities Board considers that the following misdemeanors directly relate to the duties and responsibilities of securities dealers and agents:

(1) any criminal violation of which fraud is an essential element or that involves wrongful taking or possession of property or services;

(2) any criminal violation of the securities laws or regulations of this state, or of any other state in the United States, or of the United States, or any foreign jurisdiction;

(3) any criminal violation of statutes designed to protect consumers against unlawful practices involving insurance, securities, commodities or commodity futures, real estate, franchises, business opportunities, consumer goods, or other goods and services; and

(4) any criminal violation involving an assault on a person.

(d) Prior to filing an application, a person may request a preliminary evaluation of license eligibility from the State Securities Board by following the procedure set out in §104.7 of this title (relating to Preliminary Evaluation of License Eligibility) and paying the requisite fee.

(e) Prior to taking any action under subsection (a) of this section to deny any application for registration, the State Securities Board shall comply with the notification requirements of Texas Occupations Code, Section 53.0231 Notice of Pending Denial of License, and Section 53.051.

(f) Prior to taking any action under subsection (a) of this section to revoke or suspend any application for registration, the State Securities Board shall comply with the notification requirements of Texas Occupations Code, Section 53.051.

(g) State Auditor Applicant Best Practices Guide.

(1) The State Securities Board shall post a link on its website to the Applicant Best Practices Guide, to be developed and published by the State Auditor as required by Texas Occupations Code, Section 53.026. This guide, which shall be posted once it becomes available, shall set forth best practices for an applicant with a prior conviction to use when applying for a license.

(2) In each notice to deny, revoke, or suspend a registration or to deny a person the opportunity to be examined for a registration, the State Securities Board shall include a link to the guide as described in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(b) The Commissioner or his or her authorized representative, during regular business hours, may:

- (1) enter the business premises of a registered dealer; and
- (2) examine and copy books and records pertinent to the inspection.

(c) During the inspection, the dealer shall:

(1) provide to the Commissioner or the Commissioner's authorized representative immediate and complete access to the person's office, place of business, files, safe, and any other location in which books and records pertinent to the inspection are located; and

(2) allow the Commissioner or the Commissioner's authorized representative to make photostatic or electronic copies of books or records subject to inspection.

(2) to determine whether the applicant meets licensing requirements through some alternative method;

(3) relating to prior military service, training, or education that may be credited towards a registration requirement; or

(4) to determine a dealer's financial responsibility or a dealer's or agent's business repute or qualifications.

(h) Recognition of out-of-state license or registration of a military spouse as authorized by Occupations Code, Section 55.0041.

(1) A military spouse may use the procedure set out in this subsection if he or she holds a current registration in another jurisdiction;

(2) The period covered by this subsection is only for the time during which the military service member to whom the military spouse is married is stationed at a military installation in Texas. This period may not exceed three years from the date the military spouse:

(A) first becomes registered in Texas under Option 1, set out in paragraph (3) of this subsection; or

(B) first receives the confirmation from the Registration Division under Option 2, set out in paragraph (4)(C)(ii) of this subsection.

(3) Option 1: registration in Texas with waiver or refund of the initial registration and renewal fees. If the military spouse is registered in Texas, for all or part of the period set out in paragraph (2) of this subsection, he or she may request a waiver or refund of a fee previously paid.

(A) The initial registration fee may be waived or refunded by following the procedure set out in subsection (c) of this section, including filing Form 133.19, Waiver or Refund Request by a Military Applicant.

(B) A renewal fee may be waived by submitting Form 133.22, Waiver or Refund Request by a Military Spouse for a Renewal Fee, at the time the renewal is submitted. A refund of a renewal fee that was paid in error, is requested by submitting Form 133.22 within four years from the date the fee was collected or received.

(4) Option 2: notification and authorization of activity without registration. Upon confirmation under subparagraph (C) or (D) of this paragraph, the military spouse will be considered to be notice filed in Texas. Such notice filing expires at the end of the calendar year.

(A) A military spouse may engage in activity without a license or registration under the authority of Occupations Code, §55.0041, and this paragraph, only for the period specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(B) A military spouse who becomes ineligible under Occupations Code, §55.0041, or paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection prior to the three year period identified in paragraph (2), must notify the Securities Commissioner of such ineligibility within 30 days and immediately cease activity until such time as he or she is registered in the appropriate capacity to conduct activity in Texas.

(C) Before engaging in an activity requiring registration in Texas, the military spouse must initially:

(i) provide notice of his or her intent to engage in activity in Texas and specify the type of activity by filing with the Securities Commissioner:

(I) Form 133.23, Request for Recognition of Out-Of-State License or Registration by a Military Spouse;

(II) proof of his or her residency in Texas (a permanent change of station (PCS) order may serve as proof of residency for spouses of active military service members); and

(III) a copy of his or her military identification card.

(ii) receive confirmation that the Registration Division:

(I) has verified the individual's license in another jurisdiction; and

(II) authorizes the individual to engage in the specified activity.

(D) To continue to conduct business in Texas without registration under Option 2, after the expiration of the initial confirmation under subparagraph (C)(ii), the military spouse must renew annually on the same schedule as renewals of registration. This enables the Registration Division to determine that the military spouse remains eligible under Occupations Code, §55.0041, to continue to conduct securities activities in Texas without being registered.

(i) A renewal is made by submitting the same documents identified in subparagraph (C)(i) of this paragraph.

(ii) A renewal is not effective until the military spouse receives confirmation that the Registration Division:

(I) has verified the individual's license in another jurisdiction; and

(II) authorizes the individual to engage in specified activity.

"Control persons" for purposes of this subsection means the issuer's officers; directors; or other persons having the power, directly or indirectly, to direct the management or policies of the issuer, whether by contract or otherwise; and persons holding more than 20% of the outstanding equity of the issuer. The portal must deny an issuer access to its Internet website if the portal has a reasonable basis for believing that:

(1) the issuer or any of its control persons is subject to a disqualification under §139.25 of this title (relating to Intrastate Crowdfunding Exemption) or under §139.26 of this title (relating to Intrastate Crowdfunding Exemption for SEC Rule 147A Offerings);

(2) the issuer has engaged in, is engaging in, or the offering involves any act, practice, or course of business that will, directly or indirectly, operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person; or

(7) Investment adviser representative or representative of an investment adviser--Each person or company who, for compensation, is employed, appointed, or authorized by an investment adviser to solicit clients for the investment adviser or who, on behalf of an investment adviser, provides investment advice, directly or through subagents, to the investment adviser's clients. The term does not include a partner of a partnership or an officer of a corporation or other entity that is registered as an investment adviser under the Texas Securities Act solely because of the person's status as an officer or partner of that entity.

(8) Rendering services as an investment adviser--Any act by which investment advisory services are provided for compensation.

(9) Solicitor--Any investment adviser or investment adviser representative who limits their activities to referring potential clients to an investment adviser for compensation.

(10) Federal covered investment adviser--An investment adviser who is registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. §80b-1 et seq.), as amended. A federal covered investment adviser is not required to be registered pursuant to the Texas Securities Act.

(11) Registered investment adviser--An investment adviser who has been issued a registration certificate by the Securities Commissioner under the Texas Securities Act, Section 15. (A federal covered investment adviser is not prohibited from being registered with the Securities Commissioner. If a federal covered investment adviser elects to register with the Securities Commissioner, it is subject to all of the registration requirements of the Act.)

(12) Officer--A president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, or principal financial officer, comptroller, or principal accounting officer, or any other person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions with respect to any organization or entity, whether incorporated or unincorporated.

(b) Registration of investment advisers and investment adviser representatives, and notice filings for branch offices.

(1) Requirements of registration or notice filing.

(A) Any person who renders services as an investment adviser, including acting as a solicitor, may not engage in such activity for compensation without first being registered as an investment adviser under the provisions of the Texas Securities Act or notice-filed under the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection. Likewise, every person employed or appointed, or authorized by such person to render services, which include the giving of investment advice or acting as a solicitor, cannot conduct such activities unless registered as an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative under the provisions of the Act, or notice-filed as an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative under the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(B) Each branch office of a registered investment adviser in Texas must make a notice filing to become designated as a branch office of the investment adviser. A registered officer, partner, or investment adviser representative must be named as supervisor.

(2) Exemption from the registration requirements. The Board pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Sections 12.C and 5.T, exempts from the registration provisions of the Act, Section 12, persons not required to register as an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative on or after July 8, 1997, by act of Congress in Public Law Number 104-290, Title III.

(A) Registration as an investment adviser is not required for the following:

(i) an investment adviser registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Section 203;

(ii) an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to a rule or order adopted under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Section 203A(c);

(iii) a person not registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Section 203, because such person is excepted from the definition of an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Section 202(a)(11); or

(iv) an investment adviser who does not have a place of business located in this state and, during the preceding 12-month period, has had fewer than six clients who are Texas residents.

(B) Registration as an investment adviser representative of an investment adviser described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph is not required for an investment adviser representative who does not have a place of business located in Texas but who otherwise engages in the rendering of investment advice in this state.

(C) Notice filing requirements and fees for investment advisers and investment adviser representatives exempted from registration pursuant to this subsection only.

(i) Initially, the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph are available provided that the investment adviser files:

(I) Form ADV through the IARD designating Texas as a jurisdiction in which the filing is to be made; and

(II) an initial fee equal to the amount that would have been paid had the investment adviser and each investment adviser representative filed for registration in Texas.

(ii) Annually, the investment adviser files renewal fees which would have been paid had the investment adviser and each investment adviser representative been registered in Texas.

(D) Persons not required to register with the Securities Commissioner pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph, are reminded that the Texas Securities Act prohibits fraud or fraudulent practices in dealing in any manner in any securities whether or not the person engaging in fraud or fraudulent practices is required to be registered. The Agency has jurisdiction to investigate and bring enforcement actions to the full extent authorized in the Texas Securities Act with respect to fraud or deceit, or unlawful conduct by an investment adviser or investment adviser representative in connection with transactions involving securities in Texas.

(c) Types of registrations.

(1) General registration. A general registration is a registration to render advisory services regarding all categories of securities, without limitation.

(2) Restricted registration. A restricted registration as an investment adviser or as an investment adviser representative may be issued based upon the qualifying examination(s) passed by the investment adviser or investment adviser representative.

(3) In restricted registration, the evidence of registration shall indicate that the holder thereof is entitled to act as an investment adviser, investment adviser representative, or solicitor only in the restricted capacity.

(d) Prohibition on fraud and availability of an exemption from registration. The Texas Securities Act prohibits fraud or fraudulent practices in dealing in any manner in any securities whether or not the person engaging in fraud or fraudulent practices is required to be registered. The Agency has jurisdiction to investigate and bring enforcement actions to the full extent authorized in the Texas Securities Act with respect to fraud or deceit, or unlawful conduct by an investment adviser or investment adviser representative in connection with transactions involving securities in Texas. However, the registration requirements detailed in this chapter do not apply to investment advisers and investment adviser representatives that are exempt from registration as such pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 5, or by Board rule pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.T or Section 12.C, contained in Chapters 109 or 139 of this title.

§116.2. Application Requirements.

(a) Investment adviser and investment adviser representative application requirements.

A complete application consists of the following:

(1) items filed electronically via the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD), which is jointly operated by the North American Securities Administrators Association, Inc. (NASAA), the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) using the applicable uniform forms:

(A) Form ADV;

(B) Form U-4 for the designated officer and a Form U-4 for each investment adviser representative or solicitor to be registered;

(C) disclosure document or Part 2 of Form ADV; and

(D) the appropriate registration fee(s).

(2) items filed in paper form with the Securities Commissioner:

(A) a copy of articles of incorporation, partnership agreement, articles of association, trust agreement, or other documents which indicate the form of organization, certified by the jurisdiction or by an officer or partner of the applicant;

(B) a balance sheet prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles reflecting the financial condition of the investment adviser as of a date not more than 90 days prior to the date of such filing. The balance sheet should be compiled, reviewed, or audited by independent certified public accountants or independent public accountants, or must instead be certified by the applicant's principal financial officer. If certified by the principal financial officer of the applicant, such officer shall make the certification on Form 133.18, Certification of Balance Sheet by Principal Financial Officer.

(C) a copy of the investment adviser's standard advisory contract;

(D) fee schedule; and

(E) any other information deemed necessary by the Securities Commissioner to determine an investment adviser's financial responsibility or an investment adviser's or investment adviser representative's business repute or qualification.

(b) Designated officer designation. Investment advisers, including an individual filing as a sole proprietor, must file a Form U-4 application for a designated officer to register in connection with the registration of the investment adviser. The investment adviser's designated officer must be an officer, partner, or the sole proprietor of the investment adviser and have completed the necessary registration and examination requirements. If the designated officer of an investment adviser, other than a sole proprietor, resigns or is otherwise removed from his or her position, the investment adviser shall make an application to register another officer or partner within 30 days.

(c) Branch office designation and inspection.

(1) An investment adviser may designate a branch office upon initial application of the investment adviser or by amendment to a current Form BR. No investment advisory activity may occur in any branch office location until such time as the investment adviser has notified the Securities Commissioner that such location will function as a branch office by submitting Form BR on CRD.

(2) Simultaneous with the designation of a branch office, a supervisor must be named for that branch office. The supervisor must satisfy the examination qualifications required of the investment adviser before the branch office is designated. A supervisor is responsible for supervision of the activities of the branch office. Within 10 business days after a supervisor ceases to be employed or registered in such capacity by the investment adviser, the investment adviser must designate a new supervisor, qualified by passage of the appropriate examinations, for the branch office.

(3) Each branch office of an investment adviser who is registered with the Commissioner is subject to unannounced inspections at any time during normal business hours.

(d) Automatic withdrawal of an investment adviser or investment adviser representative application for registration that has been pending for at least 90 days. If an application for investment adviser or investment adviser representative registration has been pending for at least 90 days and the applicant has failed to substantively respond to a written request for information sent by certified mail to the applicant's address as set forth in the application, an automatic withdrawal will occur. The written request must have advised the applicant that if a substantive response is not received within 30 days from the date of the certified request, the application will be withdrawn automatically. Regardless of how long an application has been pending, it may not be withdrawn automatically without sending certified notice of this subsection to the address set forth in the application and allowing the applicant 30 calendar days from the date of the notice to provide a substantive written response. A copy of this subsection and the most recent written request for information will be included with the certified letter.

(e) Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD). Uniform forms submitted through the IARD that designate Texas as a jurisdiction in which the filing is to be made are deemed to be filed with the Securities Commissioner and constitute official records of the Board.

§116.3. Examination.

(a) Requirement. To determine the applicant's qualifications and competency to engage in the business of rendering investment advice, the State Securities Board requires written examinations. Applicants must make a passing score on any required examination.

(b) Examinations accepted.

(1) Each applicant for registration as an investment adviser or investment adviser representative must pass:

(A) the Uniform Investment Adviser Law Examination (the new entry level competency examination, Series 65, administered after December 31, 1999); or

(B) the following combination of examinations:

(i) a general securities representative examination as described in §115.3(b)(2) of this title (relating to Examination) or a limited examination as described in §115.3(b)(3) of this title; and

(ii) the Uniform Combined State Law Examination (Series 66), the Uniform Investment Advisers State Law Examination (Series 65, as it existed and was administered on or before December 31, 1999), or an examination on the Texas Securities Act administered by this Agency.

(2) Each of these examinations (except the Texas Securities Act examination) is administered by FINRA and can be scheduled by submitting a Form U-10 to FINRA.

(c) Waivers of examination requirements.

(1) All persons who were registered in Texas on August 23, 1963, are not required to take any examinations.

(2) A full waiver of the examination requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 13.D, is granted by the Board to the following classes of persons:

(A) a person who was registered as an investment adviser or investment adviser representative on or before December 31, 1999, provided the person has maintained a registration as an investment adviser or investment adviser representative with any state securities administrator that has not lapsed for more than two years from the date of the last registration;

(B) applicants who are certified by the CFA Institute, or its predecessors, the Association for Investment Management and Research, the Financial Analysts Federation, or the Institute of Chartered Financial Analysts, to be chartered financial analysts (CFA);

(C) applicants who are certified by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc., to use the mark "CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER" (CFP);

(D) applicants who are designated by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants as accredited personal financial specialists (PFS);

(E) applicants who are designated by the Investment Adviser Association, or its predecessor, the Investment Counsel Association of America, Inc., as Chartered Investment Counselors (CIC);

(F) applicants who are designated by the American College, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, as chartered financial consultants (ChFC);

(G) a person who completed the required examinations, but whose registration has lapsed for more than two years and who has been continually employed in a securities-related position with an entity which was not required to be registered; and

(H) a person who completed the required examinations and whose registration with another state securities regulator has not lapsed for more than two years.

(3) The CFA Institute, the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc., the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the American College, and the Investment Adviser Association are required to submit to the Securities Commissioner any changes to their certification programs as such changes occur.

(4) A partial waiver of the examination requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 13.D, is granted by the Board to solicitor applicants. Such persons are required to pass only an examination on state securities law.

(5) The Securities Commissioner in his or her discretion is authorized by the Board to grant full or partial waivers of the examination requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 13.D.

(d) Texas securities law examination.

(1) The fee for each filing of a request to take the Texas securities law examination is $35. An admission letter issued by the Board is required for all entrants. The examination is given at 9:00 a.m. on each Tuesday at the office of the State Securities Board in Austin. The examination may be taken at other locations near principal population centers across the state. Testing centers require reservations and may charge an additional (monitor) fee for administering the examination. A list of examination centers with additional details may be obtained from the State Securities Board.

(2) While taking the examination on the Texas Securities Act, each applicant may use an unmarked copy of the Texas Securities Act as it is printed and distributed by the State Securities Board. No other reference materials are allowed to be used by applicants during the examination.

(3) The passing score for all applicants on the examination on the Texas Securities Act is 70%. An applicant who fails the examination on the Texas Securities Act may request reexamination. The applicant must bring his or her application up to date before retaking an examination.

(4) Disability accommodations. The Texas securities law examination shall be administered to applicants with disabilities in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended ("ADA").

(A) Any applicant with a disability who wishes to request disability accommodations must submit to the Securities Commissioner a Form 133.3, ADA Accommodations Request Form, that has been completed and signed by the applicant and includes supporting documentation from a licensed or certified health professional appropriate for diagnosing and treating the disability, at least 60 days prior to the examination. A prior history of receiving disability accommodations, without demonstration of a current need, will not necessarily warrant approval of disability accommodations.

(B) The Securities Commissioner may request additional documentation to substantiate a request for disability accommodations.

(C) Documentation shall not be older than three years from the date of submission.

(D) All medical records provided to the Securities Commissioner are confidential under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ("HIPAA").

(E) The Securities Commissioner is not required to approve every request for disability accommodations or to provide every accommodation or service requested. The Securities Commissioner is not required to grant a request for disability accommodations if doing so would fundamentally alter the measurement of knowledge or the measurement of skill intended to be tested by the Texas securities law examination, would affect the security of the examination, or would create an undue financial or administrative burden.

(F) Once disability accommodations have been granted, they may not be altered during the examination unless prior approval of the Securities Commissioner is obtained.

§116.4. Evidences of Registration.

(a) Issuance. An evidence of registration or certificate of registration shall be issued for each registered investment adviser reflecting the registered officer or partner.

(b) Amendments. Any changes in the information reflected on the evidence of registration must be submitted to the Securities Commissioner within 30 days of such change. An amendment fee, in the amount set forth in the Texas Securities Act, Section 35, is required to amend the evidence of registration.

(c) Successions.

(1) Succession by application.

(A) If a succession results in a surviving entity that is not currently registered as an investment adviser, the successor entity must file a new application, including the fees, as required in §116.2 of this title (relating to Application Requirements). Such a succession may include, but is not limited to, any of the following that results in either a change in control of the beneficial owners, or a change in management:

- (i) a merger;
- (ii) a consolidation;
- (iii) an acquisition; or
- (iv) a reorganization.

(B) A complete application for the successor entity should be filed far enough in advance, but no later than thirty (30) days after succession, so the application can be reviewed and approved prior to the successor entity taking over the business of the predecessor investment adviser. If a successor entity has taken over the business of a predecessor investment adviser before the application of the successor entity has been reviewed and approved, the registration of the successor entity will be automatically granted a temporary registration for 60 days from the date of succession to complete the registration for the new entity. If the successor entity fails to complete the registration requirements within the 60-day temporary registration period, it may submit a written request to the Securities Commissioner to grant an extension of the temporary registration for up to 30 additional days. If the Commissioner, in the exercise of his or her discretion, declines to grant the extension request, the registration will terminate for the investment adviser and all its investment adviser representatives on the expiration of the 60-day temporary registration. Any investment advisory services rendered by the investment adviser and/or its investment adviser representatives after termination of the temporary registration are subject to the sanctions provided by the Texas Securities Act for rendering investment advice while unregistered.

(C) Upon registration of the successor entity, the registration of the predecessor investment adviser will be terminated.

(2) Succession by amendment.

(A) When a succession does not result in a change in control of the beneficial owners or management, or does not result in any acquisition or assumption of substantially all of the assets and liabilities of the predecessor investment adviser, the successor entity may file an amendment in lieu of filing a new application. Such a succession may include, but is not limited to, any of the following:

- (i) an internal corporate reorganization or restructuring;
- (ii) a conversion;
- (iii) a change in the form of business; or
- (iv) a change in the composition of a partnership that does not result in change of control of the partnership.

(B) The provisions in subsection (b) of this section apply to successions by amendment.

(3) All procedures set forth in this subsection shall also apply to investment advisers and investment adviser representatives who have submitted a notice filing and fee to the Securities Commissioner.

(d) Termination. An investment adviser is required to notify the Securities Commissioner upon termination of any registered investment adviser representative from its employ. Upon receipt of such notification, the Securities Commissioner may terminate the registration. Investment advisers must file a Form U-5, Uniform Termination Notice for Securities Industry Registration, through the IARD to comply with this subsection.

(e) Renewal.

(1) Procedures for renewing expired and unexpired registrations are set forth in the Texas Securities Act, Section 19.C and Section 12-1.C.

(2) A notice of impending expiration of registration (renewal application) will be sent by IARD to a currently registered investment adviser. The renewal application should be filed through IARD, along with the appropriate fee.

(3) If a person's registration is not renewed in a timely manner because such person is a military service member, as defined in §116.18(a) of this chapter (relating to Special Provisions Relating to Military Applicants), such person may renew the registration pursuant to the provisions of §116.18(e).

§116.5. Minimum Records.

(a) Records to be made by investment advisers. Persons registered as investment advisers whose principal place of business is located in another state shall maintain records at least in accordance with the minimum record-keeping requirements of that state. Persons registered as investment advisers whose principal place of business is located in Texas shall make and keep current the following minimum records or the equivalent thereof:

(A) transactions effected in any account over which neither the investment adviser nor any investment adviser representative has any direct or indirect influence or control; and

(B) transactions in securities which are direct obligations of the United States. Such record shall state the title and amount of the security involved; the date and nature of the transaction (i.e., purchase, sale, or other acquisition or disposition); the price at which it was effected; and the name of the broker, dealer, or bank with or through whom the transaction was effected. (12) A memorandum describing the basis upon which the investment adviser has determined that the presumption that any related person is not operationally independent under §116.17(a)(7) has been overcome.

(b) Records to be preserved by investment advisers.

(1) Persons registered as investment advisers in Texas shall preserve all records required pursuant to subsection (a) of this section for a period of not less than five years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on such record, the first two years in an easily accessible place.

(2) Persons registered as investment advisers in Texas shall preserve for a period of not less than three years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on such record, the first two years in an easily accessible place:

(D) originals of all written communications received and copies of all written communications sent by such investment adviser relating to:

(i) any recommendation made or proposed to be made and any advice given or proposed to be given;

Provided, however, that the investment adviser shall not be required to keep any unsolicited market letters and other similar communications of general public distribution not prepared by or for the investment adviser, and that if the investment adviser sends any notice, circular, or other advertisement offering any report, analysis, publication, or other investment advisory service to more than 10 persons, the investment adviser shall not be required to keep a record of the names and addresses of the persons to whom it was sent; except that if such notice, circular, or advertisement is distributed to persons named on any list, the investment adviser shall retain with the copy of such notice, circular, or advertisement a memorandum describing the list and the source thereof;

(4) If a person ceases to be registered as an investment adviser in Texas, such person shall, for the remainder of the time period specified in this section, continue to preserve the records required in this section.

(5) The records required to be maintained and preserved pursuant to this section may be immediately produced or reproduced on microfilm or other photograph and may be maintained and preserved for the required time in that form, provided that such microfilms or other photographs are arranged and indexed in such a manner as to permit the immediate location of any particular document, and that such microfilms or other photographs are at all times available for examination by representatives of the Securities Commissioner together with facilities for immediate, easily readable projection of the microfilm or other photograph and for the production of easily readable facsimile enlargements.

(c) The records required to be maintained pursuant to this section may be maintained by any electronic storage media available so long as such records are available for immediate and complete access by representatives of the Securities Commissioner. Any electronic storage media must preserve the records exclusively in a non-rewriteable, non-erasable format; verify automatically the quality and accuracy of the storage media recording process; serialize the original and, if applicable, duplicate units of storage media, and time-date for the required period of retention the information placed on such electronic storage media; and have the capacity to download indexes and records preserved on electronic storage media to an acceptable medium. In the event that a records retention system commingles records required to be kept under this section with records not required to be kept, representatives of the Securities Commissioner may review all commingled records.

(d) The Securities Commissioner has a right to review all records maintained by registered investment advisers regardless of whether such records are required to be maintained under any specific applicable rule provision.

§116.6. Registration of Persons with Criminal Backgrounds.

(a) An application for registration may be denied, or a registration may be revoked or suspended, if the Securities Commissioner finds that the person has been convicted of any felony, or of a misdemeanor offense that directly relates to its duties and responsibilities. In determining whether a misdemeanor conviction directly relates to such duties and responsibilities, the Securities Commissioner shall consider each of the following factors:

- (1) the nature and seriousness of the crime;
- (2) the relationship of the crime to the purposes for requiring registration of investment advisers and investment adviser representatives;
- (3) the extent to which the registration applied for might offer an opportunity to engage in further criminal activity of the same type as that in which the applicant previously had been involved;
- (4) the relationship of the crime to the ability or capacity required to perform the duties and discharge the responsibilities of a registered investment adviser or investment adviser representative; and
- (5) any correlation between the elements of the crime and its duties and responsibilities.

(B) the investment adviser must obtain, or receive from the investment adviser's related person, within six months of becoming subject to this paragraph and thereafter no less frequently than once each calendar year a written internal control report prepared by an independent public accountant:

(i) the internal control report must include an opinion of an independent public accountant as to whether controls have been placed in operation as of a specific date, and are suitably designed and are operating effectively to meet control objectives relating to custodial services, including the safeguarding of funds and securities held by either the investment adviser or a related person on behalf of the investment adviser's clients, during the year;

(ii) the independent public accountant must verify that the funds and securities are reconciled to a custodian other than the investment adviser or the investment adviser's related person; and

(iii) the independent public accountant must be registered with, and subject to regular inspection as of the commencement of the professional engagement period, and as of each calendar year-end, by, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board in accordance with its rules.

(7) Independent representatives. A client may designate an independent representative to receive, on his or her behalf, notices and account statements as required under paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection.

(c) Exceptions.

(1) Shares of an open-end company. With respect to shares of an open-end company (as defined in this section), the investment adviser may use the open-end company's transfer agent in lieu of a qualified custodian for purposes of complying with subsection (b) of this section.

(2) Certain privately offered securities.

(A) The investment adviser is not required to comply with subsection (b)(1) of this section with respect to securities that are:

(i) acquired from the issuer in a transaction or chain of transactions not involving any public offering;

(ii) uncertificated, and ownership thereof is recorded only on the books of the issuer or its transfer agent in the name of the client; and

(iii) transferable only with prior consent of the issuer or holders of the outstanding securities of the issuer.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the provisions of this paragraph are available with respect to securities held for the account of a limited partnership (or a limited liability company, or other type of pooled investment vehicle) only if the limited partnership is audited, and the audited financial statements are distributed, as described in paragraph (4) of this subsection.

(3) Fee deduction. Notwithstanding subsection (b)(4) of this section, the investment adviser is not required to obtain an independent verification of client funds and securities maintained by a qualified custodian if:

(A) the investment adviser has custody of the funds and securities solely as a consequence of the investment adviser's authority to make withdrawals from client accounts to pay its advisory fee; and

(B) if the qualified custodian is a related person, the investment adviser can rely on paragraph (6) of this subsection.

(4) Limited partnerships subject to annual audit. The investment adviser is not required to comply with subsection (b)(2) and (b)(3) of this section and the investment adviser shall be deemed to have complied with subsection (b)(4) of this section with respect to the account of a limited partnership (or limited liability company, or another type of pooled investment vehicle) that is subject to audit (as defined in this section):

(A) at least annually and distributes its audited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles to all limited partners (or members or other beneficial owners) within 120 days of the end of its fiscal year;

(B) by an independent public accountant that is registered with, and subject to regular inspection as of the commencement of the professional engagement period, and as of each calendar year-end, by, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board in accordance with its rules; and

(C) upon liquidation and distributes its audited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles to all limited partners (or members or other beneficial owners) promptly after the completion of such audit.

(5) Registered investment companies. The investment adviser is not required to comply with this section with respect to the account of an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(6) Certain related persons. Notwithstanding subsection (b)(4) of this section, the investment adviser is not required to obtain an independent verification of client funds and securities if:

(A) the investment adviser has custody under this rule solely because a related person holds, directly or indirectly, client funds or securities, or has any authority to obtain possession of them, in connection with advisory services the investment adviser provides to clients; and

(B) the investment adviser's related person is operationally independent of the investment adviser.

(d) Delivery to related person. Sending an account statement under subsection (b)(5) of this section or distributing audited financial statements under subsection (c)(4) of this section shall not satisfy the requirements of this section if such account statements or financial statements are sent solely to limited partners (or members or other beneficial owners) that themselves are limited partnerships (or limited liability companies, or another type of pooled investment vehicle) and are the investment adviser's related persons.

(5) The deficiencies noted at the time the registration is granted must be resolved by the military applicant within a 12 month period. (B) has been convicted of a crime that could be the basis for denial of the registration pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 14.A.

