The Staff of the Enforcement Division ("the Staff") of the Texas State Securities Board ("the Securities Board") has presented evidence sufficient for the Securities Commissioner to find that:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Affordable Leasing and Finance LP (“Respondent ALF”) is a domestic limited partnership that maintains a last known address of 2009 Ranch Road 620 N., Suite 340, Austin, Texas 78734.
2. Leap Frog Capital LP (“Respondent LFC”) is a domestic limited partnership that maintains a last known address of 2009 Ranch Road 620 N., Suite 340, Austin, Texas 78734.
3. Your Dollar Builder, LLC, (“Respondent YDB”) is a domestic limited liability company that maintains a last known address of 2009 Ranch Road 620 N., Suite 340, Austin, Texas 78734. Respondent YDB is the general partner of Respondent LFC.
4. Bruce A. Craig (“Respondent Craig”) maintains a last known address of 2009 Ranch Road 620 N., Suite 340, Austin, Texas 78734. Respondent Craig is the registered agent and general manager of Respondent ALF and the managing member of Respondent YDB
5. Respondents are offering investments in a private money lending program and investments in a limited partnership in Texas. The investments are being offered through various means, including an Internet website accessible by the general public, online video presentations, magazine publications and sales seminars directed toward senior citizens and retirees.
6. Respondents are touting the safety and profitability of the aforementioned investments as well as the business experience of Respondent Craig. For example, Respondents claim that:
 - a. The private money lending program and the investment in units “will safely and securely yield 15-20 times what you can get in interest from a bank and not have your principal at risk as people do in the stock market.”
 - b. Investors may “earn 15-20 times more than with banks or traditional investments. Tax-free!”
 - c. The investments are “unlike stocks” because “your principal is never at risk.”
 - d. There is “No Volatility! (Your Principal Remains the Same and You Earn a Reliable and Certain Return, Unlike the Stock Market!)”
 - e. The investment programs are “safe and secured with real estate.”

- f. Respondent Craig “has been proprietor of his own businesses since 1980” and from “1987 to 1995 Mr. Craig headed a group that bought, sold, managed and serviced multimillion dollar portfolio of discount real estate secured mortgages on a nationwide basis.”
 - g. “From 1998-2003 Mr. Craig joined a manufacturing company with multi-million sales, to create an in-house finance program to provide financing and full servicing for dealers and their clients in 18 states.”
 - h. Respondent Craig, over the last 31 years has been a real estate investor, and during the last 23 years, he has managed millions in self-directed IRA funds.
7. Respondents ALF and Craig are offering investments in real estate loans and discounted real estate notes as part of the private money lending program. They are describing these investments as follows:
- a. Investors establish an account with Respondent ALF and invest a minimum of $5000.00. Respondent ALF also requires the investor to execute a Limited Power of Attorney, appointing Respondent ALF to be its true and lawful attorney-in-fact.
 - b. Respondent ALF identifies and qualifies potential real estate loans and discounted real estate notes.
 - c. Investor monies are then used to fund the real estate loans and to purchase the discounted real estate notes.
 - d. Respondent ALF thereafter services the loan, collects payments from parties and provides statements to the investors.
 - e. Respondent ALF is responsible for taking steps to collect payments when a borrower defaults on a real estate loan or discounted real estate note. Respondent ALF is also authorized to retain attorneys on the investor’s behalf and commence and pursue foreclosure proceedings.
 - f. Respondent ALF pays investors principal and/or interest on a monthly basis unless investors authorize Respondent ALF to reinvest their interest so that it compounds on a monthly basis.
 - g. Respondent ALF is also offering potential or current investors a $100.00 credit toward their first transaction and a $100.00 credit for any referrals provided to Respondent ALF.

8. Respondents ALF and Craig are also offering investors the opportunity to invest in equipment leases as part of the private money lending program. They are describing this opportunity as follows:
 - a. An investor loans at least $5,000 to Respondent ALF. The loan between Respondent AFL and the investor is evidenced with a note.
 - b. Respondent ALF identifies one or more homeowners who need financing to purchase equipment, such as an air conditioning system, hot water heater or a heating system.
 - c. Respondent ALF purchases the equipment from a contractor at a wholesale price. It thereafter leases equipment to the homeowners. The homeowners make monthly payments, by automatic bank draft, to Respondent ALF pursuant to their leases, and a portion of the monthly payment is applied to the retail purchase price of the equipment. Respondent ALF also requires that it be listed as a lien holder on each homeowner's insurance policy.
 - d. The leases collateralize the loan between the Respondent ALF and the investor.
 - e. Respondent ALF replaces any defaulted lease with a performing lease of equal or greater value. Respondent ALF also represents that it will attempt to physically repossess leased equipment in the event of default.
 - f. Respondent ALF pays investors principal and interest pursuant to the terms of the original loan. In lieu of receiving payments, investors may authorize Respondent ALF to reinvest their interest so that it compounds on a monthly basis.
9. Respondents are also offering limited partnership units in Respondent LFC and they are describing the offering as follows:
 - a. Respondents are representing that the offering is being conducted pursuant to Regulation D, Rule 506, and that Respondent LFC is accepting up to thirty-five non-accredited investors and an unlimited number of accredited investors.
 - b. Respondent LFC is selling up to 1600 units for $25,000 per unit. Respondents state the capital collected will be held in an interest-bearing account until ten units have been fully funded. Once ten units or $250,000.00 has been collected, Respondents will commence operations.
 - c. Respondent LFC will invest in real estate and finance real estate transactions, including hard money loans secured by real estate, discounted real estate loans, and single family residences for rehabilitation and resale. Respondents anticipate that the fund will receive sufficient revenue to pay investors an eleven to fifteen percent return. The return will be paid as follows:

- i. Respondent YDB, the General Partner/Manager of the fund, will be paid a four percent fee. Two percent is an administration fee and two percent is a servicing fee which will be paid monthly, commencing July 1, 2013;
 - ii. Investors will then collectively receive a seven percent preference on all profits realized during each year; and
 - iii. After seven percent of the profits are distributed to investors, they will split the profits with the general partner. Investors will receive forty percent of remaining profits and Respondent YDB, the general partner, will receive sixty percent of remaining profits.
10. The private money lending program and the limited partnership units have not registered by qualification, notification, or coordination and no permit has been granted for their sale in Texas.
11. Respondents have not registered with the Securities Commissioner as dealers or agents at any time material hereto.
12. Respondents are intentionally failing to disclose one or more of the following material facts in connection with the offer of the private money lending program and the limited partnership units in Respondent LFC:
