

From on or about March 6, 2001 to the present, Respondent Kilpatrick has been employed and authorized by Respondent FWS to act and render services as an investment adviser representative to the clients of Respondent FWS, for compensation within the State of Texas, and has acted and rendered such services.

From on or about April 19, 2006 to the present, Respondent Skelton has been employed and authorized by Respondent FWS to act and render services as an investment adviser representative to the clients of Respondent FWS, for compensation within the State of Texas, and has acted and rendered such services.

10. From on or about August 24, 2005 to the present, Respondent Wallace has been employed and authorized by Respondent FWS to act and render services as an investment adviser representative to the clients of Respondent FWS, for compensation within the State of Texas, and has acted and rendered such services.
11. At all times relevant to this Order, Respondent Kilpatrick, Respondent Skelton and Respondent Wallace have not been registered with the Securities Commissioner as investment adviser representatives for Respondent FWS.
12. Pursuant to Section 12.B of the Texas Securities Act and §116.1(b)(1)(A) of the Board Rules, any person employed, appointed or authorized by an investment adviser to act or render services for compensation as an investment adviser representative for such investment adviser in this state must first be registered as an investment adviser representative for such investment adviser, notice-filed or otherwise exempt.
13. Pursuant to §116.2(a)(2) of the Board Rules, an investment adviser is required to file a Uniform Application for Securities Industry Registration or Transfer ("Form U-4") for each of its investment adviser representatives that are required to be registered with the Securities Commissioner.
14. Pursuant to §116.10 of the Board Rules, a registered investment adviser is required to establish and maintain a system to supervise the activities of its investment adviser representatives that is reasonably designed to achieve compliance with the Texas Securities Act and Board Rules. Such supervisory systems must be written and available for inspection in either print or electronic format.
15. Pursuant to Section 14.A(5)(b) of the Texas Securities Act, the Securities Commissioner may reprimand a registered investment adviser, if the investment adviser has engaged in the rendering of services as an investment adviser in this state through representatives who were not registered to perform such services for that investment adviser.

16. Pursuant to Section 14.A(6) of the Texas Securities Act, the Securities Commissioner may reprimand a registered investment adviser and registered agents, if the investment adviser and the agents have violated any provision of the Texas Securities Act or the Board Rules.
17. Pursuant to Section 23-1 of the Texas Securities Act, the Securities Commissioner may assess an administrative fine against any investment adviser and any investment adviser representatives found to have engaged in any act or practice that violates the Texas Securities Act or Board Rules.
18. Pursuant to Section 23.B of the Texas Securities Act, the Securities Commissioner may prohibit an unregistered person from acting as an investment adviser representative in violation of the Texas Securities Act.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. From on or about March 6, 2001 to the present, Respondent Kilpatrick rendered services in Texas as an "investment adviser representative" as that term is defined by Section 4.P of the Texas Securities Act.
2. From on or about April 19, 2006 to the present, Respondent Skelton rendered services in Texas as an "investment adviser representative" as that term is defined by Section 4.P of the Texas Securities Act.
3. From on or about August 24, 2005 to the present, Respondent Wallace rendered services in Texas as an "investment adviser representative" as that term is defined by Section 4.P of the Texas Securities Act.
4. Respondent Kilpatrick, Respondent Skelton and Respondent Wallace rendered services as investment adviser representatives for Respondent FWS in violation of Section 12.B of the Texas Securities Act and §116.1(b)(1)(A) of the Board Rules.
5. The failure of Respondent FWS to file Form U-4s with the Securities Commissioner for registration of Respondent Kilpatrick, Respondent Skelton and Respondent Wallace as investment adviser representatives for Respondent FWS, are violations of §116.2(a)(2) of the Board Rules.
6. The failure of Respondent FWS to maintain its written system for supervision of the activities of its investment adviser representatives that was reasonably designed to achieve compliance with the Texas Securities Act and Board Rules, is a violation of §116.10 of the Board Rules.

7. Pursuant to Sections 14.A(5)(b) and 14.A(6) of the Texas Securities Act, the rendering of services as an investment adviser through unregistered investment adviser representatives and the foregoing violations, constitute bases for the issuance of an order reprimanding a registered investment adviser and registered agents.
8. Pursuant to Section 23-1 of the Texas Securities Act, the foregoing violations constitute bases for assessing fines against an investment adviser and investment adviser representatives.
9. Pursuant to Section 23.B of the Texas Securities Act, the foregoing unregistered activities constitute bases for issuing a cease and desist order against investment adviser representatives.