(e) Renewals by military service members. If a military service member's registration is not renewed in a timely manner, the military service member may renew the registration pursuant to this subsection.

(1) Renewal of the registration may be requested by the military service member, the military service member's spouse, or an individual having power of attorney from the military service member. The renewal application shall include a current address and telephone number for the individual requesting the renewal.

(2) Renewal may be requested before or within two years after expiration of the registration.

(3) A copy of the official orders or other official military documentation showing that the military service member is or was on active duty shall be submitted to the Securities Commissioner along with the renewal application.

(4) A copy of the power of attorney from the military service member, if any, shall be filed with the Securities Commissioner along with the renewal application if the individual having the power of attorney executes any of the documents required in this subsection.

(5) A renewal application submitted to the Securities Commissioner pursuant to this subsection shall be accompanied by the applicable renewal fee set out in §116.8 of this title (relating to Fee Requirements).

(6) The State Securities Board will not assess any increased fee or other penalty against the military service member for failure to timely renew the registration if it is established to the satisfaction of the Securities Commissioner that all requirements of this subsection have been met.

(f) Other provisions in this chapter.

(1) Unless specifically allowed in this section, an applicant must meet the requirements for registration or renewal specified in this chapter. This includes the requirement that certain filings be made electronically through the IARD.

(2) A one-year period, instead of the 90-day period contained in §116.2 of this title (relating to Application Requirements), will apply to the automatic withdrawal of an application for which a Form 133.4 is properly filed.

(g) Additional information. An applicant receiving special consideration pursuant to this section in connection with a registration application or renewal shall provide any other information deemed necessary by the Commissioner. Such information may include, but is not limited to documentation:

- (1) demonstrating status as a military spouse, service member, or military veteran;
- (2) to determine whether the applicant meets licensing requirements through some alternative method;
- (3) relating to prior military service, training, or education that may be credited towards a registration requirement; or
- (4) to determine an investment adviser's financial responsibility or an investment adviser's or investment adviser representative's business repute or qualifications.

(h) Recognition of out-of-state license or registration of a military spouse as authorized by Occupations Code, Section 55.0041.

(1) A military spouse may use the procedure set out in this subsection if he or she holds a current registration in another jurisdiction.

(2) The period covered by this subsection is only for the time during which the military service member to whom the military spouse is married is stationed at a military installation in Texas. This period may not exceed three years from the date the military spouse:

(A) first becomes registered, or makes a notice filing pursuant to §116.1(b)(2) of this chapter (relating to general provisions), in Texas under Option 1, set out in paragraph (3) of this subsection; or

(B) first receives the confirmation from the Registration Division under Option 2, set out in paragraph (4)(C)(ii) of this subsection.

(3) Option 1: registration in Texas, or a notice filing made pursuant to §116.1(b)(2) of this chapter, with waiver or refund of the initial filing fee and renewal fees. If the military spouse is registered or notice filed in Texas, for all or part of the period set out in paragraph (2) of this subsection, he or she may request a waiver or refund of a fee previously paid.

(A) The initial filing fee may be waived or refunded by following the procedure set out in subsection (c) of this section, including filing Form 133.19, Waiver or Refund Request by a Military Applicant.

(B) A renewal fee may be waived by submitting Form 133.22, Waiver or Refund Request by a Military Spouse for a Renewal Fee, at the time the renewal is submitted. A refund of a renewal fee that was paid in error, is requested by submitting Form 133.22 within four years from the date the fee was collected or received.

(4) Option 2: notification and authorization of activity without registration, or notice filing pursuant to §116.1(b)(2) of this chapter. Upon confirmation under subparagraph (C) or (D) of this paragraph, the military spouse will be considered to be notice filed in Texas. Such notice filing expires at the end of the calendar year.

(A) A military spouse may engage in activity without a license or registration under the authority of Occupations Code, §55.0041, and this paragraph, only for the period specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(B) A military spouse who becomes ineligible under Occupations Code, §55.0041, or paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection prior to the three year period identified in paragraph (2), must notify the Securities Commissioner of such ineligibility within 30 days and immediately cease activity until such time as he or she is registered in Texas, or makes a notice filing pursuant to §116.1(b)(2) of this chapter, in the appropriate capacity to conduct activity in Texas.

(C) Before engaging in an activity requiring registration in Texas, or a notice filing pursuant to §116.1(b)(2) of this chapter, in Texas, the military spouse must initially:

(i) provide notice of his or her intent to engage in activity in Texas and specify the type of activity by filing with the Securities Commissioner:

(I) Form 133.23, Request for Recognition of Out-Of-State License or Registration by a Military Spouse;

(II) proof of his or her residency in Texas (a permanent change of station (PCS) order may serve as proof of residency for spouses of active military service members); and

(III) a copy of his or her military identification card.

- (ii) receive confirmation that the Registration Division:
 - (I) has verified the individual's license in another jurisdiction;
 - (II) authorizes the individual to engage in the specified activity.
- and

(D) To continue to conduct business without registration in Texas, or a notice filing pursuant to §116.1(b)(2) of this chapter, under Option 2, after the expiration of the initial confirmation under subparagraph (C)(ii), the military spouse must renew annually on the same schedule as renewals of registration. This enables the Registration Division to determine that the military spouse remains eligible under Occupations Code, Section 55.0041, to continue to conduct securities activities in Texas without being registered.

(i) A renewal is made by submitting the same documents identified in subparagraph (C)(i) of this paragraph.

(ii) A renewal is not effective until the military spouse receives confirmation that the Registration Division:

- (I) has verified the individual's license in another jurisdiction;
 - (II) authorizes the individual to engage in specified activity.
- and

(2) Information system--a set of applications, services, information technology assets or other information-handling components organized for the collection, processing, maintenance, use, sharing, dissemination or disposition of electronic information, which is maintained by the investment adviser, an affiliate, or a third party service provider at the direction of the investment adviser.

CHAPTER 123. ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDELINES FOR REGISTRATION OF OPEN-END INVESTMENT COMPANIES.

- §123.1. Reserved for Expansion.
- §123.2. Reserved for Expansion.
- §123.3. Conditional Exemption for Money Market Funds.

§123.1. Reserved for Expansion.

§123.3. Conditional Exemption for Money Market Funds.

(a) Introduction.

(1) Certain open-end investment companies commonly known as money market funds have investment characteristics and sales patterns materially different from other types of mutual funds and other securities. These funds, defined in subsection (b) of this section, are designed to attract a large volume of comparatively short-term investments by purchasers. As early redemptions are contemplated by both purchaser and seller, and because these funds continuously offer to repurchase their own securities and issue new securities to new and repeat investors, an excessive amount of fees may be paid under the Texas Securities Act, Section 35.B(2), for the securities issued. Therefore, pursuant to the Act, Section 5.T, the State Securities Board conditionally exempts from the fee provisions of the Texas Securities Act certain investment company securities defined herein provided all the requirements of this section are satisfied.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve any open-end investment company from any condition or requirement of registration under the Texas Securities Act except as specifically stated herein or in Chapter 114 of this title (relating to Federal Covered Securities).

(b) Definition. In this section, a "money market fund" or "fund" is an open-end investment company which must meet all of the following conditions.

(1) The fund must engage in a continuous offering of its securities.

(2) The fund must hold itself out to be a money market fund or an equivalent to a money market fund and must be in compliance with the Investment Company Act of 1940, Rule 2a-7, as revised in Securities and Exchange Commission Release Number IC-31166.

(3) The fund must not pay or charge sales commissions or redemption fees except nominal exchange fees which may not be used for sales expenses or in lieu of initial sales charges or redemption fees.

(4) The fund's total charges against net assets for sales distribution activities and/or the servicing of shareholder accounts must not be in excess of .25% of average net assets per annum.

(5) With the exception of mergers, consolidations, or acquisitions of assets, or as noted in paragraph (6) of this subsection, the fund's investments in other investment companies must be limited to:

(A) 10% of the fund's total assets;

(B) other investment companies with substantially similar investment objectives; and

(C) other investment companies with charges and fees substantially similar to those set forth in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this subsection.

(6) In the case of a master/feeder fund structure:

(A) feeder fund(s) must meet, or invest in a master fund which meets, paragraphs (1)-(4) of this subsection;

(B) when viewed together, the master/feeder fund(s) must meet paragraphs (3) and (4) of this subsection; and

(C) all feeder funds must have investment objectives substantially similar to those of the master fund.

(7) A currently authorized fund which has been granted money market status is not required to comply with this subsection until the fund files its Year End Report of Sales of Federal Covered Securities by a Money Market Fund on Form 133.27, but it is required to comply with the subsection as it was in effect at the time that the fund was designated a money market fund for purposes of this section.

(c) Request for determination.

(1) At the time an applicant submits documents or fees in connection with an authorization to sell federal covered securities, or at any time thereafter, the applicant may request the Securities Commissioner determine that the issuer is a money market fund as defined in this section. The request shall be made in writing on Form 133.26 of this title (relating to Request for Determination of Money Market Fund Status for Federal Covered Securities). The Securities Commissioner shall review the request and any other information the Securities Commissioner deems relevant to the determination of whether the issuer is a money market fund for purposes of this section.

(2) If the request is made after the issuance of the fund's original authorization, an amendment fee as prescribed by the Texas Securities Act, Section 35.A(1) will be required. Additional sales information will be required since only the federal covered securities authorized and sold after the date the Securities Commissioner determines that the issuer is a money market fund will be subject to the reduced fees under subsection (d) of this section.

(d) Conditional exemption. Subject to the other provisions of this section, federal covered securities issued by money market funds are exempt from the fee imposed by the Texas Securities Act, Section 35.B(2), provided all of the following requirements are satisfied at the time of sale of the federal covered securities.

(1) An applicant has requested that the Securities Commissioner determine that the issuer is a money market fund as defined in this section.

(2) The Securities Commissioner has determined that the issuer is a money market fund as defined in this section.

(3) For each filing of an original, renewal, or amended authorization under the conditional exemption provided by this section, the applicant has paid the filing fee required by the Act, Section 35.A(1), in addition to the reduced fee imposed by paragraph (5) of this subsection.

(4) During the current calendar year, the fund has an aggregate authorized amount of $10 million of federal covered securities for sale in Texas.

(5) The fund has paid the reduced authorization fee imposed by this paragraph for the aggregate amount of federal covered securities proposed to be sold during the current calendar year under this conditional exemption. The reduced authorization fee imposed by this paragraph for authorization of federal covered securities in excess of the first $10 million aggregate amount of securities sold is:

(A) for the next $10 million of federal covered securities authorized, 1/20 of 1.0% of the aggregate amount to be sold;

(B) for the next $30 million of federal covered securities authorized, 1/50 of 1.0% of the aggregate amount to be sold;

(C) for the next $50 million of federal covered securities to be authorized, 1/100 of 1.0% of the aggregate amount to be sold; and

(D) 1/200 of 1.0% of the aggregate amount on the remainder of the federal covered securities authorized to be sold.

(e) Oversales. The reduced authorization fee schedule imposed by subsection (d)(5) of this section shall not apply to any federal covered securities authorized under the Act, Section 35-1. All fees paid for authorization of federal covered securities of money market funds pursuant to Section 35-1 shall be computed as set forth in the Act, Sections 35.A(1), 35.B(2), and 35-1.

(f) Unsold balance at end of calendar year. In any calendar year, the fees required to be paid by a fund for sales that year will be calculated under subsection (d)(4) and (5) of this section without regard to the amount of fees paid or federal covered securities sold in any other year. If, at the end of any calendar year a money market fund has a remaining unsold balance of federal covered securities authorized to be sold, the dollar amount of fees paid under subsection (d) of this section for authorization of the unsold balance may be reapplied to fees required in the next calendar year, but no unsold balance of authorized but unsold federal covered securities will be carried forward to the subsequent calendar year.

(g) Year end reports. To qualify for the reduced fees accorded to a fund granted money market fund status pursuant to this section, the fund must file a year end report of sales on Form 133.27 of this title (relating to Year End Report of Sales of Federal Covered Securities by a Money Market Fund) in January of each year which reflects the amount of federal covered securities sold in the previous year, the balance of fees paid for authorization of any unsold balance in the previous year and the recalculated balance of authorized federal covered securities at the beginning of the current year. In calculating fees applied to sales during the previous year, fees will first be applied at the higher rates specified in the reduced fee schedule in subsection (d)(5) of this section, and then at more reduced rates as sales volume increases, and not vice versa. Funds should consult Form 133.27 in determining how to compute fees.

(h) Effect of noncompliance. If at any time the business or plan of business of any fund has been altered so that it is no longer a money market fund within subsection (b) of this section, such an issuer shall not be entitled to any reduction of fees as provided in subsection (d)(5) of this section. Such fund shall not be entitled to any reduction in fees as provided in subsection (d)(5) of this section for any sales of its securities from the time at which it ceases to comply with subsection (b) of this section until the Securities Commissioner redetermines in a subsequent calendar year that the issuer is again a money market fund as defined in subsection (b) of this section, and instead fees shall be calculated for such issuer as provided in the Act, Section 35 and Section 35-1.

(i) Appeals. If any person should take exception to an action of the Securities Commissioner in making, failing to make, or revoking a determination whether that person is a money market fund, the aggrieved person may appeal the decision of the Securities Commissioner as provided in the Act, Section 24.

(j) Effect of a prior determination. A fund offering federal covered securities, that was determined to be a money market fund prior to October 11, 1996, will continue to be considered a money market fund for purposes of this section without the necessity of submitting a new request for determination, so long as the fund continues to meet the definition of a "money market fund" in subsection (b) of this section.

§125.1. Introduction. In order to be fair, just, and equitable to, and not tend to work a fraud upon, purchasers of securities, those offering for sale or selling securities issued by churches and similar nonprofit institutions should comply with the following guidelines for minimum information to be communicated to each prospective investor.

Source Note: The provisions of this §125.1 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976.

§125.2. Name. The name of the security being offered must be disclosed.

Source Note: The provisions of this §125.2 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976.

§125.3. The Issuer. Background information on the issuer must be given, including the following.

- (1) The name, address, state in which organized, date organized, the type of legal entity, and purposes of the issuer.
- (2) A brief history of the issuer, and its denominational affiliation, if any.
- (3) A description of the general area and location of the issuer.
- (4) Accreditation and regulation of the issuer, if any.
- (5) A brief summary of the backgrounds of the key employees and those individuals responsible for the management and control of the issuer. In the case of religious organizations, a brief summary of the background of the minister or ministers and name and occupation of other responsible church officials must be included.

(6) A description of any current or past transactions, or of any proposed transactions, between the issuer and such persons mentioned in paragraph (5) of this section, or any affiliate of such persons.

(7) A statement of all direct and indirect remuneration paid by the issuer or received by members of the issuer in connection with the offering.

(8) A statement of any affiliation between the issuer and the broker/dealer, or any officers of either, with any building contractor or supplier who has an interest in or may receive any of the proceeds of the issue.

Source Note: The provisions of this §125.3 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976.

§125.4. Description of Terms of Security Offered.

(a) There must be a description of the indenture under which the securities are to be issued. This description should include information as to:

- (1) interest and interest payment dates;
- (2) default;
- (3) redemption and prepayment;
- (4) subordination;
- (5) sinking fund;
- (6) subsequent issues;
- (7) modification of the indenture;
- (8) paying agents and trustees including a brief statement concerning the duties of trustees;
- (9) insurance coverage on properties of issuer; and
- (10) any other material facts regarding the rights of bond holders.

(b) If any organization (it does not matter whether the organization is affiliated with the issuer or not) makes a guarantee of payment for the issue, information describing the ability of that organization to guarantee payment must be furnished, including financial statements. The word "guarantee" should not be used to describe the obligation of the issuer to pay, and it is appropriate only if there is a second obligation by another entity. The guarantee in and of itself may involve the offering of a second security which may require registration.

(c) If the security for the bond issue is in part real estate, the cost (if reasonably ascertainable) and appraised value of said property must be stated; likewise, a statement must be made concerning whether the sale of additional bonds may be authorized for the same underlying security.

Source Note: The provisions of this §125.4 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976.

§125.5. Plan of Distribution.

- (a) There must be a statement as to whom the offering is being made.
- (b) The names and addresses of those who are compensated to engage in the sale of securities or act as fundraising adviser must be given.
- (c) A brief description of the distribution must be given.
- (d) A brief description must be included of any underwriting agreement between any known broker-dealer and the issuer, including whether such agreements are "best efforts" or "firm" commitment, and whether "exclusive" or "nonexclusive."
- (e) A clear statement of the responsibilities of the broker-dealer, issuer, and the membership of the issuer under the terms of any underwriting agreement must be made.
- (f) All past, present, and anticipated future dealings with broker-dealers must be disclosed. In the case of church bond issues, all past, present, and anticipated future dealings with or without church bond financing organizations must be disclosed.
- (g) All expenses of the issue, including the amount of remuneration to be given to those who will engage in the sale of the issue, must be fully disclosed.
- (h) If there is to be an escrow of funds, a brief description of the escrow agreement must be given.
- (i) All disclosure documents must be dated.
- (j) If the issue has not been registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or under the Texas Securities Act, such must be clearly indicated in the disclosure document.

Source Note: The provisions of this §125.5 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976.

§125.6. Financial Information.

(a) Complete financial (preferably audited), prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Complete financials are to include: a statement of assets and liabilities (a balance sheet); comparative figures showing the budget, the number of families giving on a regular basis and their average annual contribution, if applicable and available, and income (revenue) and expense statements for the past three years; interim statements of church financials for the interim period between the last annual statements and 90 days just preceding the month of the offering.

(b) If any of the above information is not available, a statement to that effect must be made, along with an explanation of why it is not available.

(c) Any information necessary to explain extraordinary or nonrecurring fluctuations in the above-mentioned statements must be supplied.

(d) Obligations, if any, on existing indebtedness must be clearly stated and explained.

(e) An itemized statement showing the major uses of the proceeds of the offering by dollar amount is to be included. In stating the use of the proceeds, when construction costs are not based upon firm contracts, a statement should be made that the costs are estimates only and subject to change. If additional funds are needed to accomplish the stated purposes of the offering, this is to be disclosed, together with a statement showing how such funds will be obtained.

(f) A pay-out or maturity schedule must be included and sinking fund requirements must be indicated. If projected growth in income is used as the basis for increases in later sinking fund payments, great care must be exercised to insure that the estimates used are realistic and all assumptions fully disclosed.

(g) If refinancing is needed when the bonds mature, this needs to be clearly brought out. Unless special circumstances are shown, "balloon payments" normally would not be considered fair, just, and equitable.

(h) Anything that is known that will take place in the future, and which could have an adverse effect on the issuer's ability to pay back the bonds or the interest on the bonds, must be disclosed and explained.

(i) Schedules or charts showing the amount of return to be received when interest coupons are reinvested must be omitted unless there are specific provisions for reinvesting interest received.

(j) The person or persons preparing any appraisals must be identified and their qualifications for serving as such should be indicated along with the method of appraisal.

(k) Where part or all of the proceeds of an issue are to be used to retire outstanding indebtedness against certain property so that the property will serve as collateral for a first mortgage indebtedness, proceeds from the issue must be escrowed to insure that the indebtedness will be retired.

(l) If a legal opinion concerning the validity of the issue has not been rendered by an attorney, this fact shall be stated.

(m) In stating the use of the proceeds of the issue when construction costs are not based upon firm contracts, a statement should be made that the costs are estimates only which are subject to change.

Source Note: The provisions of this §125.6 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976.

§125.7. Risk Factors. Mention must be made of appropriate risk factors. Statements made concerning the risks or lack thereof in purchasing the securities must be made in the light of the financial information concerning the particular issuer. In the case of church bond offerings, it must be stated that church bonds may be offered by other issuers (of the same or other denominations) offering similar terms for greater security and less risk. Statements to the effect that little or no risk is involved in buying church bonds will be regarded as material misrepresentation. Likewise, comparisons with other investments made solely on the basis of the interest return paid will be considered misleading, unless other comparative aspects of these investments are also described. The disclosure document involved must make prominent reference to the risk factors, along with a notation as to the page number in which these risk factors may be found. The risk factors which are to be disclosed shall not be limited to the following.

(1) The issuer is primarily dependent upon contributions of the membership to meet the expenses of operation and the payment of the principal and interest on the securities. Due to population shifts or other factors, the issuer may not receive sufficient funds to meet its obligations.

(2) There has been no quoted market for the issuer's debt securities; however, the broker-dealer may effect secondary market transactions upon compliance with applicable securities laws. Neither the issuer nor the broker-dealer is obligated to repurchase the securities at the request of the holder thereof. Consequently, investors may not be able to resell any securities purchased should they need or wish to do so for emergency purposes or otherwise.

(3) (If the entity does not have a fixed price contract for the proposed construction, the following disclosure must be included.) A fixed price contract has not been obtained; consequently sufficient funds may not be available for completion of the project.

(4) If the entity has defaulted on previous issues and this issue is to refinance such a default, then such should be disclosed.

(5) If appropriate, the trust indenture permits the issuer to further encumber the property securing the bonds of this issue through the issuance and sale of additional bonds at some future date, the maximum debt-to-property valuation ratio and the debt-to-income ratio, in such event, should be set forth under section called "additional bond issues."

(6) If appropriate, issuer's financial statements as shown under "financial statements and statistical data" may be unaudited and prepared on a cash basis.

(7) Bonds of this issue will be offered to the general public and therefore must compete with other investment opportunities which may be of more or less risk by comparison and similarly provide higher or lower interest yields.

(8) The total value of the security for payment of bonds of this issue is based upon the market value appraisal of the land as shown under "security for payment of bonds" and the anticipated cost of the proposed facility to be constructed as shown under "purpose of bond issue." There is no assurance that the facility (its construction being for the most part single purpose) and land could be sold for the values stated therein in the event of a default.

§125.8. Litigation and Other Material Transactions.

(a) Any pending or threatened litigation which may materially affect the issuer's ability to pay back the bonds, or the interest on them, must be mentioned.

(b) Any transactions to which the issuer is a party which may materially affect this offering, and which have not been mentioned in subsection (a) of this section, must be fully disclosed.

- §127.1. Enforcement.
- §127.2. Alternative Dispute Resolution.
- §127.3. Seal of the State.
- §127.4. Prosecutorial Assistance to County or District Attorneys.

§127.1. Enforcement.

(a) Complaints signed by investigators. Investigators or other members of the staff, on instructions from the commissioner, may sign complaints before appropriate district or county attorneys where there is sufficient evidence of a violation of the penal section of the Act and where no complaint of such violation has been made by any other person.

(b) Disclosure of section 28 testimony. The language “. . . that all information of every kind and nature contained therein shall be treated as confidential by the Commissioner and shall not be disclosed to the public except under order of court; but nothing in this section shall be interpreted to prohibit or limit the publication of rulings or decisions of the Commissioner nor shall this limitation apply to hearings provided for in sections 24 and 25 of this Act . . . ,” in section 28 of the Securities Act prohibits the commissioner and staff from permitting a witness in an investigative proceeding under section 28 to have a copy of his own statement and from permitting the distribution or dissemination of testimony to anyone except under order of court, or permitting tape recorders or private court reporters to be present at any hearing or investigation.

Source Note: The provisions of this §127.1 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976.

§127.2. Alternative Dispute Resolution.

(a) Policy. It is the Board’s policy to encourage the fair and expeditious resolution of disputed matters, internal and external, through voluntary and informal settlement negotiations. This section sets out the Agency’s alternative dispute resolution (ADR) procedures to be used when proceeding under Chapter 2009 of the Government Code. However, the ADR procedures in this section are intended to supplement and do not limit the use of any other informal dispute resolution or negotiated settlement procedures available to the Agency.

(b) Resolution and costs. Any resolution reached as a result of ADR procedures is intended to be through the voluntary agreement of the parties. The allocation of the costs of ADR are subject to negotiation and agreement between the parties. The party who requests ADR may be liable for the cost of any third-party mediator, moderator, arbitrator, or ombudsman and shall otherwise bear his or her own costs arising from the use of ADR.

(c) Coordinator. The Securities Commissioner shall designate at least one employee of the Agency to serve as the Agency's ADR coordinator to:

- (1) coordinate the implementation of the Agency's ADR policies;
 - (2) serve as a resource for any training needed to implement the procedures for ADR;
- and
- (3) collect data concerning the effectiveness of the ADR procedures as implemented by the Agency.

(d) Statutory requirements. ADR must be consistent with the Government Code, Chapter 2009; Civil Practice and Remedies Code, Chapter 154; and the Administrative Procedure Act, Government Code, Chapter 2001. Confidentiality of records and communications related to the subject matter of an ADR proceeding shall be governed by Civil Practices and Remedies Code, Section 154.073.

(e) State Office of Administrative Hearings (SOAH).

(1) SOAH mediators may be assigned to disputed matters or contested cases as needed. If the mediator is a SOAH Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), that person will not also sit as the ALJ for the case if the disputed matter or contested case goes to public hearing.

(2) When ADR procedures do not result in the full settlement of a contested matter, the participants, in conjunction with the mediator, shall limit the contested issues which will be tried at SOAH through the entry of written stipulations. Such stipulations shall be forwarded or formally presented to the ALJ assigned to conduct the hearing and shall be included in the hearing record.

(f) Contract claims.

(1) In addition to the requirements of Government Code, Chapter 2009, ADR for contracting claims must also be consistent with the Government Code, Chapter 2260; and the Office of the Attorney General's rules for negotiation and mediation of certain contract disputes (1 TAC Chapter 68).

(2) Upon receipt of notice of a contract claim under Government Code Chapter 2260, the Securities Commissioner, in consultation with the ADR coordinator and the Director of Staff Services, or their designees, shall determine whether use of an ADR procedure is a required or appropriate method for resolving the contract dispute.

(3) If ADR procedures are determined to be the appropriate method for resolving a contract claim, the Securities Commissioner, or the Commissioner's designee, shall recommend to the claimant that the parties use ADR to resolve the dispute.

(4) The ADR coordinator and Director of Staff Services will collaborate with the claimant to select an appropriate procedure for ADR, and implement the agreed upon procedure consistent with the applicable statutory requirements and the guidelines established by the Office of the Attorney General and SOAH.

(g) Contested cases.

(1) A contested case pending before SOAH may be submitted for ADR if both the respondent and the Director of the Division signing the notice of hearing agree that ADR would be an appropriate means to attempt to reach a negotiated settlement of the matter.

(2) ADR will be conducted before SOAH. The parties to the contested case shall collaborate to select an appropriate procedure for ADR and implement the agreed upon procedure consistent with SOAH's model guidelines.

(3) The full resolution of a contested case reached as a result of ADR must be in writing and signed by all of the parties and submitted to the Securities Commissioner for review and approval.

(4) "Party" as used in this subsection shall have the same meaning as set forth in the Administrative Procedure Act, Government Code, Chapter 2001.

Source Note: The provisions of this §127.3 adopted to be effective January 1, 1976; amended to be effective March 17, 1994, 19 TexReg 1543.

§127.4. Prosecutorial Assistance to County or District Attorneys.

(a) Prior to referring a case to a county or district attorney for prosecution pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 3.A, the Commissioner shall make a determination of:

(1) the Agency resources, including the number and types of Agency employees, that would potentially be needed to assist in the prosecution of the case; and

(2) the availability of Agency employees and other resources necessary to carry out any request for assistance.

(b) In making the determination in subsection (a) of this section, the Commissioner must consider:

(1) whether resources are available after taking into account any ongoing Board investigations, investigations under Section 28 of this Act, and criminal prosecutions for which assistance is being provided;

(2) the seriousness of the alleged violation or violations in the case, including the severity of the harm and number of victims involved; and

(3) the state's interest in the prosecution of a particular case and the availability of other methods of redress for the alleged violations, including the pursuit of a civil action.

(c) If a change in circumstances occurs after the time of the determination under subsection (a) of this section, the Commissioner may reconsider the determination and may increase or reduce the number of Board employees or other resources to be made available for a case using the process established in this section.

ADA Accommodations Request
(§115.3(d)(4) and §116.3(d)(4))

The Texas State Securities Board (“TSSB”) complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended (“ADA”). To ensure equal opportunity for all qualified applicants with disabilities, TSSB will not pay any costs an applicant may incur in obtaining the required evaluation, diagnosis, and recommendations.

Note: This form must be submitted each time the applicant requests to take an examination.

If additional space is needed to respond to any of the questions, please attach a separate sheet and number answers to correspond to the numbers on this form.

1. Applicant Information:

Name: _____
CRD Number: _____
Mailing Address: _____

Telephone: _____
Email: _____

2. Examination Information:

Requested examination date or window: _____
What is your requested accommodation? _____

Have you previously taken this examination? Yes No

If yes, please provide:

Date of last examination: _____

Location of last examination: _____

Were you provided special accommodations? Yes No

If yes, what type of accommodations were provided? _____

3. Information regarding disability. Supporting documentation, that is no more than three years old, must be submitted with this form. Please see guidelines below.

What is the disability that limits one or more of your major life activities (e.g., walking, hearing, speaking, seeing, reading or writing). _____

Please describe the special accommodations needed and include written documentation supporting the accommodation that you are requesting.

Supporting documentation must:

- a. Be on official letterhead from a licensed or certified health professional appropriate for diagnosing and treating the disability;
- b. Make a recommendation for the specific accommodations with current, detailed documentation supporting the request;
- c. Provide evidence that similar accommodations have been made for you in other educational or testing situations or in employment settings, or describe why no such accommodation was made in the past but is now required;
- d. Be dated within the last three years; AND
- e. Be received by the application deadline.

Disability Documentation Guidelines

These guidelines are developed to ensure candidates are protected under Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended. The Securities Commissioner will evaluate all requests for examination modifications to determine whether the applicant: (1) has a disability, as defined by the ADA, and (2) is qualified for protection under Title II. Such modifications must maintain the security of the examination. Exam modifications that fundamentally alter the nature or security of the exam are not permitted.

The following guidelines describe the necessary components of acceptable evidence required to validate a disability and the current need for testing accommodations. A prior history of accommodations, without demonstration of a current need, will not necessarily warrant approval of testing modifications. To avoid unnecessary delays, ensure that all information and documentation is submitted by the application deadline and in accordance with these guidelines.

Qualified individuals with disabilities are required to request accommodations every time they apply to take an examination by the application deadline for the respective examination. This requirement allows the Securities Commissioner to determine if the individual is “disabled” under the ADA. It also provides the TSSB enough time to arrange reasonable and appropriate accommodations and services before the administration of the examination. Consequently, it is in the applicant’s best interests to provide recent and appropriate documentation that clearly defines the extent and impact of the applicant’s impairment(s) upon current levels of academic and physical functioning.

- Requests for accommodations and appropriate, supporting documentation, which is complete, must be submitted by the application deadline.
- Documentation should provide evidence of a substantial current limitation to physical or academic functioning.
- Clinical evaluations should be performed by a licensed or qualified professional (e.g. physician, psychologist, or educator) who has conducted an examination of the candidate and has diagnosed a physical or mental impairment. Details about the professional’s area of specialization and professional credentials, including certification and licensure, should be provided.
- Documentation must be submitted on official letterhead from a licensed or qualified professional who has examined the candidate and diagnosed a physical or mental impairment. Depending on the disability and written evaluation, documentation may include a letter from a physician or a detailed report.
- Documentation should not be more than three years old.
- Documentation for all disabilities should describe the extent of the disability, the criteria for the diagnosis, the diagnosis, the type and length of treatment, and the recommended accommodation. Terms such as “problems,” “deficiencies,” “weaknesses,” “differences,” and “learning disabilities” are not the equivalent of a diagnosed specific disability (such as ADD, Dyslexia, Multiple Sclerosis, etc). The disability must be specific. The accommodation must also be specific. “Extended time” or “unlimited time” to take the examination is not sufficient. The recommendation must be specific, such as an extra thirty minutes per session, time and one-half over one day, etc.
- Indicate why specific accommodations are needed and how the effects of the specific disability are mediated by the recommended accommodations.
- Indicate any medication currently being taken that is directly linked to the disability and any effect that medication may have relating to the major life activity affected by the disability.
- All accommodations must be approved by the Securities Commissioner. Once accommodations have been granted, they may not be altered during the examination unless prior approval of the Securities Commissioner is obtained.

Information Relating to Tests

The following information should be shared with the health professional. This information will help them in formulating their response as it relates to each individual test.

The TEXAS SECURITIES LAW EXAMINATION ("TSLE") consists of 25 multiple choice questions and is a timed exam. The applicant has 30 minutes to complete the examination. While taking the TSLE, the applicant may have for reference a clean copy of The Texas Securities Act, which will be provided by the TSSB at the time of examination. No other reference materials are allowed to be used by applicants during the examination. The testing facility is kept as quiet as possible to reduce distractions. The test is completed on paper and each applicant is alone in the room except for a proctor. For additional information regarding what the exam covers, please contact the Registration Division by calling (512) 305-8300.

Issuer: _____

Section 4005.019 (formerly Section 5.O(3)) provides that securities should be offered for sale at prices reasonably related to the current market price of such security at the time of sale. The Texas State Securities Board has interpreted the language "at prices reasonably related to the current market price of such security at the time of sale" to mean that the market price of such security in the existing secondary market must have a basis supported by a substantial volume of bona fide sales transactions within or without this state. Additionally, the Board policy provides that in the absence of a going market or where there have been only casual transactions, it shall be incumbent on the person filing the §4005.019 (formerly Section 5.O) Exemption Notice to prove to the Commissioner that the security will have a market price that has been fairly determined and justified at inception with reasonable assurance of continuity of the market into the future.

This procedure would include consideration by the Commissioner of criteria established in the items set out below. If additional space is needed to respond to any item, please attach a separate sheet and number answers to correspond to the numbers on this form.

§137.2. Filing Requirements.

(a) Written or printed offers required to be filed with the commissioner pursuant to the Securities Act, Section 22.A(1), must be received by the commissioner within 10 days after the date of their first use in Texas, including distribution of the offers to dealers; provided this shall not apply to offers by preliminary or final prospectus or to tombstone ads. Material filed under this section may be used unless expressly prohibited by the commissioner.

(b) Draft copies of material, galley proofs, and scripts of film or slide presentations may be submitted to the commissioner to satisfy the filing requirement of Section 22.A(1), but true, final copies of any such material or filmed presentation must be provided to the commissioner, and adequate equipment or facilities made available to actually view the material or presentation, within 10 days after the date of their first use in Texas.

(c) "Generic" advertisements, which under Rule 135A of the SEC are not deemed to offer any security for sale, need not be filed pursuant to this section.

(d) If with respect to any issues of securities which are part of a series of offerings of similar nature, an advertisement is proposed to be used in substantially the same form for more than one issue of securities in the series, the offeror or sponsor may file within 10 days after the date of its first use in Texas a final copy of each such advertisement with the commissioner.

§137.4. Tombstone Advertisements. "Tombstone" advertisements need not be filed pursuant to §137.2(a) of this title (relating to Filing Requirements) and are not subject to the requirements of §137.6(a) of this title (relating to Standards for Supplemental Advertising) if they contain no more than one or more of the following:

§137.6. Standards for Supplemental Advertising.

(a) Advertising or sales material, other than tombstone ads, must be consistent with and conform to disclosures contained in the prospectus. Advertising and sales materials which depict predominately the positive elements of an offering and exclude such negative elements as are required to be disclosed in the offering prospectus may be found by the commissioner to be false, misleading, and likely to deceive a reader thereof. Sales materials which refer to specific issuers of securities by name must be accompanied by or preceded by a prospectus. Sales materials that include comparisons to other investment vehicles or indexes which are unwarranted or not fully explained may be considered misleading.

(b) References in advertising or sales materials to an exemption from or reduction in taxation under any laws should be consistent with the information or summaries of information which are contained in the prospectus.

(c) Projections, generalizations, conclusions, and opinions which tend to be misleading or likely to deceive a reader thereof shall not be permitted.

(d) All advertisements of and oral invitations to group sales meetings or "seminars" at which specific issue(s) of securities are to be offered or sold shall clearly indicate that the purpose of the meeting is to offer such securities for sale and shall disclose the name of the sponsor, underwriter, or selling agent.

(e) Any bonus, prize, gift, or similar consideration which is offered to investors as an inducement to buy securities or offered to dealers or salesmen as an inducement to sell a specific offering or issue of securities (but not as an inducement in connection with general public relations or goodwill-building activities unrelated to the sale of a specific issue) must be fully disclosed to investors and to the commissioner.

(a) It is the policy of the State Securities Board to refuse to grant any exemptions by order under Section 5.T of the Securities Act for specific individual transactions or issuers.

(b) The company or person engaged in a transaction exempt under a rule adopted pursuant to the Securities Act, Section 5.T, shall not be deemed a dealer within the meaning of the Act unless the rule by its terms indicates otherwise.

Source Note: The provisions of this §139.1 adopted to be effective April 15, 1980, 5 TexReg 1285; amended to be effective October 4, 1984, 9 TexReg 4974.

§139.2. Professional Associations. The sale, issuance, or offering of any securities of a professional association organized pursuant to Texas Civil Statutes, Article 1528(f), to persons permitted by the provisions of such article to own such securities are hereby exempted from the securities registration and dealer registration requirements of the Act; and the sale, issuance, or offering of any such securities to such persons shall be legal without any action or approval whatsoever on the part of the board or the commissioner.

Source Note: The provisions of this §139.2 adopted to effective April 15, 1980, 5 TexReg 1285.

§139.3. Blue Chip Exemption. The sale of any security by the issuer itself or by a registered dealer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) If the issuer is not organized under the laws of the United States or a state, it has appointed a duly authorized agent in the United States for service of process, and has set forth the name and address of such agent in its prospectus, offering memorandum or similar disclosure document.

(2) The security is senior to or on a parity with a class of the issuer's securities registered under section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the class of securities has been so registered for the three years immediately preceding the offering date.

(3) Neither the issuer nor a subsidiary, which accounts for more than 15% of assets or revenues on a consolidated basis, has had a default that exceeded 5.0% of total assets on a consolidated basis during the last seven years (or the issuer's existence if less than seven years) in the payment of:

(A) principal, interest, dividend, or sinking fund installment on preferred stock or indebtedness for borrowed money; or

(B) rentals under leases with terms of three years or more.

(4) The issuer has had consolidated net income after taxes (but before extraordinary items and the cumulative effect of accounting changes) of at least $1 million in each of four of its last five fiscal years including its last fiscal year. In addition, if the offering is of interest-bearing securities, the issuer must have had net income for its last fiscal year (but before deduction for income taxes and depreciation) of at least 1-1/2 times the issuer's annual interest expense, giving effect to the proposed offering and the intended use of the proceeds. 'Last fiscal year' means the most recent year for which audited financial statements are available, provided that such statements cover a fiscal period ended not more than 12 months from the commencement of the offering.

(5) If the offering is of stock or shares, other than preferred stock or shares, such securities have voting rights and such rights include:

(A) the right to have at least as many votes per share; and

(B) the right to vote on at least as many general corporate decisions, as each of the issuer's outstanding classes of stock or shares, except as otherwise required by law.

(6) If the offering is of stock or shares, other than preferred stock or shares, such securities are owned beneficially or of record, on any date within six months prior to the commencement of the offering, by at least 1,200 persons, and on such date there are at least 750,000 such shares outstanding with an aggregate market value, based on the average bid price for that day, of at least $3,750,000. In connection with the determination of the number of persons who are beneficial owners of the stock or shares of an issuer, the issuer or broker dealer may rely in good faith for the purposes of this section upon written information furnished by the record owners.

(7) Any security issued or guaranteed as to both principal and interest by an international bank of which the United States is a member is exempted without regard to the conditions in this section.

(8) If the offering is of interest-bearing securities of a finance company with liquid assets of at least 105% of its liabilities (other than deferred income taxes, deferred investment tax credits, capital stock, and retained earnings) at the end of each of its last five fiscal years, the applicable net income requirements of paragraph (4) of this section, but before deduction for interest expense, shall be 1-1/4 times the issuer's annual interest expense. 'Finance company' means a company engaged primarily in the business of wholesale, retail, installment, mortgage, commercial, industrial, and consumer financing, banking, or factoring. 'Liquid assets' means cash, receivables payable on demand or not more than 12 years following the close of the company's last fiscal year, and readily marketable securities; in each case, less applicable reserves and unearned income.

(9) The issuer is not in bankruptcy.

The distribution of such securities, as part of their pro rata share of assets, to the security holders of record shall be exempt, provided that either articles of dissolution of the dissolving corporation have been or will be filed pursuant to a plan of complete liquidation or dissolution approved by the shareholders or a court of competent jurisdiction orders the dissolution and no security holder is obligated to pay or give any consideration other than the surrender of his shares of the dissolved corporation.

§139.7. Sale of Securities to Nonresidents.

(a) The offer and sale of securities by an issuer or its selling agent to a non-Texas resident not present in Texas when the offer is made is exempt from the securities registration provisions of the Securities Act. (The Securities Act provides exemptions from the securities registration requirements which might be available to some issuers or selling agents offering or selling to non-Texas residents present in the state.)

(b) An issuer or selling agent who makes an offer or sale from Texas, by any means, including use of the mail or telephone, is a dealer and must comply with the dealer registration requirements of the Securities Act. (The Securities Act provides exemptions from the dealer registration requirements which might be available to some issuers or selling agents.) An offer is not deemed to be made from Texas merely because offering material is prepared in Texas, if such material is still in the possession of the issuer or its selling agent when it leaves the state. A sale is not deemed to be made in Texas merely because a purchaser sends his purchase money to Texas, or because clerical functions connected with the closing of a sale are performed in Texas.

A bank holding company with fewer than 500 shareholders that owns the majority of the voting shares of a bank domiciled in Texas is hereby exempted from the dealer registration requirements of the Securities Act, Section 12, with respect to its participation in a sale or other transaction involving its own securities or the securities of a bank where the bank holding company owns a majority of the voting shares of such bank.

§139.10. Exchange Offers. The offer or sale by the issuer of common stock in exchange for units of limited partnership or interests in oil, gas, or mineral leases, fees, or titles is hereby exempted from the securities registration requirements of the Securities Act, Section 7, if all of the following conditions are met:

(2) the shares of common stock to be exchanged are registered for sale with the Securities and Exchange Commission;

(3) all sales to exchanging Texas residents are made by or through a registered dealer, who may be the issuer;

(4) the exchanging unit holders are not obligated to pay any consideration for the common stock issued to them other than the units of limited partnership or interests in oil, gas, or mineral leases, fees, or titles held by them;

(6) at the close of the offering, the securities meet all of the criteria for trading on The National Association of Securities Dealers Automatic Quotations (NASDAQ).

§139.11. Transactions in United States Savings Bonds. The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Securities Act, Section 5.T and Section 12.B, exempts from the securities and dealer registration requirements of the Act, the sale of any United States Series EE Savings Bond if no commission or other remuneration is paid or given or is to be paid or given, directly or indirectly, in connection with the sale. For purposes of this section, 'commission or other remuneration' does not include a fee paid by the United States Treasury.

Source Note: The provisions of this §139.11 adopted to be effective December 27, 1995, 20 TexReg 10593.

§139.12. Oil and Gas Auction Exemption. For purposes of this rule only, the term 'mineral interest' means an interest in or under an oil, gas, or mining lease, fee, or title, including real property from which the minerals have not been severed, or contracts relating thereto. The offer and sale of a mineral interest, at an auction, by the seller itself, or a registered dealer or agent acting on behalf of the seller, is exempt from the securities registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 7, if all of the following conditions are met.

(1) Auctioneer. The auctioneer or associate auctioneer through which the mineral interest is offered or sold must be licensed as a dealer under the Texas Securities Act and licensed by the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation in accordance with Texas Occupations Code, Section 1802.001 et. seq.

(2) Seller.

(A) Intent. The seller did not acquire the mineral interest with a view to resale, unless the seller was forced to acquire the mineral interest in a package in order to obtain other properties in the package.

(B) No fractionalization of mineral interests.

(i) The seller has the full right and authority to sell the mineral interest, and is selling 100% of its mineral interest, except that retention by the seller of a royalty or overriding royalty or the horizontal severance of the property is permissible as indicated in clause (ii) of this subparagraph.

(ii) The seller must not be creating undivided interests out of its mineral interest for the purpose of resale. Where all the seller owns is a partial interest (such as a royalty, overriding royalty, or undivided fractional working interest), this requirement is met if the seller sells all of that interest. However, the seller shall not be considered to be fractionalizing its interest in sales where the seller retains only a royalty or overriding royalty, or where the seller horizontally severs the property by retaining all of its existing rights in certain formations or depths under the whole property.

(3) Not applicable to investment contracts. The mineral interest offered or sold does not constitute an investment contract.

(4) Purchaser.

(A) Knowledge and experience. The purchaser or its representative is engaged in the business of exploring for or producing oil or gas or other minerals as an ongoing business. By reason of this knowledge and experience, the purchaser or its representative has evaluated the merits and risks of the mineral interest to be purchased at auction and has formed an opinion based solely upon his knowledge and experience and not upon any statement, representation, or printed material provided or made by auctioneer or seller. If a purchaser representative is used, such purchaser representative:

- (i) has no business relationship with the seller;
- (ii) represents only the purchaser and not the seller; and
- (iii) is compensated only by the purchaser.

(B) Financial ability. The purchaser has sufficient financial resources in order to bear the risk of loss attendant to the purchase of the property.

(C) Suitability. In all sales to purchasers in this state, the seller or any person acting on its behalf shall have reasonable grounds to believe and after making reasonable inquiry shall believe that the purchaser satisfies the requirements set forth in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph. This requirement could be met by obtaining a document signed by the purchaser to the effect that the purchaser meets these conditions.

(5) Auction. For purposes of this rule only, auction shall mean the sale of the seller's mineral interest by public outcry.

(6) Information not prohibited. The use of statistical information in trade journals and data bases as well as auction pamphlets concerning the mineral interests to be offered pursuant to this rule is not prohibited.

§139.13. Resales under SEC Rule 144 and Rule 145(d).

(a) Exemption from securities registration. Offers to resell and resales of any security by the owner thereof, or any person acting on behalf of the owner, shall be exempt from the securities registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 7, pursuant to Section 5.T, if the offers to resell and resales of securities are made in compliance with either:

(1) Rule 144 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (1933 Act), as made effective in SEC Release Number 33-5223, as amended in Release Numbers 33-5307, 33-5452, 33-5452A, 33-5560, 33-5613, 33-5717, 33-5979, 33-5995, 33-6032, 33-6180, 34-16589, 33-6286, 33-6389, 33-6488, 33-6768, 33-6862, 33-7285, and 33-7390; or

(2) Rule 145(d) promulgated by the SEC under the 1933 Act as made effective in SEC Release Number 33-5316, as amended in Release Numbers 33-5932, 33-6508, 33-6578, 33-6579, 33-6611, 33-6862, and 33-7390.

(b) Dealer and agent registration. Any person (other than the owner) who acts as an agent of the owner in connection with a sale to any prospective purchaser in a transaction exempt from securities registration by virtue of this section shall be registered as either a dealer or agent under the Act, as applicable.

Source Note: The provisions of this §139.13 adopted to be effective August 28, 1992, 17 TexReg 5681; amended to be effective August 24, 1998, 23 TexReg 8672.

§139.14. Non-Issuer Sales. The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Securities Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the securities registration requirements of the Securities Act, Section 7, the offer and sale of any securities, provided the following conditions are met.

(1) Who may sell. Offers or sales may be made by an owner of the securities, or any person acting on the owner's behalf, so long as the owner is not the issuer of the securities.

(2) Dealer and agent registration. Any person (other than the owner) who acts as an agent of the owner in connection with a sale to any prospective purchaser in a transaction exempt from securities registration by virtue of this section shall be registered as either a dealer or agent under the Act, as applicable.

(3) Use of proceeds. The proceeds of the sale shall be for the benefit of the owner and not directly or indirectly for the benefit of the issuer of the securities.

(4) Number of sales.

(A) Except as the allowable number of sales may be increased as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the owner, together with any persons acting in concert with the owner, may make no more than 15 sales in any 12-month period under and in reliance on this section, exclusive of sales made:

(i) to the issuer;

(ii) in compliance with the Act, Sections 5.O, 6.F, or 5.H; or

(iii) in compliance with the following:

(I) §109.4 of this title (relating to Securities Registration Exemption for Sales to Financial Institutions and Certain Institutional Investors);

(II) §139.7 of this title (relating to Sales of Securities to Nonresidents); or

(III) §139.13 of this title (relating to Resales under SEC Rule 144 and Rule 145(d)).

(B) The number of sales that may be made under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph may be increased to a higher number as approved by the Securities Commissioner in response to a written request based on the particular circumstances of a specific transaction. If the Securities Commissioner approves a higher number of sales in accordance with the provisions of this subparagraph, then in the particular case addressed by the written request, the higher number of approved sales will be allowed.

(C) The exemption provided by this section may not be combined with sales made pursuant to the Act, Section 5.C(1), to exceed sales otherwise allowable under this section.

(5) Filing requirement for certain persons. Any person who is a director, executive officer, or owner of 15% or more of a class of voting securities or other ownership interests of the issuer who wishes to make sales under and in reliance on this section must file a Form 133.34 with the Securities Commissioner no later than 15 days after the first receipt of any portion of the consideration for the securities being sold.

(6) Anti-fraud provisions. Nothing in this section relieves owners or persons acting on behalf of owners from the duty to disclose to prospective investors information adequate to satisfy the anti-fraud provisions of the Act.

§139.15. Credit Enhancements.

(a) Any 'qualified credit enhancement' need not be registered as a separate security when no additional consideration is required to receive the enhancement and the enhancement is offered and sold in conjunction with, and is not tradeable separately from, securities that are:

- (1) registered pursuant to the Securities Act, Section 7;
- (2) exempt under the Securities Act, Section 6; or
- (3) included within a transaction exempt under the Securities Act, Section 5.

(b) For purposes of this section, the term 'qualified credit enhancement' means:

(1) a letter of credit issued by a domestic branch or agency of a foreign bank if the nature and extent of the regulation and supervision of the particular branch or agency is substantially equivalent to that applicable to federal or state chartered domestic banks doing business in the same domestic jurisdiction; or

(2) a municipal bond insurance policy or guarantee issued by an insurance company licensed or supervised by the Texas Department of Insurance.

§139.16. Sales to Individual Accredited Investors.

(a) In general. The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Securities Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the securities registration requirements of the Securities Act, Section 7, the offer and sale by the issuer or a registered dealer without advertising of any security to an individual accredited investor, or to any purchaser who the issuer has reasonable grounds to believe and after making reasonable inquiry shall believe to be an individual accredited investor, provided that such security is not part of the same distribution or offering as securities of the same issuer which have been registered or are proposed to be registered by pending application under the Securities Act, Section 7. 'Advertising,' as used in this subsection, does not include the use of limited use advertisements under subsection (e) of this section or the use of the type of printed material as permitted by §109.13(b) of this title (relating to Limited Offering Exemptions) in connection with an offering under the Act, Section 5.I.

(b) Who may purchase; who constitutes the issuer for purposes of selling securities.

(1) Individual accredited investors. The term 'individual accredited investor' is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions). For purposes of this section, the term 'individual accredited investor' also includes any self-directed employee benefit plan with investment decisions made solely by persons that are 'individual accredited investors' as defined in §107.2 of this title and the individual retirement account of any such individual accredited investor.

(2) Issuer. For the purposes of subsection (a), the term 'issuer' includes any director, officer, or employee of the issuer provided all the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) the director, officer, or employee was not hired for the purpose of offering or selling such securities;

(B) the director's, officer's, or employee's activity involving the offer and sale of such securities is strictly incidental to his or her bona fide primary non-securities related work duties; and

(C) the director's, officer's, or employee's compensation is based solely on the performance of other such duties, i.e., the director, officer, or employee does not receive any compensation for offering for sale, selling, or otherwise aiding in the sale of securities.

(c) Disqualifications.

(1) No exemption under this section shall be available for the securities of any issuer if the issuer or registered dealer:

(A) within the last five years, has filed a registration statement which is the subject of a currently effective registration stop order entered by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or any state securities administrator;

(B) within the last five years, has been convicted of any felony in connection with the offer, purchase, or sale of any security or any felony involving fraud or deceit;

(C) is currently subject to any state or federal administrative enforcement order, entered within the last five years, finding fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase and sale of any security; or

(D) is currently subject to any order, judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, entered within the last five years, permanently restraining or enjoining such party from engaging in or continuing to engage in any conduct or practice involving fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase and sale of any security.

(2) For purposes of this subsection and subsection (d) of this section only, the term 'issuer' includes:

(A) any of the issuer's predecessors or any affiliated issuer;

(B) any of the issuer's directors, officers, general partners, or beneficial owners of 10% or more of any class of its equity securities (beneficial ownership meaning the power to vote or direct the vote and/or the power to dispose or direct the disposition of such securities);

(C) any of the issuer's promoters presently connected with the issuer in any capacity, including:

(i) any person who, acting alone or in conjunction with one or more other persons, directly or indirectly takes initiative in founding and organizing the business or enterprise of an issuer; or

(ii) any person who, in connection with the founding and organizing of the business or enterprise of an issuer, directly or indirectly receives in consideration of services or property, or both services and property, 10% or more of any class of securities of the issuer or 10% or more of the proceeds from the sale of any class of such securities; however, a person who receives such securities or proceeds either solely as underwriting commissions or solely in consideration of property shall not be deemed a promoter within the meaning of this clause if such person does not otherwise take part in founding and organizing the enterprise; or

(D) any underwriter of the issuer.

(3) For purposes of this subsection and subsection (d) of this section only, the term 'registered dealer' includes any of the registered dealer's partners, directors, executive directors, or beneficial owners of 10% or more of any class of its equity securities (beneficial ownership meaning the power to vote or direct the vote and/or the power to dispose or direct the disposition of such securities).

(d) Exceptions from disqualifications. The prohibitions of subsection (c) of this section shall not apply if:

(1) the party subject to the disqualification is duly licensed or registered to conduct securities related business in the state in which the order, judgment, or decree creating the disqualification was entered against such party; or

(2) before the first offer under this section, the Securities Commissioner, or the court or regulatory authority that entered the order, judgment, or decree, waives the disqualification upon a showing of good cause.

(e) Limited use advertisements. Any limited use advertisement used in connection with an offering under this section must be filed with the Securities Commissioner ten days prior to use in this state. A limited use advertisement may be disseminated by any means, direct or indirect. A limited use advertisement shall contain only the statements required or permitted to be included therein by this subsection.

(1) A limited use advertisement shall contain the following items of information:

(A) a brief description of the securities to be offered (e.g., description of class, size of offering, price, percentage of commission);

(B) the name, address, and telephone number of the person to contact for additional information concerning the offering;

(C) the address where offering material may be obtained; and

(D) the following statement: 'The securities have not been registered with or approved by the Texas Securities Commissioner and are being offered and sold pursuant to the exemption provided by §139.16 of the Rules and Regulations of the State Securities Board. This advertisement was filed with the Texas Securities Commissioner on or about (fill in date). The securities are being offered to, and may be purchased by, only those natural persons whose individual net worth, or joint net worth with that person's spouse, at the time of purchase of the securities, exceeds $1 million, excluding the value of the person's primary residence, or natural persons who have an individual income in excess of $200,000 in each of the two most recent years, or joint income with that person's spouse in excess of $300,000 in each of those years, and who have a reasonable expectation of reaching that same income level in the current year.'

(2) A limited use advertisement may include any one or more of the following items of information:

(A) the name and address of the issuer of the securities;

(B) a brief description of the business of the issuer; and

(C) the name and address of the registered dealer(s) acting on the issuer's behalf in connection with the offering.

(f) Any issuer relying on this exemption shall, upon written request, furnish to the Securities Commissioner the information furnished by the issuer or registered dealer to offerees. Any issuer relying on this exemption must maintain, for a period of at least three years, evidence of the basis for its belief that all purchasers were accredited investors at the time of purchase.

(g) Transactions exempt under this section may be combined with offers and sales exempt under the Securities Act, Section 5.H, and §109.4 of this title (relating to Securities Registration Exemption for Sales to Financial Institutions and Certain Institutional Investors). In this event, the statement required by subsection (e)(1)(D) of this section may be modified to indicate that the securities are also being offered to eligible purchasers under Section 5.H and §109.4 of this title (relating to Securities Registration Exemption for Sales to Financial Institutions and Certain Institutional Investors).

(h) Because this exemption permits limited use advertisements, use of this exemption under certain circumstances could result in other exemptions not being available for other sales due to prohibitions in such exemptions against public solicitation and advertisements. Therefore, issuers or registered dealers who use this exemption should take all necessary steps to document that any sales to persons who are not individual accredited investors, as defined, were not made in response to a limited use advertisement. Users of this section should consult with experienced securities counsel, especially if they anticipate selling, within six months of the last sale made under this section, to any persons who are not individual accredited investors.

(i) The use of a limited use advertisement in compliance with this section and in connection with sales under this section will not render exemptions that prohibit public solicitation or advertisements unavailable to sales that are made more than six months after the use of the limited use advertisement.

(j) Should the offer and sale of securities fail, for any reason, to comply with all the terms and conditions for use of this section, the issuer may claim the availability of any other applicable exemption. A limited use advertisement that results in an offer to a person who is not an individual accredited investor within the meaning of this section does not alone result in loss of the exemption.

(k) Investment intent; resales. The issuer and any person acting on its behalf shall exercise reasonable care to assure that the purchasers are acquiring the securities as an investment. Such reasonable care should include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) having reasonable grounds to believe and, after making reasonable inquiry, believe that the purchaser is acquiring the securities with investment intent for his or her own account or on behalf of other persons and not for resale or with a view toward distribution;

(2) placing a legend on the certificate or other document evidencing the securities to the effect that the securities have not been registered under any securities law and setting forth or referring to the restrictions on transferability and sale of the securities;

(3) issuing stop transfer instructions to the issuer's transfer agent, if any, with respect to the securities, or, if the issuer transfers its own securities, making a notation in the appropriate records of the issuer; and

(4) obtaining from the purchaser a signed written agreement to the effect that the securities will not be sold without registration under applicable securities laws or exemptions therefrom.

§139.17. Offers Disseminated Through the Internet.

(a) An offer of securities not made from Texas is exempt from the securities and dealer registration requirements of The Securities Act when that offer is disseminated through the Internet and:

(1) the offer indicates, directly or indirectly, that the securities are not being offered for sale to any person in Texas;

(2) an offer is not otherwise specifically directed to any person in Texas by, or on behalf of, the issuer; and

(3) no sales of the issuer's securities are made to any person in Texas as a result of the offer.

(b) An offer of securities made from Texas is exempt from the securities registration requirements of The Securities Act, but not from the dealer registration requirements of The Securities Act, when that offer is disseminated through the Internet and:

(1) the offer indicates, directly or indirectly, that the securities are not being offered for sale to any person in Texas;

(2) an offer is not otherwise specifically directed to any person in Texas by, or on behalf of, the issuer; and

(3) no sales of the issuer's securities are made to any person in Texas as a result of the offer.

(c) Subsection (a)(1) or (b)(1) of this section is met by inclusion of any of the following statements, or a substantially similar one, in an offer disseminated through the Internet.

(1) 'These securities are not being offered or sold in Texas.'

(2) 'These securities are being offered and sold in (fill in names of states other than Texas).'

(3) 'This is neither a solicitation to buy nor an offer to sell to persons in Texas.'

§139.18. Dealer and Investment Adviser Use of the Internet To Disseminate Information on Products and Services.

(a) Dealers, investment advisers, dealer agents, and investment adviser representatives who use the Internet, the World Wide Web, and similar proprietary or common carrier electronic systems (collectively, the 'Internet') to distribute information on available products and services through certain communications made on the Internet directed generally to anyone having access to the Internet, and transmitted through postings on Bulletin Boards, displays on 'Home Pages' or similar methods ('Internet Communications') shall not be deemed to be a 'dealer' in this state for purposes of the Act, Section 4.D, based solely on that fact if the following conditions are observed:

(1) The Internet Communication contains a legend in which it is clearly stated that:

(A) the dealer, investment adviser, dealer agent, or investment adviser representative in question may only transact business in this state if first registered, excluded, or exempted from Texas dealer, investment adviser, dealer agent, or investment adviser representative registration requirements, as may be; and

(B) follow-up, individualized responses to persons in Texas by such dealer, investment adviser, dealer agent, or investment adviser representative that involve either the effecting or attempting to effect transactions in securities, or the rendering of personalized investment advice for compensation, as may be, will not be made absent compliance with Texas dealer, investment adviser, dealer agent, or investment adviser representative registration requirements, or an applicable exemption or exclusion;

(2) The Internet Communication contains a mechanism, including and without limitation, technical 'firewalls' or other implemented policies and procedures, designed reasonably to ensure that prior to any subsequent, direct communication with prospective customers or clients in Texas, said dealer, investment adviser, dealer agent, or investment adviser representative is first registered in Texas or qualifies for an exemption or exclusion from such requirement. Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve a Texas registered dealer, investment adviser, dealer agent, or investment adviser representative from any applicable securities registration requirement in Texas;

(3) The Internet Communication does not involve either effecting or attempting to effect transactions in securities, or the rendering of personalized investment advice for compensation, as may be, in Texas over the Internet, but is limited to the dissemination of general information on products and services; and

(4) In the case of a dealer agent or investment adviser representative:

(A) the affiliation with the dealer or investment adviser of the dealer agent or investment adviser representative is prominently disclosed within the Internet Communication;

(B) the dealer or investment adviser with whom the dealer agent or investment adviser representative is associated retains responsibility for reviewing and approving the content of any Internet Communication by a dealer agent or investment adviser representative;

(C) the dealer or investment adviser with whom the dealer agent or investment adviser representative is associated first authorizes the distribution of information on the particular products and services through the Internet Communication; and

(D) in disseminating information through the Internet Communication, the dealer agent or investment adviser representative acts within the scope of the authority granted by the dealer or investment adviser.

(b) The position expressed in this section extends to state dealer, investment adviser, dealer agent, and investment adviser representative registration requirements only, and does not excuse compliance with applicable securities registration, antifraud, or related provisions.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the activities of any dealer, investment adviser, dealer agent, or investment adviser representative engaged in business in this state that is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Securities Commissioner as a result of the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996, as amended.

§139.19. Accredited Investor Exemption. Any offer or sale of a security by an issuer in a transaction that meets the requirements of this section is exempted from the securities registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act and exempted from the filing requirements contained in the Texas Securities Act, Section 22.A, and Chapter 137 of this title (relating to Administrative Guidelines for Regulation of Offers).

(1) Who may purchase. Sales of securities shall be made only to persons who are or the issuer reasonably believes are accredited investors. 'Accredited investor' is defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions).

(2) Unavailable for certain issuers. The exemption is not available to an issuer that is in the development stage that either has no specific business plan or purpose or has indicated that its business plan is to engage in a merger or acquisition with an unidentified company or companies, or other entity or person.

(3) Investment intent; resales. The issuer reasonably believes that all purchasers are purchasing for investment and not with the view to or for sale in connection with a distribution of the security. Any resale of a security sold in reliance on this exemption within 12 months of sale shall be presumed to be with a view to distribution and not for investment, except a resale pursuant to a registration statement effective under the Texas Securities Act, Section 7, or to an accredited investor pursuant to an exemption available under the Texas Securities Act or Board rules.

(4) Disqualifications.

(A) The exemption is not available to an issuer if the issuer, any of the issuer's predecessors, any affiliated issuer, any of the issuer's directors, officers, general partners, beneficial owners of 10% or more of any class of its equity securities, any of the issuer's promoters presently connected with the issuer in any capacity, any underwriter of the securities to be offered, or any partner, director, or officer of such underwriter:

(i) within the last five years, has filed a registration statement which is the subject of a currently effective registration stop order entered by any state securities administrator or the United States Securities and Exchange Commission;

(ii) within the last five years, has been convicted of any criminal offense in connection with the offer, purchase, or sale of any security, or involving fraud or deceit;

(iii) is currently subject to any state or federal administrative enforcement order or judgment, entered within the last five years, finding fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase or sale of any security; or

(iv) is currently subject to any order, judgment, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, entered within the last five years, temporarily, preliminarily, or permanently restraining or enjoining such party from engaging in or continuing to engage in any conduct or practice involving fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase or sale of any security.

(B) Subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not apply if:

(i) the party subject to the disqualification is licensed or registered to conduct securities related business in the state in which the order, judgment, or decree creating the disqualification was entered against such party;

(ii) before the first offer under this exemption, the state securities administrator, or the court or regulatory authority that entered the order, judgment, or decree, waives the disqualification; or

(iii) the issuer establishes that it did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care, based on a factual inquiry, could not have known that a disqualification existed under this paragraph.

(5) General announcement.

(A) A general announcement of the proposed offering may be made by any means.

(B) The general announcement shall include only the following information, unless additional information is specifically permitted by the Securities Commissioner:

(i) the name, address, and telephone number of the issuer of the securities;
(ii) the name, a brief description, and price (if known) of any security to be issued;

(iii) a brief description of the business of the issuer in 25 words or less;

(iv) the type, number, and aggregate amount of securities being offered;

(v) the name, address, and telephone number of the person to contact for additional information; and

(vi) a statement that:

(I) sales will only be made to accredited investors;

(II) no money or other consideration is being solicited or will be accepted by way of this general announcement; and

(III) the securities have not been registered with or approved by any state securities agency or the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and are being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration.

(6) Provision of additional information. The issuer, in connection with an offer, may provide information in addition to the general announcement under paragraph (5) of this section, if such information:

(A) is delivered through an electronic database that is restricted to persons who have been prequalified as accredited investors; or

(B) is delivered after the issuer reasonably believes that the prospective purchaser is an accredited investor.

(7) Telephone solicitation. No telephone solicitation shall be permitted unless prior to placing the call, the issuer reasonably believes that the prospective purchaser to be solicited is an accredited investor.

(8) Loss of exemption. Dissemination of the general announcement of the proposed offering to persons who are not accredited investors shall not disqualify the issuer from claiming the exemption under this section.

(9) Filing. The issuer shall file with the Securities Commissioner a notice of transaction on the Model Accredited Investor Exemption Uniform Notice of Transaction form, a consent to service of process, and a copy of the general announcement within 15 days after the first sale in this state.

(10) Dealer and agent registration. Although the issuer is not required to register as a dealer to conduct sales pursuant to this section, third parties must comply with the dealer and agent registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act and Board rules. For the purposes of this section, the term 'issuer' includes any director, officer, or employee of the issuer provided all the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) the director, officer, or employee was not hired for the purpose of offering or selling such securities;

(B) the director's, officer's, or employee's activity involving the offer and sale of such securities is strictly incidental to his or her bona fide primary non-securities related work duties; and

(C) the director's, officer's, or employee's compensation is based solely on the performance of other such duties, i.e., the director, officer, or employee does not receive any compensation for offering for sale, selling, or otherwise aiding in the sale of securities.

§139.20. Third Party Brokerage Arrangements on Financial Entity Premises.

(a) The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 12.B, exempts a financial entity from the dealer registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act, when such financial entity is engaging in securities-related activity consisting solely of acting as a correspondent in a third party brokerage arrangement coordinated with a registered dealer on the premises of the financial entity. A financial entity may receive compensation for such an arrangement based on a percentage of commissions generated by the arrangement or on the basis of leased space of the premises; officers and employees of the financial entity may receive compensation as set forth in subsection (b) of this section. For purposes of this section, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) 'financial entity' shall include any state or national bank, any federal savings and loan association or savings and loan association organized and subject to the laws and regulation of this State as defined in §109.17 of this title (relating to Banks Under The Securities Act, Section 5.L), or any credit union, insurance company, bank holding company, or financial holding company organized and subject to functional regulation under the laws of the United States or under the laws of any State or territory of the United States;

(2) 'acting as a correspondent in a third party brokerage arrangement' means that the activity of the financial entity is limited to providing an area on the financial entity premises for the dealer's brokerage activities, advertising the brokerage service, referring customers to a representative of the dealer, and performing clerical or ministerial functions in connection with brokerage transactions including scheduling appointments with agents of the dealer and transferring customer funds or securities;

(3) 'premises' shall include the physical location of the financial entity, including all of its branches, as well as the financial entity's web site. Thus, a financial entity may engage in linking arrangements with third party brokerages within this exemption.

(b) The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 12.B, exempts officers and employees of a financial entity from the agent registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act, when such employee or officer is engaging in securities-related activity consisting solely of referring customers to a representative of the registered dealer. For the purposes of this subsection, the officers and employees of a financial entity may receive a referral fee for this activity provided that:

(1) the fee is a nominal, one time fee of a fixed dollar amount per referral;

(2) the payment of such referral fee is not contingent on whether the referral results in a transaction; and

(3) such payment is made directly by the registered dealer to the financial entity which, as a condition of this exemption, upon request agrees to provide the Securities Commissioner, or representative of the Commissioner, a statement or internal records itemizing such payments including, but not limited to, the date, amount of payment, the name of each person for whom a referral payment was made and the name of the person receiving the payment.

(c) The filing and fee requirements for dealers and agents exempted from registration pursuant to this section are preserved.

(1) Initially, the exemptions provided by subsections (a) and (b) of this section are available after the filing of:

(A) a Form 133.9;

(B) a consent to service of process (if the financial entity is domiciled outside of Texas);

(C) a copy of the agreement with the third party dealer; and

(D) an initial fee equal to the amount that would have been paid had the financial entity and designated officer of the financial entity filed for registration in Texas.

(2) Upon amendment to its Form 133.9, the financial entity files an amended Form 133.9 and an amendment fee as provided in the Texas Securities Act, Section 35.B(1).

(3) Annually, the financial entity files renewal fees which would have been paid had the financial entity been registered in Texas.

(d) Any financial entity relying on this exemption shall, upon written request, furnish to the Securities Commissioner any information relative to the third party brokerage arrangement that the Commissioner deems relevant, including, but not limited to, records regarding referral fee payments to employees and officers of the financial entity, agreements between the financial entity and the registered dealer, and customer complaints regarding the brokerage activities. Standard compensation records are sufficient 'records regarding referral fee payments to employees and officers.' All records required by this subsection shall be kept for the life of the third party brokerage arrangement plus an additional five years and may be retained electronically, in hard copy form, microfilm, or microfiche.

§139.21. Dealer, Agent, and Securities Exemptions for Canadian Accounts.

(a) The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Sections 5.T and 12.C, exempts Canadian dealers and agents from the registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act, when such dealers and agents comply with subsections (b) and (c) of this section and are conducting a transaction in a Canadian self-directed tax advantaged retirement plan of which the holder or contributor is a person from Canada who is present in this state or when conducting a transaction in the Canadian securities account of a Canadian citizen who is temporarily present in this state and with whom the dealer or agent has a preexisting client relationship.

(b) A Canadian dealer must be a member of a self-regulatory organization, a stock exchange in Canada, or the bureau 'des services financiers' of Quebec, and maintain provincial or territorial registration and membership in a Canadian self-regulatory organization or stock exchange in good standing. An agent must be registered and in good standing in the jurisdiction from which he or she is effecting transactions into this state and maintain registration in such jurisdiction in good standing.

(c) Any Canadian dealer or agent relying on this exemption shall, upon written request, furnish to the Securities Commissioner any information relative to a transaction covered by this section that the Commissioner deems relevant.

(d) The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.T, exempts from the securities registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 7, the offer and sale of any securities effected by a Canadian dealer pursuant to this section.

(e) The Texas Securities Act prohibits fraud or fraudulent practices in connection with the sale or offer for sale of securities covered by this exemption.

§139.22. Exemption for Investment Adviser to a High Net Worth Family Entity.

(a) The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 5.T and Section 12.C, exempts an investment adviser and its investment adviser representatives from the registration requirements of the Act, Section 12, when such adviser:

- (1) renders services as an investment adviser to a high net worth family entity or related family entities, and
- (2) does not hold itself out to the public as one who renders services as an investment adviser.

(b) For purposes of this section, a 'high net worth family entity' is a corporation, limited partnership, limited liability company, or other entity, with all of its owners, partners, or members belonging to a single family who are all related by blood, adoption or marriage; with a combined net worth of not less than $5 million; and with ownership by an individual family member being direct or indirect pursuant to a trust or other similar arrangement where the investment is made by or on behalf of, or for the benefit of, the individual. An individual shall not constitute a 'family entity' for purposes of this exemption regardless of the net worth of the individual.

(c) For purposes of determining 'net worth' under this section, an investment adviser may rely on the entity's most recent annual balance sheet or other financial statement which shall have been audited by an independent accountant or which shall have been verified under oath by a principal of the entity.

These filings are to be made electronically through the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD). (G) is the subject of a suspension or expulsion from membership in or association with a member of a self-regulatory organization that is currently effective and was issued within the last five years.

(3) Exceptions from disqualifications. The prohibitions of paragraph (2) of this subsection shall not apply if:

(A) the party subject to the disqualification is duly licensed or registered to conduct securities related business or render investment advisory services in the state in which the order, judgment, or decree creating the disqualification was entered against such party; or

(B) before investment advisory services are rendered under this section, the Securities Commissioner, or the court or regulatory authority that entered the order, judgment, or decree, waives the disqualification upon a showing of good cause.

(c) Additional requirements for Private Fund Advisers to certain 3(c)(1) Funds. In order to qualify for an exemption pursuant to this section, a Private Fund Adviser who advises at least one 3(c)(1) Fund that is not a Private Equity Fund, Real Estate Fund, or Venture Capital Fund shall comply with the following additional requirements:

(1) the Private Fund Adviser shall advise only those 3(c)(1) Funds (other than Private Equity Funds, Real Estate Funds, and Venture Capital Funds) whose outstanding securities (other than short-term paper) are beneficially owned entirely by persons who would each meet the definition of a qualified client in SEC Rule 205-3, 17 CFR §275.205-3, at the time the securities are purchased from the issuer; provided that if an entity was organized and exists only for the purpose of acquiring an interest in the 3(c)(1) Fund, each beneficial owner of such entity must be a qualified client; and

(2) the Private Fund Adviser shall comply with §116.17 of this title (relating to Custody of Funds or Securities of Clients by Registered Investment Advisers) as if registered.

(e) Investment adviser representatives. An investment adviser representative is exempt from the registration requirements of the Texas Securities Act, Section 12, if he or she is employed by or associated with an investment adviser that is exempt from investment adviser registration in this state pursuant to this section and does not otherwise act as an investment adviser representative.

§139.26. Intrastate Crowdfunding Exemption for SEC Rule 147A Offerings.

(a) General. The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Texas Securities Act (Act), Section 5.T, exempts from the securities registration requirements of the Act, any offer or sale of securities of an issuer made in compliance with Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Rule 147A, 17 CFR §230.147A, through a registered general dealer or a registered Texas crowdfunding portal, provided that all the requirements of this section are satisfied.

(b) Issuer. The issuer is not, either before or because of the offering:

(1) A company, that engaged or proposes to engage in the business of investing, reinvesting, owning, holding, or trading in securities;

(2) Subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, Section 13 or Section 15(d), 15 U.S.C. §78m and §78o(d); or

(3) A company that has not yet defined its business operations, has no business plan, has no stated investment goal for the funds being raised, or that plans to engage in a merger or acquisition with an unspecified business entity.

(c) Offering. The offering must be made exclusively through an Internet website operated by a registered general dealer or registered Texas crowdfunding portal. All consideration received for all sales of the securities in reliance on this exemption shall not exceed $1 million in a 12-month period. This amount is reduced by the aggregate amount received for all sales of securities by the issuer in another offering that does not take place prior to the six-month period immediately preceding or after the six-month period immediately following any offers or sales made in reliance upon this section.

(d) Individual investments. The issuer will not accept more than $5,000 from any single purchaser unless the purchaser is an accredited investor as defined in §107.2 of this title (relating to Definitions). The issuer must have a reasonable basis for believing that the purchaser of a security under this section is a Texas resident and, if applicable, an accredited investor.

(e) Escrow or segregated account to safeguard investor and issuer funds.

(1) All payments for purchases of securities offered under this section are directed to and deposited in an escrow account or a segregated account, if a segregated account is permitted under paragraph (2) of this subsection. The payments must be held in an escrow account or a segregated account until the aggregate capital raised from all purchasers is equal to or greater than the minimum target offering amount specified in the disclosure statement as necessary to implement the business plan. Investors will receive a return of all their subscription funds if the target offering amount is not raised by the time stated in the disclosure statement.

(2) A segregated account may be used in lieu of an escrow account if the maximum offering amount is $1 million or less.

(3) For purposes of this subsection:

(A) An “escrow account” is one administered by an independent escrow agent who is a bank or other depository institution.

(B) A “segregated account” is one established by a registered general dealer or a Texas crowdfunding portal pursuant to a written agreement (“Account Agreement”) with the issuer and provides that the registered general dealer or portal will act on behalf of the issuer and investors to hold funds raised from investors in a specific securities offering until such time as those funds can be disbursed in accordance with paragraph (1) of this subsection. The Account Agreement must identify the bank or other depository institution and account number where the funds will be held. All signatories on the segregated account must be persons registered with the Securities Commissioner.

(4) The escrow account or segregated account must be in a bank or other depository institution located in Texas and organized and subject to regulation under the laws of the United States or under the laws of Texas.

(5) A separate account must be set up for each securities offering in which a segregated account is used in lieu of an escrow account. The Account Agreement entered into in connection with a segregated account, shall include requirements that the dealer or portal must, and the account shall be, administered in accordance with the following principles requiring the dealer or portal to:

(A) be responsible for prudent processing, safeguarding, and accounting for funds entrusted to it by investors and the issuer;

(B) act to the advantage of and in the best interests of the investors and the issuer; and

(C) ensure that all requirements of the Account Agreement between the portal and issuer are met before funds are disbursed from the segregated account.

(6) The issuer shall inform all prospective purchasers and investors if a segregated account is to be used to hold investor payments. Additionally, a portal must make the disclosures mandated by §115.19(c)(3) of this title (relating to Texas Crowdfunding Portal Registration and Activities).

(f) Communications.

(1) All communications between the issuer, prospective purchasers, or investors taking place during the offer of securities pursuant to this section must occur through the Internet website of the registered general dealer or Texas crowdfunding portal. During the time the offering appears on the Internet website, the website must provide channels through which potential purchasers and investors can communicate with one another and with representatives of the issuer about the offering. These communications must be visible to all those with access to the offering materials on the Internet website.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the issuer may distribute a notice limited to a statement that the issuer is conducting an offering, the name of the registered general dealer or portal through which the offering is being conducted, and a link directing the potential investor to the dealer or portal's Internet website.

(g) Internet website.

(1) The registered general dealer or registered portal shall give the Securities Commissioner access to the Internet website operated by the dealer or portal prior to offering an investment opportunity to residents of Texas and the website must remain accessible to the Commissioner throughout the term of the offering.

(2) Information about the issuer and the offering posted on the Internet website operated by the registered general dealer or registered portal consists of:

(A) a copy of the disclosure statement required by subsection (h) of this section;

(B) a summary of the offering, including:

(i) a description of the entity, its form of business, principal office, history, business plan, and the intended use of the offering proceeds, including compensation paid to any owner, executive officer, director, or manager;

(ii) the identity of the executive officers, directors, and managers, including their titles and their prior experience and the identity of all persons owning more than 20% of the ownership interests of any class of securities of the company; and

(iii) a description of the securities being offered and of any outstanding securities of the company, the amount of the offering, and the percentage ownership of the company represented by the offered securities.

(3) The information on the Internet website required by paragraph (2) of this subsection must be made available to the Commissioner and potential investors for a minimum of 21 days before any securities are sold in the offering.

(h) Disclosure statement. A disclosure statement must be made readily available and accessible to each prospective purchaser at the time the offer of securities is made to the prospective purchaser on the Internet website. The disclosure statement must contain all of the following:

(1) Material information and risk factors. All information material to the offering, including, where appropriate, a discussion of significant factors that make the offering speculative or risky.

Guidance on the categories of information to include can be found by reviewing the small business offering information provided by the Texas State Securities Board on its Internet website. Topics to be addressed include, but are not limited to:

- (A) general description of the issuer's business;
- (B) history of the issuer's operations and organization;
- (C) management of the company and principal stockholders;
- (D) how the proceeds from the offering will be used;
- (E) financial information about the issuer;
- (F) description of the securities being offered; and
- (G) litigation and legal proceedings.

(2) Disclosures. The issuer shall inform all prospective purchasers and investors of the following:

(A) There is no ready market for the sale of the securities acquired from this offering; it may be difficult or impossible for an investor to sell or otherwise dispose of this investment. An investor may be required to hold and bear the financial risks of this investment indefinitely;

(B) The securities have not been registered under federal or state securities laws and, therefore, cannot be resold unless the securities are registered or qualify for an exemption from registration under federal and state law;

(C) In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved; and

(D) No federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority has confirmed the accuracy or determined the adequacy of the disclosure statement or any other information on this Internet website.

(3) Financial statements. Issuers must provide current financial statements certified by the principal executive officer to be true and complete in all material respects. If the issuer has audited or reviewed financial statements, prepared within the last three years, such financial statements must also be provided to investors.

(i) Notice filing. Before using any publicly available Internet website in an offering of securities in reliance on this section, the issuer shall file with the Securities Commissioner:

- (1) Form 133.21, Crowdfunding Exemption Notice;
- (2) the disclosure statement, required by subsection (h) of this section;

(3) the summary of the offering, required by subsection (g)(2)(B) of this section; and

(4) if investor funds are to be deposited into a segregated account as permitted by subsection (e) of this section, a copy of the written Account Agreement entered into between the issuer and the registered general dealer or Texas crowdfunding portal that will hold investor funds in the securities offering.

(j) Commissions and remuneration. A commission or other remuneration shall not be paid or given, directly or indirectly, for the offer or sale of the securities unless the person receiving such compensation is registered in Texas as a dealer or agent or as a Texas crowdfunding portal. The issuer may not list its securities on the Internet website of a general dealer or portal that holds an interest in the issuer. The issuer may not compensate a general dealer or a portal by providing a financial interest in the issuer as compensation for services provided to or on behalf of the issuer. A general dealer or portal may not be affiliated with or under common control with an issuer whose securities appear on its Internet website. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Registered Small Business Development Entity, as defined in §115.20 of this title (relating to Texas Crowdfunding Portal Registration and Activities of Small Business Development Entities), may have a financial interest in an issuer listed on its Crowdfunding Web Portal, as defined in §115.20.

(k) Disqualifications.

(1) For purposes of this subsection, “control person” means an officer; director; other person having the power, directly or indirectly, to direct the management or policies of the issuer, whether by contract or otherwise; or a person that owns 20% or more of any class of the outstanding securities of the issuer.

(2) This exemption is not available if the issuer, the issuer’s predecessors, any affiliated issuer, or any control person of the issuer:

(A) within the last five years, has filed a registration statement which is the subject of a currently effective registration stop order entered by any state securities administrator or the United States Securities and Exchange Commission;

(B) within the last five years, has been convicted of any criminal offense in connection with the offer, purchase, or sale of any security, or involving fraud or deceit;

(C) is currently subject to any state or federal administrative enforcement order or judgment, entered within the last five years, finding fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase or sale of any security; or

(D) is currently subject to any order, judgment, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, entered within the last five years, temporarily, preliminarily, or permanently restraining or enjoining such party from engaging in or continuing to engage in any conduct or practice involving fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase or sale of any security.

(3) Paragraph (2) of this subsection shall not apply if:

(A) the party subject to the disqualification is licensed or registered to conduct securities-related business in the state in which the order, judgment, or decree creating the disqualification was entered against such party;

(B) before the first offer under this exemption, the state securities administrator, or the court or regulatory authority that entered the order, judgment, or decree, waives the disqualification; or

(C) the issuer establishes it did not know and exercising reasonable care, based on a factual inquiry, could not have known that a disqualification existed under this subsection.

(4) This exemption is not available to an issuer if:

(A) a control person of the issuer is also a control person of another issuer that has made a securities offering in Texas within the previous 12-month period;

(B) a control person of the issuer is also a control person of another issuer that is concurrently conducting a securities offering in Texas; or §139.27. Mergers and Acquisitions Dealer Exemption.

(a) Dealer and agent exemption. The State Securities Board, pursuant to the Texas Securities Act, Section 12.C, exempts a Mergers and Acquisitions (M&A) Dealer from registration as a dealer provided the conditions set forth in this section are met. The agents for the M&A Dealer are also exempt from registration provided the conditions set forth in this section are met.

(b) Definitions. The following words and terms, when used in this section, shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(1) M&A Dealer--A person engaged in the business of effecting securities transactions solely in connection with a Qualifying M&A Transaction, as identified in subsection (c) of this section.

(2) Actively Operate--The power to elect executive officers and approve the annual budget or serving as an executive or other executive manager.

(3) Privately-Held Company--A company that does not have any class of securities registered or required to be registered with a securities regulator and is not required to file periodic information, documents, or reports under Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act. The company must be an operating company that is a going concern and not a shell company. For purposes of this definition, a 'going concern' need not be profitable so long as it has actually been conducting business, including soliciting or effecting business transactions or engaging in research and development activities.

(4) Shell Company--A company that has no or nominal operations, and has:

- (A) no or nominal assets;
- (B) assets consisting solely of any amount of cash or cash equivalents; or
- (C) assets consisting of any amount of cash and cash equivalents and nominal other assets.

(5) Business Combination Related Shell Company--a Shell Company (as defined in SEC Rule 405) that is:

(A) formed by an entity that is not a shell company solely for the purpose of changing the corporate domicile of that entity solely within the United States; or

(B) formed by an entity that is not a Shell Company solely for the purpose of completing a business combination transaction (as defined in SEC Rule 165(f)) among one or more entities other than the Shell Company, none of which is a Shell Company.

(c) Qualifying M&A Transactions. To be a Qualifying M&A Transaction, the transaction must meet all the following requirements.

(1) A Qualifying M&A Transaction is a transfer of ownership and control of a Privately-Held Company to a buyer through the purchase, sale, exchange, issuance, repurchase, or redemption of securities, or a business combination involving securities or assets of the company.

(2) Upon completion of the transaction, the buyer or group of buyers must actively operate the company or the business conducted with the assets of the company.

(3) No Qualifying M&A Transaction can involve a public offering of securities. Any offering or sale of securities will be conducted in compliance with an applicable exemption from registration under the Texas Securities Act.

(4) No party to any Qualifying M&A Transaction can be a Shell Company, other than a Business Combination Related Shell Company.

(5) The buyer, or group of buyers, in any Qualifying M&A Transaction must, upon completion of the transaction, control the company. A buyer, or group of buyers collectively, would have the necessary control if it has the power, directly or indirectly, to direct the management or policies of a company, whether through ownership of securities, by contract, or otherwise. The necessary control will be presumed to exist if, upon completion of the transaction, the buyer or group of buyers has the right to vote 25% or more of a class of voting securities; has the power to sell or direct the sale of 25% or more of a class of voting securities; or in the case of a partnership or limited liability company, has the right to receive upon dissolution or has contributed 25% or more of the capital.

(6) No Qualifying M&A Transaction can result in the transfer of securities to a passive buyer or group of passive buyers.

(7) Any securities received by the buyer or M&A Dealer in a Qualifying M&A Transaction are restricted securities within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, Rule 144(a)(3).

(d) Permitted activities. An M&A Dealer may:

(1) advertise a Privately-Held Company for sale with information such as the description of the business, general location, and price range, so long as the dealer does not include an offer for sale of securities; or

(2) facilitate a Qualifying M&A Transaction with a group of buyers only if the group is formed without the assistance of the M&A Dealer.

(e) Prohibited activities. An M&A Dealer may not:

(1) have the ability to bind a party to a Qualifying M&A Transaction;

(2) directly, or indirectly through any of its affiliates, provide financing for a Qualifying M&A Transaction; or

(3) have custody, control, or possession of or otherwise handle funds or securities issued or exchanged in connection with a Qualifying M&A Transaction or other securities transaction for the account of others.

(f) Disclosures.

(1) To the extent an M&A Dealer represents both buyers and sellers, it must provide clear written disclosure as to the parties it represents and obtain written consent from both parties to the joint representation.

(2) An M&A Dealer that assists buyers to obtain financing from unaffiliated third parties must comply with all applicable legal requirements and must disclose any compensation in writing to the buyer.

(g) Disqualifications.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, the exemption in this section is not available if the M&A Dealer, or an officer, director, or employee of the M&A Dealer are subject to any of the following disqualifications:

(A) any of those described in Rule 262 of SEC Regulation A, 17 CFR §230.262;

(B) has been convicted within five years prior to the filing of the notice required under this exemption of any felony or misdemeanor involving the offer, purchase, or sale of any security or the rendering of investment advice, or any felony involving embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, or conspiracy to defraud;

(C) is currently subject to any order, judgment, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, entered within the last five years, temporarily, preliminarily, or permanently restraining or enjoining such party from engaging in or continuing to engage in any conduct or practice involving fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase or sale of a security or the rendering of investment advice;

(D) is the subject of a United States Postal Service fraud order that is currently effective and was issued within the last five years;

(E) is currently subject to any state or federal administrative enforcement order or judgment, entered within the last five years, finding fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase or sale of a security or the rendering of investment advice;

(F) is subject to an order issued by a state or federal authority that bars the person from association with an entity regulated by the authority that issued the order, or from engaging in the business of securities, insurance, or banking, or savings association or credit union activities; or

(G) is the subject of a suspension or expulsion from membership in or association with a member of a self-regulatory organization that is currently effective and was issued within the last five years.

(2) The prohibitions of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not apply if:

(A) the party subject to the disqualification is duly licensed or registered to conduct securities-related business or render investment advisory services in the state in which the order, judgment, or decree creating the disqualification was entered against such party; or

(B) before services are rendered under this section, the Securities Commissioner, or the court or regulatory authority that entered the order, judgment, or decree, waives the disqualification upon a showing of good cause.

(h) Recordkeeping and requests for records.

(1) An M&A Dealer shall maintain and preserve for a period of three (3) years records of all compensation received and communications, agreements, or contracts with buyers and/or sellers in connection with any transaction or transactions in which the dealer received compensation.

(2) Upon a written request from the Securities Commissioner or the Commissioner's authorized representative, an M&A Dealer relying on the exemption provided by this section shall make available to the Commissioner all records required to be maintained and preserved under this subsection. Failure to comply with this subsection will result in the loss of the exemption provided by this section.
